

List of recommendations

SESSION 3: 1-15 DECEMBER 2008

In this document are contained all the recommendations made during session 3 of the UPR and mentioned in Section II "Conclusions and/or recommendations" of the Reports of the Working Group:

1330 recommendations by 89 States

ALBANIA

○ To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To accede to the Convention against Torture

- To consider all possibilities and initiate a public debate with a view to adopt, as a first step, a de facto moratorium on the enforcement of the death penalty

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To continue efforts to fully eradicate sexual mutilation

- To consolidate cooperation with OHCHR to reinforce its national capacity in human rights, cited in paragraph 108 of the national report

- To accede to the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To abolish death penalty by adopting a law commuting all death sentences that have been pronounced

○ To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To do everything possible, in the territories under its jurisdiction, to protect human rights defenders, trade unions workers and journalists, and take necessary political measures to protect them and respect their human rights

ALGERIA

○ To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To adhere to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.
- To continue efforts in favour of women in rural areas
- To enable migrants and refugees to benefit from the pilot project to fight HIV/AIDS

○ To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To complete its accession and to speedily ratify the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights
- To consider the possibility of acceding to the other major human rights instruments, in particular the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment
- To consider the possibility of acceding to the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families
- To step up its efforts, with the assistance of OHCHR, in human rights training
- To establish an independent body for the promotion and protection of human rights in conformity with the Paris Principles
- To consider withdrawing its reservations to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, in particular article 2

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- Recommended That the Government and armed groups that are signatories to the cease fire concluded pursuant to the agreement of 7 September 2006 continue efforts to implement it
- To continue efforts in the sector of the judicial system with the support of the international community
- With the support and cooperation of the international community, continue to fight poverty

○ To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To consider ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families

○ To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To consider the possibility of acceding to the Convention against Torture and the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families
- To take and strengthen necessary legislative measures required to incorporate in its domestic law the provisions contained in international human rights instruments to which it is a party
- To take appropriate measures to develop its internal domestic legislation so as to guarantee economic, social and cultural rights for all
- To call on OHCHR, in consultation with the Government, to provide technical assistance regarding the incorporation of international human rights instruments into domestic law

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To continue its efforts to protect the environment, including through implementation of the environment act adopted in July 2008, and envisage sharing this experience with concerned countries
- To continue its efforts to ensure full implementation of the rights of women
- To elaborate a census, in conjunction with UNDP, UNHCR and civil society, on the number of Roma, in particular refugees and displaced Roma
- To evaluate the access of the various categories of Roma to education, jobs and social protection

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To organize training and seminars on human rights for law enforcement authorities in charge of combating terrorism

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To accede to the Convention on the Rights of all Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families
- To envisage taking measures to remedy the discrimination made between European foreigners and those from developing countries, including in the area of family reunification, and gaps in protection this has led to
- To implement its commitment to increase the proportion of ODA to 0.7 per cent of GDP in 2009 and pursue actions in the area of ODA

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To take appropriate measures to implement its commitments referred to in paragraphs 119 and 120 of the national report, in particular ratifying various international instruments
- To consider ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To pay attention to the integration into domestic legislation of the commitments undertaken by Turkmenistan by virtue of international conventions on human rights
- To pursue its efforts, with the assistance of OHCHR, to abide by the timeline described in item 2 of paragraph 105 of the national report relating to its reporting to treaty bodies
- To continue its efforts to establish an educational system in conformity with international standards, especially, as recommended by the Committee of the Rights of the Child, through the inclusion of human rights education in the curricula

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To accede to the 1960 UNESCO Convention against Discrimination in Education
- To continue its initiative to combat and put an end to the practise of excision
- To overcome, with the technical and financial assistance of the international community, the constraints and challenges particularly in the area of education, health and employment

- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To ratify the UNESCO Convention against Discrimination in Education

- To accede to the Convention on the Protection and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide and the Convention on the Status of Refugees

○ To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To continue, in cooperation with the relevant international organizations, to implement its commitments as listed in paragraph 42 of its national report with regard to the worrying issue of the use of anti-personnel landmines by illegal armed groups

- To continue, with the support of the international community, to do everything to protect its population against all forms of human rights violations committed by illegal armed groups

- To continue efforts to implement its commitments, as described in paragraphs 67, 71 and 76 of the national report with regard to the protection of displaced persons, women and children

○ To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To combat organized crimes, terrorism, drug trafficking with the technical assistance of the international community

- To accede to the 1951 Convention relating to the Status of Refugees

○ To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To consider the possibility of acceding promptly at least to the main international instruments, such as the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination

- To accord appropriate attention to the education sector in the medium and long term as the only way to correct the lack of human resources and institutional capacities in the country

ANGOLA

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To continue to strengthen educational policies

○ To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To continue efforts to fight discrimination against women, aiming to change deep-rooted behaviours and attitudes

ARGENTINA

○ To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To take measures to eliminate the persistence of traditions harmful to the rights of women, including early contract marriages and polygamy

- To take further measures to adopt legislation ensuring the implementation of the Convention, in particular in the area violence prevention and sexual exploitation of children and ensure girls are protected from sexual abuse

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To complete its accession and to speedily ratify the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights
- To consider the possibility of acceding to the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- To take the necessary measures to implement article 23 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To consider ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance and accept the competence of the relevant committee
- Recommended that an amendment be made to the legal system so that crimes of sexual violence and sexual abuse are made punishable, and those responsible for such crimes do not enjoy impunity
- To develop a strategy for preventing and combating all forms of violence against women

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To consider ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance
- To consider ratifying the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To recognize the competence of the Committee on Enforced Disappearances

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To consider the possibility of accession to the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights with a view to abolishing the death penalty
- To consider the possibility of ratifying the Convention against Torture, since that international instrument is a fundamental tool in working to promote and protect human rights, particularly with regard to people deprived of freedom
- Take measures to include a definition of torture in line with article 7 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights in domestic legislation

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To evaluate the possibility of ratifying the second optional protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights to abolish the death penalty
- To consider the possibility of signing and ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance and accept the competence of its Committee

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To ratify the Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance and accept the jurisdiction of the Committee on Forced Disappearances

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To consider the possibility of ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance
- To Consider the possibility of implementing free primary education

- To accept the jurisdiction of the Committee related to the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance

○ To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To consider the possibility of adopting legislation which will promote gender equality, and to consider the adoption of legislation to provide equality of rights and opportunities

- To consider the possibility of reviewing these practices and also the idea of implementing labour inspections by qualified professionals and with appropriate funding

AUSTRALIA

○ To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To ratify the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights to abolish the death penalty

○ To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To undertake a comprehensive study on child abuse in order to understand its scope and to suggest ways to prevent it

- To establish a national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles

- To ratify the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, aiming at the abolition of the death penalty

- To abolish the death penalty and immediately declare a moratorium on all executions

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To establish an independent national human rights commission in compliance with the Paris Principles

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To continue efforts to fully eradicate sexual mutilation

- Recommended the implementation of a national strategy to combat the issue of trafficking in girls and women for sexual exploitation

- To take the steps to abolish the death penalty under the law

○ To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To implement effective means of dismantling all forms of illegal armed groups that have emerged since the demobilization process began

- To continue its investigations of public servants and political leaders who have links with paramilitary groups

- To acknowledge publicly the work of human rights defenders and trade unionists as legitimate and refrain from making public statements that could be seen as delegitimizing these groups or linking them with illegal guerrilla groups

- To ensure that human rights abuses committed against human rights defenders, trade unionists and other advocacy groups are investigated thoroughly and those responsible are prosecuted

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To sign the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

- To implement effective means to ensure greater public awareness of the issues of domestic violence and gender discrimination and encourage greater involvement of Government agencies and civil society in efforts to address these issues

AUSTRIA

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To establish transitional justice mechanisms as a key element to the administration of justice and re-establishment of the rule of law

- Recommended that cases of rape and other forms of sexual violence be adequately investigated and to brought perpetrators to justice in accordance with international standards concerning the administration of justice

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To pursue the adoption of a general anti-discrimination act and aim at its adoption as soon as possible

- To conclude all necessary decisions at the appropriate levels for setting up an independent and effective appointment system for the judiciary

- To ensure that the definition of minorities used in all laws provides for full protection against any discrimination

- To make fully operational the mechanisms for implementing the minority strategy and the national Roma strategy, such as the National Minority Council and a special funding mechanism

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To Increase efforts to implement the recommendations of treaty bodies and to use the ongoing negotiations on a new constitution to include general non-discrimination provisions for all Israeli citizens

- To ensure that human rights defenders are able to carry out their legitimate work in a secure and free environment

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To prohibit corporal punishment, including in the family, in line with the recent recommendation of the Committee on the Rights of the Child

- To strengthen measures to ensure registration of all Roma in Serbia

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To fully implement the recommendations of the OHCHR field office in Colombia as a means to contribute to the improvement of the human rights situation on the ground

- To take all necessary steps to ensure the recovery, rehabilitation and reintegration of child soldiers and address the underlying exclusion and marginality, which makes rural children particularly vulnerable to recruitment by armed groups

- To increase efforts to address the question of sexual violence of children, in particular in rural areas, develop effective data collection with regard to sexual and physical abuse of children and ensure that adequate report, policing and juridical measures are in place

- To increase efforts to end impunity of those responsible for forced displacement, and intensify security measures for the communities of internally displaced persons, in particular by protecting their property rights

○ To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To initiate investigations into all allegations of torture or other forms of ill-treatment in a thorough, impartial and independent manner as required by international human rights law

- To provide victims of torture with adequate reparation in accordance with international human rights obligations

- To take further steps to enable civil society to thrive without interference and restrictions

- Recommended that any restrictions on the activities of civil society be lifted and safeguards implemented to prevent human rights defenders from being prosecuted for their peaceful activities

AZERBAIJAN

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To take effective measures to eliminate all forms of discrimination against women, beginning with harmful cultural practices

- To consolidate reconciliation

- With the support and cooperation of the international community, continue to fight poverty

- To fight with resolve sexual violence and impunity and increase the level of representation of women in society

○ To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To intensify its efforts to combat human trafficking

○ To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To accelerate the process of bringing its national legislation into compliance with the provisions of the main international instruments to which it is a party

- To redouble efforts to increase women's representation in society and to join the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women

- To honour its obligations under international humanitarian law with regard to the situation in the Occupied Palestinian Territories

- To improve and strengthen cooperation with all relevant United Nations special procedures and mechanisms to, inter alia, improve the enjoyment of human rights by populations in the Occupied Palestinian Territories and to reverse the dire humanitarian situation there

○ To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To continue efforts to fight right-wing extremism

- To intensify efforts to promote ethnic and religious tolerance in the country

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To extend the monitoring authorities of the Office of the Ombudsman to Government and the Public Prosecutor's Office to ensure the possibility of Redressing human rights violations

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To continue efforts to ensure the protection of all human rights defenders and reporters

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To continue the practice of adopting national plans of action on various fields with the purpose to improve the human rights situation in the country, as well as to implement some of the recommendations given by the United Nations treaty bodies

BAHRAIN

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To be complimented for its pioneering and considerable experience in the area of Ending employment of children in camel racing

- To invite the Special Rapporteur on trafficking in persons, especially women and children, to visit the country

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To grant Palestinians economic, social and cultural rights as well as civil and political rights; allow Palestinians to reach places of worship, and protect religious freedom in accordance with article 27 of the Fourth Geneva Convention, as the occupying power, and bear its responsibility in this respect; and allow the international community organizations, particularly ICRC, to ascertain the health conditions of Arab detainees in Israeli prisons

BANGLADESH

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To continue efforts to achieve universal basic education and reduce primary school drop-out rates, with the support of the international community

- With the support of the international community, continue to fight HIV/AIDS

- With the support of the international community, continue to fight poverty

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To consider the possibility of acceding to the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography

- To consider undertaking studies on children involved in the commercial sex industry, factors luring or compelling them to engage in such crimes, and to take appropriate action

- To Burund: A/HRC/10/71

With the support and cooperation of the international community, continue to combat diseases such as HIV/AIDS, malaria and tuberculosis, with special attention to the vulnerable

- With the support and cooperation of the international community, continue to fight poverty, particularly extreme poverty

- With international support, continue to promote education for all, with special attention to achieving gender parity in school enrolment

○ To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To deal with the issue of trafficking in persons, particularly women and children for sexual exploitation, with the full cooperation of countries in the trafficking chain

- To take effective measures for the full enjoyment of human rights by the Roma, Ashkali and Egyptian minorities, especially to guarantee their economic, social and cultural rights

○ To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights on the Child on the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography

- To establish a national human rights institution, in accordance with the Paris Principles

- To continue efforts to improve the situation of migrants, at the legal, judicial and administrative levels

○ To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To take effective measures to combat trafficking in women and children in cooperation with countries in the trafficking network

○ To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To continue to cooperate with United Nations human rights mechanisms to further improve the human rights situation

- To continue to improve the situation of education in line with recent reforms in this sector

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To continue to make progress in the campaign to achieve universal basic education, including through non-formal education, with the support and cooperation of the international community

- With the support and cooperation of the international community, continue to fight poverty, ensuring that the benefits are accrued by all citizens in all regions; continue to improve the healthcare system and combat deadly diseases, such as HIV/AIDS

○ To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

-To strengthen and deepen interaction with relevant international human rights mechanisms and continue to engage with them constructively

- To continue to improve living standards, access for basic services such as health and education with the full support and cooperation of the international community

BARBADOS

○ To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To seek support from all countries and relevant organizations, including OHCHR, to support the request of the Bahamas for technical assistance in human rights training and capacity-building

BELARUS

○ To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To continue to pursue a policy ensuring that there is no distortion in the development of economic, social, cultural, civil and political rights

BELGIUM

○ To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To provide medical follow-up for HIV-positive mothers and respective infected children

- To educate prison populations on the HIV/AIDS virus and respect sanitary conditions of prisons

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To reconsider the inclusion in the draft criminal code of the provision criminalizing same-sex sexual relations in conformity with Burundi's obligations to ensure non-discrimination and the right to privacy

- To respect freedoms of expression, association and assembly, pursuant to international instruments, use mediation procedures to calm conflicts, and end the use of imprisonment for speech critical of the Government

○ To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To ensure that all religious communities are treated without discrimination

○ To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To limit the cases in which restrictions to free movement are applied to situations that require guaranteeing its security, in accordance with international law, in particular with the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, non-discriminative and proportionate to the desired aim

○ To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To eliminate all impediments to freedom of religion and belief at juridical and administrative levels, and put an end to the intimidation of members of religious communities

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To ensure the independence of the national human rights commission, particularly in adjusting its competences and funding in accordance with the Paris Principles

- To make every possible effort to ensure that justice can operate independently and that all political influence on the legal system is eliminated

- Recommend, with regard to corruption, that the Government translate its intentions into tangible results and measures

○ To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To take the necessary measures to guarantee the independence and the efficient functioning of the judicial system

- To guarantee the efficient implementation of the Justice and Peace Law, taking into account the clarifications given by the Constitutional Court

- To guarantee access to justice and the right to reparation for victims in a non-discriminatory way, in conformity with international standards

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To reinforce the protection of human rights defenders and free those who are still detained in their capacity as human rights defenders

BENIN

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To continue its efforts to address the challenges it faces, with the support of the States members of the United Nations

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and establish a national preventive mechanism

BOLIVIA

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To invite the Special Rapporteur on the rights and fundamental freedoms of indigenous peoples to return to the country for a follow-up visit as soon as possible

- To take into account the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in the implementation of its public policies

BOTSWANA

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To envisage actions to abolish capital punishment

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To continue seeking technical assistance from the international community, particularly through OHCHR, towards capacity-building in human rights training and other areas, to augment the country's efforts in meeting its human rights obligations, both domestically and internationally

BRAZIL

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To consider ratifying/acceding to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

- To accomplish progressively the human rights goals set up by the Human Rights Council in its resolution 9/12

- To continue efforts to eliminate corporal punishment

- To explore the possibility of a moratorium on the application of the death penalty towards its complete abolition, in conformity with the latest General Assembly resolutions on the subject

- To seek assistance from delegations that are materially capable of assisting Botswana in its endeavours with regard to treaty body reporting, human rights education and training, components of the national statistical system and the system to monitor development

○ To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To consider increasing its dialogue with treaty bodies and special procedures

- To consider establishing a moratorium on executions with a view to abolishing the death penalty, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 62/149

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To consider ratifying the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women

- To consider ratifying the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture

- To consider strengthening programmes to fight and prevent HIV/AIDS, with special attention to women and children

- To consider extending a standing invitation to special procedures

○ To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To consider ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance

- To consider ratifying the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture

- To consider strengthening policies on human rights and mental health, with special attention to the area of child psychiatry

- To further develop its law on migrants, refugees and asylum-seekers in line with the principle of non-refoulement

- To attain the human rights goals set by the Human Rights Council in its resolution 9/12

○ To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To strengthen cooperation with human rights mechanisms to overcome challenges presented frankly in the national report

- To establish an independent national human rights institution, in accordance with the Paris Principles

- To establish a moratorium on the death penalty, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 62/149

- To work towards taking measures in relation to the psychological and physical impact of domestic violence on children

○ To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To consider the possibility of acceding to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To reach progressively the human rights goals set by the Council in its resolution 9/12
- Recommended a moratorium on executions with a view to abolishing the death penalty, as provided by General Assembly resolution 62/149

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To ratify/consider ratifying the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court
- To consider strengthening dialogue and cooperation by issuing a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Council
- To reach the human rights goals set by the Council in its resolution 9/12
- To dismantle the wall in the Occupied Palestinian Territories and refrain from expansion of settlements

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To continue strengthening a system of data collection with a view to determine the extent of manifestations of racism and direct and indirect racial discrimination
- To establish the institution of an ombudsman

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To consider ratifying the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- To consider ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance
- To consider poverty reduction strategies that benefit minority groups
- To reach the human rights goals set by the Council in its resolution 9/12

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

To strengthen its policy on prevention and combat of child labour and on the full guarantee of the rights of the child, with special attention to children without parental care

- To accede to/ratify the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court
- To consider ratifying the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To consider ratifying the Convention for the Protection of all Persons against Enforced Disappearance and the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women
- To reach the human rights goals set by the Council in its resolution 9/12
- To consider adopting a standing invitation to human rights special procedures

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To continue efforts to fully eradicate sexual mutilation
- To consider fostering national strategies to combat child labour and to promote decent work

- To consider the extension of a standing invitation to the special procedures of the Council”
- Recommend the abolishment of the death penalty in accordance with General Assembly resolution 62/149

- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To reach the human rights goals set by the Council in its resolution 9/12
- To consider ratifying the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court, the Convention for the Protection of All Persons against Enforced Disappearance, the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the Optional Protocols to the Convention against Torture and the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women
- To consider extending a standing invitation to human rights special procedures
- To strengthen its policy to guarantee the rights of the child fully, with special attention to children without parental care
- To consider strengthening programmes to fight and prevent HIV/AIDS, with special attention to women and children

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To continue efforts to combat impunity and human rights violations, and achieve the voluntary human rights goals approved by the Council in its resolution 9/12
- To increase social and economic initiatives to reinforce the full enjoyment of human rights by internally displaced persons, in particular minorities, such as indigenous peoples and Afro descendents
- To expand access to education by offering free public primary education

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To consider ratifying OP-CAT
- To consider ratifying the Rome Statute establishing the International Criminal Court
- To reach the human rights goals set out by the Council in its resolution 9/12
- To fully implement the national strategy to fight against child labour and to promote descent work

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To ratify human rights treaties to which Tuvalu is not yet a party
- To build a national commission for human rights and a human rights office in the country, and provide human rights education programmes and awareness-raising activities, calling upon the international community to consider technical assistance and financial support
- To keep working in cooperation with OHCHR on the theme of the upcoming Review Conference on racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance as it enters the final phase of its preparatory process
- To work towards reaching the human rights goals set by the Council in its resolution 9/12 and to strengthening its public policy guaranteeing the rights of the child, with special attention to children without parental care

BURKINA FASO

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To continue its efforts to overcome constraints and difficulties in order to implement all human rights and fundamental freedoms for everyone

BURUNDI

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To pursue its efforts to ensure the schooling of girls and the re-schooling of children who have dropped out of or who have never gone to school, with the support of the United Nations

CAMEROON

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To finalize various outstanding treaty reports, particularly to the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women

- To create a national commission of human rights and freedoms

- To elevate penal responsibility to the level of international standards and delete the marital prerogative in customary and religious marriage

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To consolidate reconciliation and peace through scrupulous respect for projects developed in cooperation with the United Nations

- To create, strengthen and render operational human rights monitoring bodies

CANADA

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To take measures to ensure that article 15 of the Constitution fully complies with the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To increase efforts to raise awareness of the precedence of constitutional law over customary laws and practices to promote gender equality

- To take steps to promote a just and equitable solution through renewed negotiations with affected members of the Central Kalahari Game Reserve communities and respect the economic, social and cultural rights of minorities living or formerly living on the Reserve

- To review the definition of discrimination provided under the section III of the Constitution in terms of its compatibility with the prohibition against discrimination against descent and national or ethnic origin

- To explore the possibility of a moratorium on the application of the death penalty towards its complete abolition, in conformity with the latest General Assembly resolutions on the subject

- To decriminalize homosexual relations and practices/consensual same-sex activities between adults

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To undertake a comprehensive study on child abuse in order to understand its scope and to suggest ways to prevent it
- To establish a national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles, as recommended by the Committee on the Rights of the Child, that is adequately resourced, child-sensitive and able to provide remedies in a timely manner
- To implement the recommendations of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination regarding migrants, refugees and asylum-seekers
- To focus more efforts on combating child prostitution and pornography and in aiding its victims in accordance with the recommendations of the Committee on the Rights of the Child
- To subject any detention of migrants, refugees or asylum seekers to judicial review and ensure that persons are informed of their rights

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To support the efforts made to establish the procedures for transitional justice under the 2000 Arusha agreements, in particular setting up methods for national consultations, as called for by the Security Council in its resolution 1606 (2005)
- To revoke the new Ministerial Order No. 530 of 6 October 2008 restricting political assembly
- To end all restrictions on political activities and meetings and allow the registration of political parties, as recognize under the Constitution

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To bring the policy on detention of asylum-seekers into compliance with conclusion 7 (e) of the conclusions on international protection of refugees, which recommends that expulsion measures should not include detention unless for national security reasons or public order
- To provide improved training for officials regarding human rights, including racial discrimination and xenophobia issues
- To implement all provisions of the protocol aiming to prevent and punish human trafficking, in particular trafficking in women and children
- To adopt in French, as in the case of the two other official languages, terminologies which truly reflect common values related to equality between men, women and children

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To take steps to enact legislation to enshrine a specific right of non-discrimination on the basis of gender, in accordance with article 1 of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women
- To amend its laws to remove mandatory sentences relating to the death penalty and recognize an official moratorium on its use
- To focus more efforts on combating violence against women and provide authorities with more training in this regard
- To decriminalize consensual sexual acts between adults of the same sex
- To allow for the distribution of condoms within its prisons in order to stem the prevalence of HIV/AIDS in these institutions

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To include explicit references to sexual orientation as a protected category against discrimination in the existing laws on labour and employment as well as in the legislation on hate speech and hate crimes
- To amend the Criminal Code and Constitution so as to incorporate international standards of freedom of expression, as established in article 19 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights
- To effectively address and investigate attacks against journalists and human rights defenders and bring those responsible to justice
- To adopt a strategy to ameliorate the living conditions of the Roma population, in particular, amending legislation to ensure access to basic social services, condemn discrimination and to register undocumented Roma refugees
- To actively seek to promote awareness about the Roma population in order to combat discrimination

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To bolster capacity to oversee working and living conditions of migrant workers by employing more inspectors to oversee implementation of labour laws
- To uphold freedom of expression of non-governmental organizations by amending the laws limiting it and repealing punitive administrative or judicial sanctions to that regard
- To implement article 2 (a) of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women by prohibiting discrimination between men and women in its Constitution and other appropriate legislation so as to ensure gender equality
- Recommended upholding the rights of workers to freedom of association, to organise, and to collective bargaining by recognizing these rights in domestic law and by signing on to relevant ILO Conventions
- Recommended revising the recently proposed amendment to the Press and Publication Law to reflect article 19 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To ensure prompt and impartial investigations of allegations of ill treatment, in accordance with its obligations under the Convention against Torture
- To ensure that prisoners are informed of charges and evidence against them, have prompt access to counsel of their choice, be charged with a recognizable criminal offence and be given a fair trial
- To ensure access of Bedouin populations to basic public services, such as sanitation, electricity and water
- To strengthen efforts to ensure equality in the application of the law, counter discrimination against persons belonging to all minorities, promote their active participation in public life, and provide public services and infrastructure fairly
- To comply with obligations under international human rights and humanitarian law, and ensure the rights to health, education, work and protection of family rights in the West Bank, including East Jerusalem, the Gaza Strip and the Golan Heights

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To intensify efforts to ensure equal opportunities for men and women in both the private and public sectors, including by expanding measures that facilitate women's re-entry into the workforce after childbirth
- To better develop the "promotion" aspect of integration to enhance genuine respect for diversity and knowledge of different cultures and traditions, as outlined by the European Commission against Racism and Intolerance
- To reconsider its practice of voting by local residents for the granting of citizenship, as well as consider reducing the length of the period of required residency

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To ensure that racially motivated attacks committed against minorities are systematically investigated, prosecuted and punished according to law
- To track down and arrest the key remaining fugitives accused of war crimes by the Tribunal, namely, former Bosnian Serb General Ratko Mladic and former Croatian Serb political leader Goran Hadzic
- To adopt necessary measures to secure full respect for freedom of the media
- To create a climate in which journalists are able to report on sensitive issues without fear or harassment and reprisal
- To promote the work of human rights defenders
- To develop and implement a comprehensive strategy to protect human rights defenders, including those working on behalf of the rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender persons
- To ensure the effective investigation of alleged attacks against human rights defenders
- To adopt specific and comprehensive anti-discrimination laws to protect the rights of persons belonging to minorities, including the Roma, including access to health care and education

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To bring Turkmenistan's laws into line with articles 14 and 15 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights
- To take a proactive approach to combating HIV/AIDS through educational and awareness-raising programmes for both the general public and drug users
- To remove restrictions on the ability of journalists to report and criticize Government policy freely and without fear of repression
- To end the practice of governmental appointment of editors and senior managers to all media outlets in the country to foster a more independent media
- To remove constraints on civil society groups and human rights defenders
- To ensure that opposition parties are permitted to participate freely in the political process without fear of retribution
- To hold an independent inquiry into the death in prison of journalist Ogulsapar Muradova in September 2006
- To abolish the system of registration for nongovernmental organizations working in the country

- To release all political prisoners including Valery Pal, Gulgeldy Annaniazov, Annakurban Amankylchev, Sapardurdy Khajiev and Mukhetkuli Aymuradov, and account for those prisoners whose fate is unknown

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To intensify dialogue with the international community on the issue of ill treatment by submitting the reports due to the Committee against Torture

- To continue efforts so that the language referring to human rights truly reflects gender equality

- To intensify efforts to implement the national action plan to combat trafficking, particularly by bringing to justice and systematically convicting those individuals held responsible

- To invite the Special Rapporteur on torture to make an official visit to the country

○ To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To take all necessary measures to reduce the duration of pre-trial detention to conform to international standards

- To respect article 5(a) of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women calling for countries to take appropriate measures to change socio-cultural stereotypes and practices

○ To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To fully prosecute extrajudicial killings, enforced disappearances and forced displacements and take strong action to stop their occurrence

- To address gender-based violence more broadly, in the spirit of Security Council resolution 1820 (2008) on women, peace and security

- To continue to work constructively with the United Nations on the implementation of the monitoring and reporting mechanism of Security Council resolution 1612 (2005) on children and armed conflict

- To ensure that all legislation and programmes in support of the Justice and Peace process comply with international standards

- To further reinforce efforts to immediately disband and disarm all paramilitary groups, including those that regrouped under different guises, and hold them accountable for their actions

- To take greater measures to ensure the safety of all its people, including directly targeted groups such as human rights defenders, community leaders, journalists and trade unionists

- To follow up on the recommendations made by the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights and fundamental freedoms of indigenous peoples in 2004

○ To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To ensure that its legislation and practice fully respect article 19 of the ICCPR

- To ensure the full and equal enjoyment by women of all human rights without discrimination

- To take effective measures to combat violence against women

- To take all necessary measures to prevent torture and other cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment or punishment

- To initiate investigations into all allegations of torture or other forms of ill-treatment and bring to justice, prosecute and punish all alleged perpetrators of torture or other forms of ill-treatment
- To keep all places of detention under systematic review
- To enable unfettered and continue access of ICRC to detention facilities following the encouraging agreement reached in March 2008
- To adopt effective measures to prevent any harassment or intimidation of all those exercising the right to freedom of opinion and expression, including journalists and human rights defenders
- To ensure compliance with international child labour standards, including ILO Convention 182 on the Elimination of the Worst Forms of Child Labour and collaborate with ILO to that effect and implement the relevant recommendations of the Committee on the Rights of the Child and the Human Rights Committee
- To establish an independent international commission of inquiry tasked with the investigation in relation to the events of May 2005 in Andijan and to prosecute and punish all those responsible for human rights violations
- To release all detained human rights defenders and political prisoners
 - o To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84
- To ratify core international human rights instruments, in particular the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights
- To convene the Court of Appeal in the interest of addressing the pending appeal to the High Court ruling of 2005 on the case of Teonea v. Kaupule
- To continue to combat discriminatory societal behaviours, including by working at reforming domestic laws, in particular land and family laws, which require amendments in order for Tuvalu to in compliance with the Convention on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women

CHAD

- o To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To continue efforts to improve the human rights situation in the country and, with the support of the international community, meet the major challenges it faces

CHILE

- o To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To continue efforts on gender issues, including policies aimed at the empowerment of women and their integration in the education system
- To consider designating an institution for coordination and implementation of policy on children
- To continue to incorporate the provisions of the Convention on the Rights of the Child into domestic legislation, especially article 19(1), in relation to deep concerns about the corporal punishment of children

- o To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To declare a moratorium on executions and start an information campaign explaining to the population the problems of capital punishment

- To eliminate corporal punishment from Bahamas legislation in accordance with the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment and the Convention on the Rights of the Child

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To reconsider the inclusion in the draft criminal code of the provision criminalizing same-sex sexual relations

- To address rape as a crime

- To establish independent machinery which can document, investigate and process cases of rape, and facilitate the end of impunity

- Recommended that rape be addressed as a crime and to note that traditional practices of compensation between the family of the perpetrators and the victims are inconsistent with human rights standards

- To ensure that the courts effectively apply penalties to those responsible for rape with a focus on police and State officials

- To implement, as speedily of possible, the legal, political and ministerial initiatives to eradicate the practice of torture and other forms of ill treatment by State officials”

- To include the content of the Convention against Torture in its legislation

- To establish a machinery to compensate victims of torture

○ To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To accede to the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To promote the abolition of the death penalty

- To modify legislation with respect to the death penalty, eliminating its mandatory application, ensuring that legislation is compatible with article 6 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To continue its efforts to put an end to violence against women with a national plan and necessary legislative reforms

- To eliminate all forms of corporal punishment from its legislation

- To decriminalize consensual sexual acts between adults of the same sex

○ To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To continue cooperation with the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia until the facts of the serious violations of human rights that occurred in the region during the 1990s have been clarified

- Within the context of the National Programme of Action, adopt further measures and implement programmes to provide access and opportunities for ensuring better social and political integration of Roma groups in Montenegro

○ To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- Recommended the establishment a moratorium on the application of the death penalty with a view to abolish it

- Recommended ratifying the fundamental labour conventions, in particular ILO Conventions 87 and 98, as well as the Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families

- Recommended ensuring that men and women enjoy the same rights with respect to marriage, including the selection of spouse, dissolution of the marriage, child custody and inheritance

- o To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- All detainees be given the reasons for their detention respecting their fundamental rights during detention

- Put the law on polygamy in effect

- To guarantee the enjoyment of human rights and humanitarian law for those living in the occupied territories

- o To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To consider ratifying the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities as soon as possible

- To combat, within the framework of the law of the State, neo-Nazi groups and others promoting racial hatred and violence

- To adopt all necessary measures so that minorities can effectively enjoy all their rights

- o To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To fulfil, with the help of the international community, its international human rights obligations

- Recommended that polygamy be eliminated

- Recommended that the authorities take all necessary measures to protect journalists who have been victims of intimidation, and identify and bring the perpetrators before the courts

- To abolish the death penalty

- To ratify the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- o To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To incorporate explicit prohibition of physical punishment into national legislation and monitor its implementation strictly, particularly in the case of police dealing with minors

- To increase efforts to address cases of sexual violence and exploitation against children, such as prostitution, through the judicial system, as recommended by the Committee on the Rights of the Child

- To maximize legislative, administrative and police measures to combat trafficking of women and girls, which particularly affects foreign women

- To introduce reforms to the judicial system to expedite the administration of justice, including the creation or increase in number of courts for lesser offences, and to study the possibility of implementing a system of probation for those accused of lesser crimes and who do not pose a threat to society

- To adapt national legislation to fulfil its obligations under the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To ensure that human rights abuses are appropriately investigated and that those responsible are processed and sanctioned by civil courts; grant better facilities and financial resources to the judiciary, to accomplish this task efficiently; and to ensure effective implementation of the Constitutional Court sentence of July 2008 on the subject

- To prevent anyone in the military, paramilitary or guerrilla forces who is accused of grave human rights violations and crimes against humanity from benefitting from the amnesty laws

- To take measures to prevent those involved in law enforcement, politics, the Government and civilians in general from being involved in illicit activities with illegal armed combatants

- To take measures to ameliorate the effects of the displacement of civilians as a consequence of armed fighting, ensuring their return when zones have been pacified and adopting immediate measures for the restitution of lands and/or adequate compensation of those who have lost their lands

- To repeal administrative measures that promote acts that undermine human rights, such as the indiscriminate use of rewards to civil informants

- To repeal administrative measures that promote acts that undermine human rights, such as incentives for the military in accordance to the number of deaths inflicted in combat

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To modify its criminal code in order to establish a definition on torture and harshness of sentences according to the Convention on Tortures

- To ensure that the judiciary has the necessary independence from the executive branch, limiting the attributions of the latter to the appointment of judges, in particular to the Supreme Court

- To ensure the exercise of the freedom of expression, assembly, association, and the right to participate in public and political life

- To establish conditions that would allow for an international and independent investigation to establish the facts concerning Andijan

- To end the practice of forced return of persons who sought asylum in bordering States after the events in Andijan

CHINA

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To call on the international community to provide technical assistance and financial support in line with the needs of Montenegro to implement the strategy conducive to a lasting solution to refugees and internally displaced persons

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To take positive and constructive measures in order to effectively reduce the deprivation under which the Palestinian people are living

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To call on the international community to provide economic and technical assistance to Turkmenistan to allow it to implement a strategy for economic, political and cultural development until 2020

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

To meet challenges, particularly high poverty and illiteracy, with the technical and financial assistance of the international community

- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To appeal to the international community to take into account difficulties and challenges faced in promoting human rights and to increase financial and technical assistance for capacity-building

COTE D'IVOIRE

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To make even greater efforts in the right to education

CROATIA

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To ratify the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the Optional Protocol thereto as well as the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture

- To incorporate international human rights treaties into national law

- To enact new measures to combat the trafficking in women and children for the purposes of sexual exploitation

- To enact new measures against the discrimination of the Roma population

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To combat the climate of impunity and to ensure that racially motivated attacks committed against minorities are systematically investigated, prosecuted and punished according to law

CUBA

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To continue to incorporate the provisions of the Convention on the Rights of the Child and the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child into national legislation

- To continue the implementation of the National Action Plan for Children 2006-2016

- To continue efforts made to achieve the goals of Vision 2016

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To continue its positive efforts and share its experiences, best practices and lessons learned, such as in the field of women's rights and the empowerment of women, and in the struggle against racism and racial discrimination

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To continue applying its commitment to allocate 0.7 per cent of its GDP to official development assistance and encourage its partners in the European Union and OECD to replicate this good practice

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To consolidate the process of updating its national legislation in accordance with its international commitments

- To promote and foster economic, social and cultural rights for its people, with the objective of capitalizing on the progress that has already been made in this respect

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To study the possibility of a law that specifically addresses the situation of domestic workers, in order to preserve their fundamental rights and protect them from possible abuses by their employers

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To meet provisions of international humanitarian law, particularly the Fourth Geneva Convention

- To end the occupation of the Occupied Palestinian Territories and other Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem and the Syrian Golan

- To end construction of, and dismantle the already built, illegal separation wall

- To end military attacks against the civilian Palestinian population

- To stop the policy of colonization through illegal settlement

- To end the blockade in the Gaza Strip and guarantee full access of the Palestinian population to all basic services

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To continue efforts to elaborate and implement policies aimed at eliminating all forms of discrimination and ensuring equality and full enjoyment of all human rights for all citizens

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To continue its positive efforts to promote and protect children rights and to attain full empowerment of women

- To continue current positive steps to promote equality and non-discrimination in the national minorities in the country

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To continue efforts in economic, social and cultural rights to consolidate the advances already made

- To continue its positive efforts in the promotion and protection of human rights, including, with the support of developed countries, through its commitment to allocate 0.7 per cent of GDP to ODA

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To consider the timely ratification of the Convention on Enforced Disappearance

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To pursue positive endeavours aimed at promoting and protecting the rights of women, including through the strengthening of the measures already taken to prevent and combat trafficking in women

- To continue positive efforts to improve economic, social and cultural rights

- To continue with positive work to ensure the progress of the rights of children and their full well-being

○ To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To continue actions and efforts to promote and protect human rights effectively on the ground and towards achieving the objectives set out in its national strategy for sustainable development

CZECH REPUBLIC

○ To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To establish a national preventive mechanism according to the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

- To consider issuing a standing invitation to special procedures of the Human Rights Council

- To continue efforts to strengthen the institutional framework, including by providing necessary funding and personnel

- To take further measures to adopt legislation ensuring the implementation of the Convention, in particular in the area violence prevention and sexual exploitation of children

- To decriminalize homosexual relations and practices/consensual same-sex activities between adults

- With regard to consensual same sex activity between adults, take measures to promote tolerance and allow effective educational programmes on HIV/AIDS prevention

○ To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To consider the possibility of acceding to the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

- To ensure the full and effective implementation of the Domestic Violence (Protection Order) Act

- To extend a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Human Rights Council

- To increase the age of criminal responsibility of children

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To consider ratifying the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and establish an effective national preventive mechanism in compliance with it

- To increase the financial and human resources available to the judicial system

- To strengthen efforts to ensure that all newborn children are officially registered

- Recommended the issuance and implementation of a standing invitation to special procedures

- Recommended the adoption of further measures to fight impunity of persons responsible of torture and extrajudicial killings and prompt, thorough, independent and impartial investigations into all allegations of these crimes

○ To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and establish a national preventive mechanism related to it

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To accede to the Convention against Torture and the Optional Protocol thereto, together with the establishment of an effective national preventive mechanism, according to the Protocol
- To adopt further measures to ensure the incorporation of its international human right obligations into national legislation
- To decriminalize consensual sexual acts between adults of the same sex
- To take measures to promote tolerance in this regard, which would encourage more effective educational programmes for the prevention of HIV/AIDS

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To Consider early ratification of the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment and the establishment of an effective national preventive mechanism accordingly
- To introduce specific education programmes and sensitivity trainings for all relevant judiciary and police personnel aimed specifically at the protection of human rights of non-governmental organization activists and members of minorities, including national minorities and persons of minority sexual orientation and gender identity
- To effectively address and investigate attacks against journalists and human rights defenders and bring those responsible to justice

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To strengthen the rule of law as enshrined in the Constitution, and ensure the independence of the judiciary
- To enhance the efficiency of the judiciary and secure access to concrete remedies for victims of human rights violations
- To take all necessary measures to ensure the safety of human rights defenders

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To establish its national preventive mechanism according to the Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To issue and implement a standing invitation to all special procedures
- To allow regular access of ICRC to prisons and detention facilities
- To ensure a thorough and impartial investigation of all cases of torture and ill treatment and ensure punishment of persons responsible for them according to the law
- To review politically motivated trials of the past and release all human rights defenders and political prisoners
- To abolish the propiska system and adopt further legislative and other measures to ensure compliance of its legal system and practice with the protection of freedom of movement
- To decriminalize consensual same-sex activity between adults and take measures to promote tolerance in this regard

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To thoroughly and timely implement standing invitations to special procedures
- To conduct public awareness campaigns against social prejudices and for upholding the principle of equality and non-discrimination regardless of sexual orientation and/or gender identity
- To timely cooperate with the monitoring mechanism based on Security Council resolution 1612 (2005) and adopt concrete measures to prevent and punish all kinds of recruitment or use of children in armed conflict
- In relation to high number of threats and attacks on human rights defenders, adopt further measures to ensure effective protection of personal safety of these groups, eliminate impunity of perpetrators of crimes against them, adopt concrete steps against stigmatization of human rights defenders and promote awareness-raising programmes for the public and officials about the importance and legitimacy of human rights advocacy
- To adopt concrete measures to ensure universal access to quality primary education
- To adopt measures ensuring effective national birth registration, including through programmes of mobile registration units and registration of those without documentation
- Recommend the accession to the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and the establishment of a national preventive mechanism accordingly

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To introduce awareness-raising programmes aimed at positive contributions of persons with disabilities together with further measures to enhance their participation in decision-making processes
- To accede to the OP-CAT and to establish its national preventive mechanism accordingly
- To continue to allow unfettered regular access of the ICRC to detention and prison facilities
- Recommended the decriminalization of consensual same-sex activity between adults and the adoption of measures to promote tolerance in this regard
- To release political prisoners
- To ensure punishment of persons responsible for serious violations of human rights
- To ensure also thorough, independent and impartial investigation of all previous serious violations of human right, including the tragic event of May 2005 in Andijan

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To issue a standing invitation to all special procedures
- To effectively strengthen its human rights institutional framework and further promote concrete programmes to raise awareness of human rights
- To recommended the decriminalization of consensual same-sex activity between adults and the adoption of measures to promote tolerance in this regard, which would also facilitate more effective educational programmes for the prevention of HIV/AIDS

DENMARK

○ To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To establish a national preventive mechanism according to the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment
- To provide access to land and support for the residents of the Reserve, as specified in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and work with the land boards of the various districts to ensure equity in land allocation among all applicants for residential, arable and grazing land, water sources and business sites
- To pursue a policy of mother-tongue language education in conjunction with national languages of Setswana and English
- To abolish discrimination on the basis of ethnicity, language and culture, including de jure discrimination
- To step up efforts to prevent torture and ill treatment

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- Recommended that all reports of rape and sexual violence by law enforcement officials be promptly and impartially investigated and that perpetrators be brought to justice
- Recommended that the practice of torture and other ill treatment by law enforcement officials be condemned brought to an end, that immediate independent and impartial investigations into all allegations of such acts be undertaken, and that alleged perpetrators be brought to justice

○ To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To recognize the competence of the Committee against Torture to examine complaints against Israel
- To ensure that administrative detention is carried out in accordance with international human rights standards
- To ensure prompt investigation into allegations of and bring to justice those committing attacks against Palestinian human rights defenders

○ To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To speed up the process of implementing the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and designate an independent national preventive mechanism in consultation with civil society, take all required measures to effectively prevent torture

○ To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To step up its efforts, in complying with its international human rights obligations, and end discrimination of ethnic minorities to ensure they are able to carry out peaceful activities without harassment, threat of detention or imprisonment
- To seriously consider issuing an invitation to the Special Rapporteur on the question of torture
- To increase its efforts to eradicate impunity for torture and other ill treatment, and to initiate thorough, impartial and independent investigations into all such allegations, and that alleged perpetrators are brought to justice

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and establish a national preventive mechanism

- To take all steps to improve prisoners' condition

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To step up efforts to fight torture

- To step up efforts to protect trade unionists

- To step up its efforts to protect its indigenous peoples and install an effective system of consultations with indigenous peoples

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and establish a national preventive mechanism

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To consider ratifying OP-CAT in the near future

- To extend invitations in particular to the Special Rapporteur on the question of torture

- To take all necessary measures to prevent torture and ensure that the absolute prohibition of torture is observed

- To initiate investigations into all allegations of torture or other forms of ill-treatment in a thorough, impartial and independent manner and bring to justice, prosecute and punish all alleged perpetrators of torture or other forms of ill-treatment

- To consider giving priority to the training of law enforcement officials regarding the treatment of detainees

DJIBOUTI

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To redouble efforts to improve conditions of detention in prisons, guaranteeing the compatibility of rights with cultural practices

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To introduce to its criminal legislation aggravating circumstances on the grounds of racial discrimination, as recommended by the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination

- To envisage actions to abolish capital punishment

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To consider ratifying the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture

- To consider ratifying the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To vigorously pursue efforts to promulgate a national law guaranteeing better protection for children, and that the general principle of the best interest for the child, as contained in article 3 of the Convention, is fully reflected in that law

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To make further efforts to ensure that the social services provided for children remain a priority

DPR KOREA

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- In the light of the concerns expressed by the Special Committee to Investigate Israeli Practices in the Occupied Territories, the Special Rapporteur on human rights and counter-terrorism and the High Commissioner for Human Rights regarding the continued deterioration of human rights and the humanitarian situation in the Occupied Palestinian Territory emanating from, among others, the construction of the security wall, address the violations immediately, including through the cessation of the occupation

EGYPT

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To continue efforts to strengthen the national human rights architecture

- To further develop, with international support, a human rights training and capacity-building exercise for judiciary and law enforcement personnel

- Recommended mainstreaming human rights in the education system

- With the support of the international community, continue to fight poverty and meet the Millennium Development Goals and those of Vision 2016

- To seek the assistance of OHCHR and the international community in relation to human rights education, improving the justice system and strengthening the monitoring of progress in achieving the Millennium Development Goals and the goals of Vision 2016

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To establish an independent national human rights commission in compliance with the Paris Principles and finalize the submission of the required bill to the Parliament for adoption

- To continue its efforts towards reforming the security sector institutions, with the support of OHCHR and the international community

- To continue, with international support, its efforts to spread a culture of human rights in the society, establish and reform the institutions for law enforcement and an independent, effective and impartial justice system

- With international support, undertake further programmes for human rights training and capacity-building to train relevant institutions of law enforcement and justice in the area of human rights, and introduce human rights in the education system at all levels

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To consider ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families
- To complete the ratification of the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography
- To strengthen its efforts to combat racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, and implement the recommendations of the Committee in this regard
- To intensify its efforts to combat human trafficking and sexual exploitation
- To effectively address the difficulties experienced by migrants, particularly women migrants

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To continue efforts to strengthen and protect human rights in accordance with international standards, in keeping with the cultural values of the Emirati people
- To continue to refuse to apply any standards or principles that are outside the international principles and standards agreed upon in the field of human rights, including any attempt to impose any foreign values and customs on the Emirati people

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To end the occupation of the Occupied Palestinian Territories and other Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem and the Syrian Golan
- To respect the right of the Palestinians to self-determination and the establishment of their independent State with Jerusalem as its capital
- To Acknowledge/recognize, accept and fully implement the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice on the wall
- To immediately cease its military operations in the Occupied Palestinian Territories and lift the closure and seizure it imposes on the Gaza Strip
- To end all settlement activities in the Occupied Palestinian Territories, in particular in and around occupied Jerusalem
- To annul its illegitimate decision to annex the occupied Syrian Golan and end all settlement activities therein
- To immediately release all Palestinian, Syrian and other Arab prisoners and detainees
- To respect the right of Palestinian refugees to return to their homelands and to be compensated for losses and damages incurred and to retrieve their properties

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To continue with international support its efforts to complete its human rights architecture and to spread human rights culture in Uzbekistan, as well as providing the necessary training and capacity building to law enforcement and the members of the judiciary in the area of human rights
- To disseminate the outcome of the review through the national mass media in order to inform the public at large of its presentation made today, the achievements made and recommendations which are going to be implemented in the next period
- To adopt and strengthen existing measures to prevent and combat trafficking in women

FINLAND

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To implement the programme for AIDS orphans

- To take immediate action to ensure respect for the rights of the indigenous people living in the areas of interest to companies active in the diamond business

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To ratify all of the most significant international human rights instruments, in particular the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To address the problem of discrimination against minorities and implement the recommendations made by the Or Commission in 2003 in this regard

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To take concrete measures to address the high rate of unemployment among persons with disabilities and the special needs of children with disabilities at schools

- To adopt specific and comprehensive anti-discrimination laws to protect the rights of persons belonging to minorities, including the Roma, including access to health care and education

- To effectively integrate the Roma into society

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To implement the ILO Convention concerning the Minimum Age for Admission to Employment and the prohibition and Immediate Action for the Elimination of the Worst Forms of Child Labour

- Recommended that the Uzbek Government allow independent investigations of labour rights abuses

FRANCE

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To accede to the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

- To adopt the measures necessary to combat discrimination of all kinds, including those based on sexual orientation, gender, colour, religion and political opinion

- To put an end, de jure and de facto, to the practice of corporal punishments in traditional judicial systems

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To complete its accession and to speedily ratify the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

- To consider the possibility of acceding to the other major human rights instruments, in particular the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

- To consider the possibility of acceding to the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance

- To consider the possibility of acceding to the optional protocols to the various United Nations conventions on human rights

- To respect the deadlines for submitting reports to various treaty bodies of the United Nations

- To make a real political commitment to combating violence against women, and in particular that it change its national legislation allowing the criminalization of marital rape

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To strengthen measures to raise awareness on the situation of albinos, prevent crimes against them and ensure material assistance to the victims

- To adopt legislation guaranteeing equality between men and women, particularly in the area of family and inheritance law

- To increase its efforts to contribute to the disarmament, demobilization and reintegration of children involved in armed conflict

- To take all necessary measures to ban secret places of detention, particularly by envisaging the signature and ratification of the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To consider creating an overall strategy to eliminate violence against women, which would include a preventive component

- To take the necessary measures to ban the practice of corporal punishment within the family

- To find ways improve the detention conditions of minors, including counselling services

- Take all necessary steps to accelerate the enforcement of the law regarding the acceptance and integration of foreigners

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To sign and ratify the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment and the Optional Protocol thereto, as well as the Convention for the Protection of all Persons against Enforced Disappearance

- To provide the Bureau of Gender Affairs with sufficient human and financial resources to enable it to contribute efficiently to the promotion and protection of the rights of women

- To bring its criminal laws on criminalization of consenting relations between adults of the same sex, and on offences of indecent assault and serious indecency that are defined vaguely, into line with international norms with respect to privacy and non-discrimination

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To adopt all necessary measures to ensure equality between men and women fully and in all circumstances

- To adopt all necessary measures to ensure that journalists have the freedom to practise their profession in line with existing international standards

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To take concrete measures to limit the number and extent of restrictions on the right to freedom of expression and the freedom of the press
- To sign the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance
- To sign and ratify the additional Protocol to the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime
- Recommended continuing efforts to advance the right to assembly, especially by adopting measures that allow for the creation of associations, trade unions and envisage the creation of political parties
- Recommended establishing a moratorium on executions and seriously considering its complete abolition

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To consider the possibility of signing and ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance and accept the competence of its Committee
- To ensure best protection of human rights and follow-up to the implementation of international instruments
- To establish an independent national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles
- To respect the principles of the protection of persons subjected to detention or imprisonment and implement the recommendation of the Committee against Torture that specific legislation to ban torture be adopted
- To reopen points of passage to and from the Gaza Strip

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To consider establishing an independent mechanism mandated to consider complaints of child rights violations as soon as possible
- To prohibit by law all forms of corporal punishment of children, without exception

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To continue to make every effort to ensure full cooperation with the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia
- To take all necessary measures to ensure that allegations of human rights violations brought to the knowledge of the authorities are systematically subjected to inquiries and punished where appropriate
- To take all necessary measures to ensure the safety of human rights defenders and ensure that they have a favourable working environment

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To implement the provisions of the Palermo Protocols ratified by Turkmenistan, in particular with a view to criminalizing trafficking in persons
- To accede to/ratify the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court
- To adopt all necessary measures for the liberalization and plurality of the media in order to promote full freedom of the press

- To take the necessary steps to guarantee the right to associate and work freely for human rights defenders, in conformity with the United Nations Declaration on the Right and Responsibility of Individuals, Groups and Organs of Society to Promote and Protect Universally Recognized Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To continue to implement the United Nations Convention against Corruption to prevent and punish corruption

- To take every possible measure to put an end to discrimination against people with disabilities

- To adopt legislation aimed at ultimately abolishing death penalty

- To adopt specific legislation to prevent and punish violence against women

○ To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To promote the establishment of places to care for and provide assistance to women victims of domestic violence

- To consider how to deal with minor delinquency in order to provide sentences suited to the age of offenders, to educate them and lead to their social reintegration

- To take necessary measures to improve prison conditions

○ To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To reopen dialogue with the representatives of organizations of civil society in order to make possible coordinated and rapid implementation of the national plan of action on human rights and international humanitarian law

- To take effective measures to significantly reduce the number of extrajudicial executions and bring those responsible before civil jurisdiction

- To recognize and guarantee the legitimacy of the work of human rights defenders, as of that of trade unions workers and journalists, ensure their protection and that violations of their rights are prosecuted

○ To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To consider establishing a national independent mechanism to monitor all places of detention

- To consider ratifying OP-CAT

- To take all necessary measures to prevent torture and other cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment or punishment in particular in places of detention

- To adopt a national legislation complying with international human rights standards, to ensure freedom of assembly as enshrined in the Constitution, in particular by guaranteeing human rights NGOs the right to freely carry out their activities

- To broaden the area of freedom of the media, in particular by eliminating restrictions on foreign and national media and adopting more flexible rules relating to the accreditation of foreign journalists

- To implement effectively its commitments relating to freedom of religion as contained in the ICCPR, to which Uzbekistan is a party

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To sign and ratify the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights as soon as possible
- To establish a national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles
- To establish equality between the sexes in the Constitution and take all necessary measures to counter gender-based discrimination
- To penalize rape, whoever is responsible, including marital rape

GABON

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To submit regularly reports to treaty bodies
- To implement its ambitions in the promotion and protection of human right with the technical support of the international community
- To ratify the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights aiming at abolishing the death penalty

GERMANY

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To amend the definition of discrimination in the Constitution in such a way that it covers discrimination based on descent and abolish those laws that permit discrimination on the basis of ethnicity, language and culture

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To establish a national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles, as recommended by the Committee on the Rights of the Child

- To abolish the death penalty

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To give clear and immediate instructions to key high-ranking officials of the police force, the army and other security forces that all law enforcement officials should treat rape as a crime and take all measures to effectively investigate allegations of rape and other forms of sexual violence, and that it bring perpetrators to justice

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To abolish corporal punishment for children

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To effectively address and investigate attacks against journalists and human rights defenders and bring those responsible to justice

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To consider the possibility of introducing amendments to national laws on citizenship, so that female citizens married to non-citizens can pass on their nationality to their children in the same way that male citizens married to non citizens do

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To follow up the recommendation of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General on the situation of human rights defenders and denounce more forcefully verbal and physical attacks against human rights defenders

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To improve its overall cooperation with United Nations human rights mechanisms, in particular all mechanisms of the Council and the treaty bodies

- To ensure that members of civil society are allowed, free of harassment, to meet with representatives of foreign media and Governments and international organizations

- To take measures to grant effective and unhindered enjoyment of the freedom of religion

- To immediately release all political prisoners

- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To adopt all necessary measures to put an end to the widespread practice of corporal punishment of minors at home, in school and by the police force, as recommended by the Committee on the Rights of the Child in 2003

- To take effective measures to fight the trafficking of foreign women and girls through its territory

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To better protect human rights defenders, in particular in rural areas, and foster dialogue between the Government and human rights organizations, using if necessary the mediation of the local OHCHR office

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To immediately cease all public support for the employment of children in cotton harvesting and that the Government publicly condemn and effectively combat all forms of child labour

- To broaden the definition on torture and harshness in a way to encompass all cases of torture by all persons acting in an official capacity

- To take all necessary measures to prevent torture

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To stay strongly committed to the topic and further discussion leading to an amendment of the Constitution prohibiting discrimination based on sex and gender

GHANA

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To seek contributions from the international community in the Government's efforts to promote rights

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To ease prison congestion and its impact on mothers with young children

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- In addition to building new prisons and holding centres, consider non-custodial ways of addressing the issue of mothers in detention or imprisonment, during both pre-trial and post-sentence periods, particularly when mothers are foreigners or illegal residents

- To strengthen measures to grant foreign children and children of asylum-seekers equal access to the same standards of services in the field of education

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To increase its efforts at enhancing the role of women in high-level decision-making

- To strengthen the role of its national mechanisms for the promotion and protection of the rights of minorities, refugees and internally displaced persons, with appropriate assistance from the international community

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- With the assistance of the international community, strengthen its human and institutional capacity in education and health

- With the assistance of the international community, increases activities aimed at incorporating human rights education in the official school curricula and strengthen the capacity of national authorities to promote the enjoyment of human rights

GREECE

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To take appropriate measures to ensure the implementation of the plan of activities to achieve gender equality in Montenegro for the period 2008-2012

- To pass the intended law on protection against domestic violence as soon as possible

- To take all necessary measures to ensure the social and economic rights of internally displaced persons and refugees, including by adopting specific anti-discrimination policies

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To take all necessary measures to reduce the existing situation of discrimination and proceed in the near future to the equal allocation of lands, irrespective of the nationality of the owners

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To take all necessary measures to enhance the effectiveness of the Office of the Ombudsman and include, inter alia, effective monitoring and promotion of child rights

- To take all necessary measures to ensure the improvement of socio-economic conditions of refugees and internally displaced persons

GUATEMALA

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To continue and strengthen its efforts to achieve gender equality in Government and public services at all levels

HAITI

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To consider the possibility of acceding to the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families

- To effectively abolish the death penalty and that a moratorium be immediately decreed with respect to all executions

- To put an end to corporal punishment in schools and in the home, and to revise article 1.10 of the Criminal Code

HOLY SEE

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To explore the possibility of a moratorium on the application of the death penalty towards its complete abolition, in conformity with the latest General Assembly resolutions on the subject

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To speedily implement the new Criminal Code, declaring sexual violence a crime, while guaranteeing the impartiality of investigation and questioning

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To suspend the Citizenship and Entry into Israel Law (Temporary Order of 31 May 2003)

HUNGARY

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To adopt specific and comprehensive anti-discrimination laws

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To bring the provisions of its domestic laws into compliance with the international obligations laid down in the human rights instruments it has ratified

- To take steps to fight against trafficking in human beings and to comply with the conclusions of the Committee of the Right of the Child and other treaty bodies

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To agree to the visit of the Special Rapporteur on human rights defenders, requested in 2006 but not yet agreed upon

- To put an equal emphasis on the implementation of the Ministry of the Interior's protection

programme to defend human rights defenders in the field, bearing in mind the joint statement of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General on the situation of human rights defenders with other special rapporteurs who expressed concerns about the situation and called for appropriate measures to be taken by Colombia

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To improve the conditions of detention
- To grant access to the announced visits of independent experts to places of detention
- To adopt a law on equal rights and equal opportunities to protect the endangered elements of society, namely children, women and people with disabilities
- To guarantee detainees their fundamental rights, especially the right of access to a lawyer
- To continue to allow unfettered regular access of the ICRC to all detention facilities

INDONESIA

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To continue efforts to strengthen the rights of women and to further the advancement and development of women's rights in the international dimension

IRAN

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To promote the strengthening of the very foundation of the family and its associated values in society through appropriate ways and means
- To take appropriate measures to tackle practically the problem of trafficking for sexual exploitation in a comprehensive manner
- To revisit relevant policies and practices to create better work conditions for workers and their families

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To take all necessary measures to combat domestic violence, punish offenders, provide material and psychological relief to victims, as recommended by the Human Rights Committee, and promote family and associated values in society to tackle domestic violence
- To take concrete measures to combat all forms and manifestations of racism, racial discrimination and related intolerance, particularly against religious minorities

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To use all appropriate ways and means to further develop and strengthen a culture of human rights, create more human rights capacity-building, and promote human rights public awareness-raising, with a view to the better promotion and protection of all human rights and fundamental freedoms in society at large

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To take all appropriate ways and means to further develop and strengthen a culture of human rights, create more human rights capacity-building and promote human rights education and public awareness-raising with a view to better promoting and protecting of all human rights

IRELAND

○ To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To ensure the full participation of women in the review of customary laws and practices, and discourage the persistence of practices detrimental to women's rights
- To engage with the ethnic groups, in an ongoing and systematic basis, to ensure their rights to equality and non-discrimination are guaranteed
- To adopt a leadership role and take concrete steps to move towards the abolition of the death penalty
- To work to end the practice of detaining asylum-seekers in prisons owing to lack of space

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To fully comply with the recommendations of the Committee against Torture and do its utmost to ensure that the security forces operate within the framework of the rule of law
- To use consultations to ensure that a truth and reconciliation commission and a special tribunal be established as soon as possible
- To improve the functioning and accessibility of the machinery available to victims of rape to ensure that those guilty are brought to justice and punished
- To comply with the recommendations of the independent expert on allowing all political parties to carry out their political activities without undue restrictions

○ To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To comply with the recommendations of the Human Rights Committee with regard to the adoption of the necessary policy and legal framework to combat domestic violence effectively
- To effectively address and investigate attacks against journalists and human rights defenders and bring those responsible to justice

○ To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To take all necessary measures to ensure that it fulfils all of its obligations under international human rights instruments, particularly the International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights with regard to the situation in Gaza
- To actively seek to address these concerns and review the use of administrative detention, which denies people their rights to liberty, due process and fair trial
- To abide by its international obligations, including those under the Fourth Geneva Convention

○ To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To strengthen the rule of law as enshrined in the Constitution, and ensure the independence of the judiciary
- To adopt necessary measures to secure full respect for freedom of expression
- To ensure investigation of all cases of alleged violence against journalists
- To ensure the effective investigation of alleged attacks against human rights defenders

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To implement urgently the recommendations of the High Commissioner for Human Rights of February 2008
- To use the new national plan of action on human rights and international humanitarian law to address the issue of extrajudicial killings comprehensively
- To implement the Constitutional Court order of May 2008 in relation to gender-based violence and, in particular, provide human rights protection for women victims of forced displacement, increase measures to prevent sexual violence and take measures to ensure that those who use sexual violence are investigated and punished
- To fully implement Presidential Directive 7 of 1999, and, in particular, give public recognition and support to human rights defenders, sanction those who make unsubstantiated allegations against human rights defenders, strengthen the protection programme and investigate and punish crimes against human rights defenders

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To extend invitations the Special Rapporteur on human rights defenders
- To implement the recommendations made by the Committee Against Torture on human rights defenders
- To adopt a zero-tolerance approach to the continuing problem of torture, and to the practice of impunity, as recommended by the Committee Against Torture and the Special Rapporteur
- To lift all restrictions on the activities of civil society and complies with the request by the Human Rights Committee to bring its law, regulations and practice governing the registration of political parties into line with the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

ITALY

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- Recommended the development of a national strategy for human rights education in the school system at all levels, in accordance with the Plan of Action 2005-2009 of the World Programme for Human Rights Education, including the review and revision of curricula and textbooks, the training of teachers and the practice of human rights in the school community
- To design and adopt programmes of action on child labour, as requested by the Committee on the Rights of the Child and ILO
- To align its legislation and practice with international standards with regard to prisons
- To explore the possibility of a moratorium on the application of the death penalty towards its complete abolition, in conformity with the latest General Assembly resolutions on the subject

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To continue to take effective measures to address the serious social problem of rape and to reinforce its domestic legislation concerning domestic violence against women
- To take necessary measures, as recommended by the Committee on the Rights of the Child, to prevent child abuse and neglect and increase efforts to ensure the registration of all children at birth
- To continue to develop a national strategy for human rights education in the school system at all levels, in accordance with the Plan of Action 2005-2009 of the World Programme for Human Rights

Education, including the review and revision of curricula and textbooks, the training of teachers and the practice of human rights in the school community

- To consider the adoption of a legal moratorium on the use of death penalty with a view to abolishing capital punishment in national legislation

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To take appropriate measures to align the conditions of detainees with international standards

- To take all appropriate measures to address the issue of impunity and to implement adequate mechanisms of transitional justice

- To Continue the national policy for greater access to education for all children and to include in the school system, at all levels, appropriate measures in the field of human rights education, in accordance with the Plan of Action 2005-2009 of the World Programme for Human Rights Education

- To take all measures to guarantee freedoms of expression and association

○ To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To transmit to the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination its overdue national reports, in order to share its experience in this domain

○ To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To properly address discrimination against women, also by means of sensitizing civil society

- To consider the establishment of a de jure moratorium on the use of the death penalty with a view to abolishing capital punishment in national legislation

- To take appropriate legislative and administrative measures to fight against domestic violence and physical abuse of children, and engage in an exchange of information with those countries that are developing best practices in these fields

○ To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To take effective measures to reinforce its domestic legislation concerning domestic violence against women

- To take all adequate measures to guarantee the protection and promotion of religious freedom, including by adopting legislation with regard to the recognition of churches and the property rights of religious communities

- To take all necessary measures to guarantee full access to education for children belonging to Roma communities and support their social inclusion

○ To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To pursue and strengthen current efforts to address allegations and reports of discriminatory treatment of migrant workers, especially those related to female domestic workers

- To consider aligning its legislation with the provisions of article 18 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To consider, as a first step, to amend its legislation on the death penalty to restrict its scope and adjust it to international standards

- To consolidate the de facto moratorium on the use of capital punishment with a view to adopting a legal moratorium

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To lift unnecessary restrictions on the granting of visas, in particular multiple entry visas, to members of the Christian clergy in the exercise of their religious duties

- To Guarantee equitable protection to all places of worship in the country, including all Muslim and Christian sacred places

- To apply the definition of a child as a person under 18 also in the Palestinian territories, in line with article 1 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child

- To ensure more freedom of movement for the Palestinians in the West Bank and particularly Gaza in order to assure adequate standards of living of the Palestinian people and improve their access to health, education and work

- To progressively remove restrictions that prevent Palestinian children from having access to basic services, including schools and health care

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights on the Child on the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To protect, inter alia, the rights of disabled persons, including living conditions in residential and mental health institutions, and promote their social integration

- To take all appropriate measures, in the fields of legislation, implementation and awareness-raising, to tackle domestic violence against women and children

- To take all adequate measures to guarantee the protection and promotion of religious freedom, including by adopting legislation recognizing all churches and religious communities

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To strengthen cooperation with OHCHR with a view to building capacity in the area of human rights

- To comply with its international obligations for the exercise of freedom of expression, ensuring the right to seek receive and impart information and ideas, including by electronic means and from foreign sources, and to act against any form of harassment and intimidation of journalists

- To adopt adequate measures for the protection and promotion of religious freedom, in order to ensure effective freedom of worship for all religious communities

- To consider positively the request of the Special Rapporteur on the question of torture to visit the country as a matter of priority

- To address effectively the concerns expressed in 2006 by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General on the situation of human rights defenders and invite him to visit the country

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To consider the establishment of a de jure moratorium on death penalty with a view to abolishing capital punishment in national legislation

- To improve detention facilities and overall detention conditions, also by means of training law enforcement officials in human rights

- To effectively implement the international instruments ratified that focus on the protection of the child and children's rights

○ To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To increase efforts to fulfil engagements and obligation stemming from ratified Conventions

- To take appropriate measures to combat sexual violence against children and child prostitution effectively, as a matter of priority

- To develop a national strategy for human rights education in the school system at all levels, in accordance with the plan of action 2005-2009 of the World Programme for Human Rights Education, including the review and revision of curricula and textbooks, the training of teachers and the practice of human rights in the school community

- To improve prisons and detention facilities, also by means of human rights training for law enforcement officials and prison officials

○ To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To effectively fight against the practice of forced child labour, including by considering taking specific administrative and penal actions towards those officials who, in their respective provinces, incentivize or facilitate the labour of children in cotton fields

- To adopt adequate measures for the protection and promotion of religious freedom, in order to ensure an effective freedom of worship of all religious communities and comply with its international obligations in this field, and ensure the right to seek, receive and provide information and ideas, including by electronic means and from foreign sources

○ To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To ratify, in particular, the International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To incorporate fully in its legislation the provisions of the Convention on the Rights of the Child to enhance the protection of children's rights

JAMAICA

○ To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To seek support from all countries and relevant organizations, including OHCHR, to support the request of the Bahamas for technical assistance in human rights training and capacity-building

○ To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To seek the support of the international community and relevant organizations, including OHCHR, in keeping with the State's request for technical assistance for capacity-building, particularly for the preparation of human rights reports and the development of programmes for human rights education

JAPAN

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To do its utmost to ensure that political parties are safeguarded in the elections of 2010

- To take further measures to fight against sexual violence against women and children

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To consider ratifying the Convention against Torture in a timely manner
- To consider ratifying the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights in a timely manner
- That, in order to ensure cooperation and dialogue with the international community, to submit responses to the communications by the various special rapporteurs

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To submit its report to the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination as soon as possible

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To extend invitations in particular to the Special Rapporteur on the question of torture

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To make good use of technical assistance from OHCHR to ratify expeditiously several major human rights treaties, including the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the Convention against Torture and the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination

JORDAN

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To ratify/consider ratifying the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court
- To establish an independent national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles
- To consider strengthening dialogue and cooperation by issuing a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Council
- To refrain from interfering in the affairs of religious institutions, especially with respect to the rights of ownership and property
- To refrain from preventing or hindering the restoration of Islamic holy shrines by the Waqf
- To refrain from evicting Arab residents from their homes in Jerusalem
- To end the occupation of all Palestinian and Arab territories occupied, including Jerusalem and withdraw from all the territories since 5 June 1967
- To Acknowledge/recognize, accept and fully implement the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice on the wall
- To ensure safe and unhindered access to all humanitarian personnel and humanitarian assistance to the civilian population, and most importantly refrain from imposing blockades on the Gaza Strip
- To refrain from subjecting the civilian population to collective punishment
- To ensure the protection and welfare of civilians in the Occupied Palestinian Territories
- To stop all settlement activities

- To refrain from subjecting the civilian population to collective punishment
- To ensure access to religious sites, especially in the Holy City of Jerusalem, and abolish all restrictions imposed on the right to freedom of movement and the right to manifest one's religion; ensure the preservation of the cultural and religious heritage in the Occupied Palestinian Territories, particularly in Jerusalem, and refrain from any actions that aim at changing the character and/or status of these sites
- To respect the right of Palestinian refugees to return to their homelands and to be compensated for losses and damages incurred and to retrieve their properties in accordance with relevant United Nations resolutions and international law

KUWAIT

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To establish a workshop on education to exchange views and experiences with developed and developing countries

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To apply international human rights and humanitarian law in the Occupied Palestinian Territories and the occupied Syrian Golan
- To end the occupation of the Occupied Palestinian Territories and other Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem and the Syrian Golan
- To end Israeli violations in the Occupied Syrian Golan
- To respect the right of the Palestinians to self-determination and the establishment of their independent State with Jerusalem as its capital
- To fully and immediately implement all Council resolutions
- To implement the recommendations of the Council

LATVIA

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To consider issuing a standing invitation to special procedures of the Human Rights Council

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To extend a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Human Rights Council

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To consider extending a standing invitation to the special procedures of the Council

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To consider extending a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Council

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To consider extending a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Council

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To consider strengthening dialogue and cooperation by issuing a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Council

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To increase cooperation with the special procedures and eventually consider extending a standing invitation to all special procedures

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To consider extending a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Council

- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To extend a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Council

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To consider extending an open standing invitation to special procedures mechanisms

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To consider extending a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Council

LUXEMBOURG

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To set up hosting and reintegration structures for HIV/AIDS orphans

- To progressively increase its budgetary allocations to health in order to reach the 15 per cent target set by the Heads of States of the African Union in the African Strategy for Health 2007-2015

- To better train its law enforcement officials to ensure that perpetrators of sexual violence are prosecuted in a more severe and consequent manner, and follow the recommendations of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women to guarantee appropriate compensation and support and assistance measures for victims of sexual violence

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To develop reliable statistics on the number of children belonging to the Roma, Ashkali and Egyptian minorities in the Montenegrin school system

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To ensure the effective application of the Convention against Torture

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture

- To ensure that the statute of the national human rights commission is in conformity with the Paris Principle, to ensure that it is fully operational, as recommended by the Committee on the Rights of the Child

- To ensure that full access is given to rural women to education, health care and credit, as well as to land and housing as recommended by the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women

- To pursue efforts to continue to make exemplary progress with regard to the effective abolition of sexual mutilation

- To take appropriate measures to protect the most vulnerable children, particularly girls, disabled children and rural children, and ensure effective protection of children against sexual abuse, all forms of violence and exploitation, trafficking and child labour

- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To follow up the recommendations of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women on discrimination against women

- To implement the recommendations of the Committee on the Rights of the Child on street children and their sexual exploitation, child prostitution, violence against children and child labour

MALAYSIA

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To establish an independent national human rights commission

- To take further appropriate measures to improve the situation of children, in particular children victims of war, children living and/or working in the streets, minors in prison and AIDS orphans

- To consider adopting a comprehensive strategy to combat all forms of violence against women and enact legislation on domestic and all forms of gender-based violence

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To adopt the recommendations of that Committee, particularly those calling for officials coming into contact with minority groups to receive human rights training and the recommendation that any organization promoting or inciting discrimination should be declared illegal and prohibited, and the recognition that participation in such organizations is an offence punishable by law

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To consider formulating an integrated national plan of action, as recommended by the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women to fully address the issue of discrimination against women in all its aspects

- To further intensify efforts to harmonize the method of data collection by relevant agencies involved in the fight against domestic violence

- To continue with the positive efforts made in the field of education and share its experience in this area with other countries

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To continue to give importance to ensure economic development, including infrastructure, in remote rural areas

- To continue its leadership role at the regional level, particularly with regard to facilitating dialogue and enhancing cooperation with the receiving and sending States of contractual labourers

○ To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To fully implement its obligations under international law, including international humanitarian law, in particular the Fourth Geneva Convention of 1949 relating to treatment of non-combatants in the hands of the occupying power

- To recognize and respect the right of the Palestinian people to self-determination

- To fully restore the rights and dignity of the Palestinian people, including their rights to life, to live in dignity, adequate food, housing, health, education as well as their freedom of movement

- To include in its next review report measures taken to comply with the recommendations of treaty bodies, especially with regard to the situation of human rights in the Occupied Palestinian Territories

○ To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To reinforce efforts to promote ethnic and religious tolerance between the different communities in the country through education and public-awareness campaigns

- To consider adopting a comprehensive strategy for the integration of people of different ethnic origin or religion

- To give more support and consideration to minority groups, including the Muslim community, in particular on financial support, places of worship, cemeteries and other special concerns

○ To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To continue its efforts to see through its reform agenda, as stipulated in its new Constitution

- To continue to strike a balance between the implementation of civil and political rights and economic, social and cultural rights

- To continue its close cooperation with the mechanisms and special procedures of the Council, with a view to achieving incremental improvements, particularly with regard to the promotion and protection of the human rights situation of its people

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To intensify efforts to combat trafficking in girls and women for sexual exploitation through the implementation of a national strategy to combat this issue

- To enhance its capacity to promote and protect human rights, with the support of the international community, in terms of capacity-building and technical assistance in human rights, as requested by Burkina Faso

- To consider enacting legislation on violence against women, including domestic violence, as recommended by the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women

○ To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To accept the recommendation of the Committee on the Rights of the Child that Colombia seek technical assistance from, inter alia, OHCHR and UNICEF, in areas including juvenile justice, rehabilitation, repatriations, police training and social reintegration of demobilized child soldiers and child victims of landmines

- To continue its efforts to break the linkages between elements of the armed forces, State security forces and illegal paramilitary groups

- To take stronger measures to address the problem of organized crimes and drug trafficking, in particular, to focus on the link between drug trafficking and trafficking in women and girls
- To consider extending the network of Government services for the delivery of socioeconomic and development aid to rural areas

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To continue efforts in promoting and nurturing a vibrant civil society
- To strengthen and deepen interaction with relevant international human rights mechanisms
- To continue efforts to combat trafficking in women and children, by fully implementing the recently passed law of April 2008, on countering trafficking in persons
- To step up existing efforts to implement human rights education and training across all levels of society

MALDIVES

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To seek the support of the OHCHR in its efforts to improve national capacity on treaty reporting, including through exploring the possibility of producing a common core Document, if it so wishes

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To respect its obligations under international human rights and humanitarian law with respect to the Palestinian people
- To recognize and respect the right of the Palestinian people to self-determination and their right to establish an independent sovereign Palestinian State
- To end the occupation of all Palestinian and Arab territories occupied, including Jerusalem
- To Acknowledge/recognize, accept and fully implement the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice on the wall
- Recommended that Israel immediately ceases work on the construction of the wall being built in the Occupied Palestinian Territories, and begins dismantling it
- To fully and immediately implement all Council resolutions in relation to the situation of human rights in the occupied territories

- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To consider working with the new OHCHR Regional Office in Dakar to develop a common-core document to simplify and streamline treaty body reporting procedures
- To invite selected human rights special procedures with mandates of particular interest to Cape Verde to visit the country and make recommendations

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To continue to engage with the international community, particularly the major emitting countries of the developed world, many of whom are States members of the Council, working with them in order to protect the human rights of Tuvaluans by securing significant global reductions in greenhouse gas emissions

- To participate in discussions in the Council, scheduled for March 2009, on the relationship between human rights and climate change, in order to send a strong message to the parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change on the importance of reaching an effective and workable global agreement on climate change mitigation and adaptation

MALI

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

To improve the socio-economic situation with the support of the international community

MAURITIUS

○ To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To seek technical assistance and other support from development partners to strengthen implementation and development capacity with respect to human rights instruments and their domestication

○ To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To call on development partners to explore ways and means to enhance its capacity in the implementation of its human rights obligations, as well as to promote human rights at the grass-roots level through, inter alia, the elaboration of programmes for human rights education

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To enhance its capacity to promote human rights in the areas mentioned in paragraph 108 of the national report, with the appropriate technical assistance of OHCHR

- To combat poverty and ensure the right to education for all, with the support of the international community

MEXICO

○ To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To consider the ratification of the ILO Convention 169 on Indigenous and Tribal Peoples in Independent Countries

- To adopt measures necessary to harmonize customary laws with international instruments

- To consider ratifying/acceding to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

- To ratify the Convention on the Rights of Migrant Workers and Their Family Members

- To consider issuing a standing invitation to special procedures of the Human Rights Council

- To agree to the request for visit by the Special Rapporteur on the Rights and Fundamental Freedoms of Indigenous Peoples and the Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To consider the possibility of acceding to the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families
- To consider the possibility of acceding to the Optional Protocols to the Convention on the Rights of the Child
- To seek the support and advice of the various United Nations agencies in order to meet its international commitments in the protection and safeguarding of human rights
- To continue to strengthen the functions of the Office of the Attorney-General and the Ministry for Legal Affairs, with a view to harmonizing national and international obligations in the field of human rights
- To extend a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Human Rights Council
- To ratify the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, aiming at the abolition of the death penalty

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To consider ratifying the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the Optional Protocol thereto
- To consider ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance
- To consider ratifying the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To establish a moratorium with a view to the abolition of the death penalty and consider ratifying the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights
- To speed up the approval of the bill for the reform of the Criminal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure, with a view to criminalizing acts of torture and conferring on victims compulsory State-assistance, which should allow proper redress, including adequate compensation for victims of torture, or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment
- Recommended the establishment of a moratorium with a view to the abolition of the death penalty and that consideration be given to ratifying the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights
- Recommended speeding up the approval of the reform of the Criminal Code and the Code of Criminal Procedure with a view to criminalizing acts of torture and conferring on victims compulsory State assistance; such assistance should provide proper redress, including adequate compensation for victims of torture, or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment
- Recommended that all cases of rape and other forms of sexual violence be investigated in an expeditious, effective and impartial manner by an independent body and that all accused be prosecuted

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To consider ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families
- To cooperate closely with and strengthen the role of the Advisory Commission on Human Rights
- To stop the practice of releasing migrants, refugees and asylum-seekers minors at the borders

- To intensify its efforts to prevent human trafficking
 - To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73
- To consider ratification of the Convention against Torture and the Optional Protocol thereto
- To consider acceding to the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights
- To give consideration to all international obligations in the field of human rights provisions in revision of the Constitution
- To extend an open, permanent invitation to international human rights mechanisms
- To abolish de jure the death penalty
 - To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74
- To give serious consideration to the ratification of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- To review its legislation and public policies in order to safeguard the exercise of freedom of expression as well as to decriminalize defamation, libel and slander and take measures to protect journalists, including through the effective investigation of attacks on members of the profession
- In the implementation of public policies, give consideration to the characteristics, needs and aspirations of the beneficiaries in order to ensure the exercise of their rights, particularly economic, social and cultural rights
 - To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75
- To take the necessary measures to guarantee access to civil, penal and labour justice, as well as assistance and consular protection for all migrants, regardless of their migratory status, to ascertain their rights in cases of abuse
- To study the possibility of withdrawing its reservations to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women with regard to equality, particularly those based on nationality, and the celebration of civil acts and marriages
 - To Israel: A/HRC/10/76
- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To ratify the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the optional protocol thereto
- To follow-up the recommendations made by the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women and the special procedures that visited in September 2006, in the areas of equality and non-discrimination, paying particular attention to women and ethnic, national and religious minorities, the elimination of any distinction, exclusion or preferential treatment among groups of population in all the territories under State jurisdiction, particularly in the areas of access to justice, employment, education, health services, property rights, housing rights, family reunification, freedom of expression, belief and religion
- To respect freedom of movement in all territories under State jurisdiction in conformity with international standards

- To redouble efforts to guarantee the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms in the fight against terrorism, paying particular attention to the recommendations made by the Special Rapporteur on this subject

- To respect and ensure respect of international humanitarian law, particularly the 1949 Geneva Conventions and the Optional Protocol I thereto, including in the Occupied Palestine Territories

○ To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To ratify the Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights on the Child on the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography

- To address the recommendations of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women, the Human Rights Committee and the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights so as to resolve gender inequality, particularly in the field of employment and representation in high-ranking posts, and to eliminate domestic violence

- To pursue efforts to comply with the observations of the Human Rights Committee regarding safeguards of the rights of detainees

- To accede to the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the Optional Protocol thereto

- To accede to the Convention on the Rights of all Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families

- To address potential de facto discrimination of women with regard to inheritance

- To intensify efforts to resolve persistent challenges with respect to the integration of foreigners, in particular in the areas of access to quality education, health services and housing, labour rights, processes of naturalization and family reunification

○ To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To consider ratifying the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

- To consider ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families

- To adopt specific and comprehensive anti-discrimination laws

- To strengthen measures for the development of effective mechanisms to help combat impunity, including strengthening of the judiciary

○ To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To submit its periodic reports as soon as possible and establish mechanisms for the implementation of recommendations with the participation of civil society

- To strengthen measures to promote freedom of association and take measures to guarantee the full exercise of the right to freedom of expression, including the right to access to public information by civil society organizations and individual citizens

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture

- To redouble efforts to eliminate discrimination against women and apply the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women fully
- To extend an open and standing invitation to all special procedures of the Council”
- To abolish capital punishment
 - To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81
- To strengthen the national human rights commission to meet the requirements of the Paris Principles
- To ratify the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- To ratify the Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance
- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To intensify efforts to address cases of sexual violence and exploitation of children
- To establish courts for juveniles in conflict with the law
- To intensify efforts to combat violence against women and to increase their participation in the labour market
- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women
 - To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82
- To consider the ratification of the Convention for the Protection of all Persons against Enforced Disappearance
- To consider the visits by the special rapporteurs on human rights defenders, extrajudicial, summary or arbitrary executions, independence of judges and lawyers, and the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention
- To consider withdrawing the declaration regarding article 124 of the Rome Statute
- To consider the ratification of the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To put into effect the declaration of article 22 of the Convention against Torture
- To continue consolidating its policy of integral attention to victims and family members of human rights violations, in keeping with international standards
 - To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83
- To consider ratifying OP-CAT
- To consider ratifying the Rome Statute establishing the International Criminal Court
- To consider extending an open standing invitation to special procedures mechanisms
- To extend invitations to the thematic special procedures particularly to those that have requested to visit the country as well as the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention
- To modify its criminal code in order to establish a definition on torture and harshness of sentences according to the Convention on Torture

- To promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms by applying the measures stipulated in the law to combat terrorism, drug trafficking and other threats against the national security

- Recommended considering the ratification of the Optional Protocol to CAT and the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court

○ To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To give positive consideration, as a matter of priority, to ratification of at least the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

- To extend a standing invitation to human rights special procedures

- To incorporate in its legislation, at all levels, including at the level of the Constitution, provisions banning discrimination on the grounds of sex and gender

- To reform the Penal Code to cover offences such as sexual abuse against minors and to eliminate corporal punishment

- Recommended that features of Tuvalu's legal framework, which incorporates customary law but excludes those precepts which may be perceived as violations of human rights, and which always give precedence to the interpretation of law that is compatible with the international obligations, be singled out as good practices in the field of human rights

MOROCCO

○ To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To put in place a concrete national strategy to disseminate a culture of human rights and to ensure the long-term protection of these rights

○ To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To implement all international resolutions confirming the need to preserve the character and characteristics of Jerusalem, not to change its legal status and to preserve its Islamic and Christian spiritual monuments and symbols

- To respect all United Nations resolutions and its obligations under international human rights law and international humanitarian law, with a view to guaranteeing fundamental rights and freedoms to all Palestinians in the Occupied Palestinian Territories, including East Jerusalem, by combating all forms of discrimination; and ensure the enjoyment of the rights of the Palestinian people, inter alia, to housing, education, health, freedom of expression and freedom of movement

- To implement all resolutions adopted by the Council, in particular resolution 7/18, in which the Council requested Israel to cooperate with the Special Rapporteur on the human rights situation in the Palestinian territories occupied since 1967 and to immediately withdraw all legislative and administrative measures aiming at making the occupied East Jerusalem Jewish, including measures that allow archaeological digging around the Aqsa Mosque, the building of a synagogue, the establishment and expansion of settlements and the shutting down of Palestinian institutions

- To ensure the enjoyment by the Palestinians of all their cultural and religious rights, as contained in the Universal Declaration for Human Rights, and allow them to have access to all places of worship, in accordance with the Fourth Geneva Convention, without any restriction, and in order to preserve the cultural heritage, take all measures to protect these places and preserve their dignity

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To continue to work closely with civil society to fight the propagation of HIV/AIDS, without which the 6th objective of the MDGs will be difficult to achieve

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To persevere along its path and ask the international community to provide all the technical and financial support needed by Tuvalu during this process, particularly for the setting up of a national human rights institution in conformity with the Paris Principles; continue its efforts to harmonize national legislation with international human rights instruments; continue awareness raising and dissemination of human rights principles among the population at large; and conduct human rights training for officers responsible for law enforcement

NETHERLANDS

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To explore the possibility of a moratorium on the application of the death penalty towards its complete abolition, in conformity with the latest General Assembly resolutions on the subject

- To decriminalize homosexual relations and practices/consensual same-sex activities between adults

- To outlaw discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To complete its accession and to speedily ratify the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

- To report on the consultation of the civil society in the implementation of the outcome of the review in the next round of the universal periodic review

- To ensure the full and effective implementation of the Domestic Violence (Protection Order) Act

- To consider specifically with regard to the prevention of physical abuse of children the implementation of the recommendations of the Committee on the Rights of the Child

- To regularly report to the treaty bodies and specifically with regard to the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To ensure that training programmes focusing on human rights are mandatory for all judges, lawyers and police officers

- To extend protection against discrimination and ensure that no one is subject to discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, bearing in mind the universality of human rights and the recommendation of the Human Rights Committee on the right to privacy and non-discrimination

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To further improve the professionalism of the police force

- To consider legislative measures to deal with sexual harassment

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To sufficiently safeguard in relevant legislation the guarantees provided in the Constitution to effectively protect the rights of national minorities and equal representation of members of national minorities

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To consider establishing an independent national human rights institution that could advise the Government and receive and investigate complaints by the public

- Recommended improving the freedom of association and freedom to bargain collectively

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To guarantee access and freedom of movement to the inhabitants of Gaza and the West Bank notwithstanding the necessary security measures

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To continue to take steps to improve the integration of different groups, in particular in the education process, and report on results at the next round of the universal periodic review

- To include sexual orientation and gender identity in equality laws and initiatives

- To consider giving voting rights to long-term non-citizen residents in local elections and setting up adequate mechanisms enabling non-citizens to be consulted and to participate actively in the political decision-making process at the local level

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To adopt a national plan of action to enhance the protection of human rights defenders and independent journalists

- To apply the Yogyakarta Principles as a guide for new policies in the area of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender rights

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To reform the registration process to make it easier for organizations to register and work freely

- To establish an independent national institute for human rights according to the Paris Principles, which could advise the Government and receive and investigate complaints by the public

- To agree to visits of other rapporteurs who have requested access to Turkmenistan in the last five years

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture

- To consider the structure and function of the national human rights commission in accordance with the Paris Principles

- To share best practices with other countries regarding female genital mutilation and continue efforts to fully eradicate it

- To further strengthen measures to improve public access to the justice system and ensure the independence of the judicial system by, inter alia, providing sufficient means, and report on the results of these measures in the next review report

- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To continue to seriously improve the situation of children

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To continue the investigation and prosecution of the persons responsible for killing innocent young men said to have been guerrilla fighters

- To continue a constructive dialogue with human rights non-governmental organizations, especially given the current polarization between them and the Government

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To ensure regular inspection of harvesting practices to monitor and guarantee full compliance with international child labour standards

- To take all necessary measures to prevent torture in line with international law obligation and report about the results in the next UPR round and ensure that the absolute prohibition of torture is observed

- To ensure that everyone including human rights defenders can peacefully exercise their right to freedom of expression in conformity with obligations under the ICCPR

- To investigate all reports of assaults on and harassment of human rights defenders and bring to justice those responsible

- To fully respect the freedom of religion or belief as also expressed in the recommendations of the Human Rights Committee

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To adopt a law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of gender

- To improve the implementation of the law on granting asylum

NEW ZEALAND

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To develop a comprehensive strategy to reduce domestic violence in Tuvalu, including by raising public awareness of the issue and identifying ways to combat such violence

- To consider appointing an Ombudsman with responsibility for investigating alleged violations of human rights as a short-term measure

- To amend the Constitution to prohibit discrimination against persons with disabilities

- To amend the Constitution to include freedom from discrimination on the grounds of sex

NICARAGUA

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To continue to give priority to education programmes, therefore contributing to the strengthening of the democratization process

NIGERIA

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To reform the judicial system
- To fully promote the protection of human rights in the country

- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To call on the international community for assistance in attaining its goals, including the Millennium Development Goals

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To continue its efforts, in particular in the area of the juvenile justice system and access to basic health services, especially in prisons, as well as eventual implementation of recommendations that may come out of the review Uzbekistan, with the assistance of the international community

NORWAY

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To agree to the request for visit by the Special Rapporteur on the Rights and Fundamental Freedoms of Indigenous Peoples
- To establish a specific timeline for the implementation of the amendment in the Marriage Act

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To ensure that transitional justice mechanisms and reparations programmes fully integrate gender concerns and that justice for gender-based crimes during the conflict is realized
- To consider issuing an invitation to the Special Rapporteur on violence against women

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To effectively address and investigate attacks against journalists and human rights defenders and bring those responsible to justice

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- That the intention of the decree, recently signed by H.H. Shaykh Mohammed al- Maktoum that no journalist should receive prison sentences for its publications, be secured through the enactment of a modernized press and publications law
- That a new law should ensure the right to freedom of expression, assembly and association, in accordance with international human rights law
- To continue its recent move of opening up websites with a view to bringing the regulation of Internet use into line with international law
- To protect and respect the freedom of expression and association of human rights defenders in accordance with the Declaration on Human Rights Defenders and refrain from placing any unnecessary restrictions on their work
- Recommended including the right to organize, bargain collectively and strike in the law; extending the labour law to cover all groups, including domestic employees and farm labourers; and making this law known to the public through awareness campaigns

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To bring the existing criminal provisions that could be seen as inconsistent with the Israeli Basic Law on Human Dignity and Liberty and basic human rights law provisions guaranteeing freedom of speech into conformity with modern human rights law standards

- To issue a directive to the military with a view to expanding the category of “humanitarian exceptions” to permit human rights defenders to enter and leave Gaza for their work

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To follow up on the recommendations made by the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women to put in place a comprehensive policy with the aim of overcoming traditional stereotypes regarding the roles of women and men in society and the family

- To take special measures to accelerate women’s participation at all levels and in all areas of public life

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To take all necessary measures to ensure that allegations of human rights violations brought to the knowledge of the authorities are systematically subjected to inquiries and punished where appropriate

- To follow up the recommendation of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General on the situation of human rights defenders and denounce more forcefully verbal and physical attacks against human rights defenders

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To fully respect the rights of everyone to be free to leave and return to their own country, in conformity with article 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights to which Turkmenistan is party

- To protect the human rights of journalists and human rights defenders and ensure that they are able to carry out peaceful activities without harassment, threat of detention or imprisonment

- To guarantee the rights to freedom of expression and Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and thus ensure that the media are able to operate without interference

- To revoke any existing travel bans on human rights defenders and to guaranty the rights to freedom of expression and information of its citizens, in conformity with article 19 of the Covenant, and thus ensure that the media is able to operate without interference

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To forcefully denounce at the highest level attacks against human rights defenders and give human rights defenders legitimacy and recognition through supportive statements

- To effectively investigate and prosecute crimes and violations against human rights defenders, and ensure that those responsible are punished

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To extend invitations the Special Rapporteur on human rights defenders

- To apply fairly and without discrimination all registration procedures and in conformity with international standards

- To ensure that human rights defenders are protected from unjust imprisonment, intimidation and violence and that it release those imprisoned or sentenced for carrying out peaceful human rights advocacy

PAKISTAN

○ To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To complete its accession and to speedily ratify the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

○ To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To submit its pending reports to the relevant treaty bodies

- To work for the establishment of an independent human rights commission

○ To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To continue to strengthen its labour regulations and improve the working/living conditions of workers

○ To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To stop all illegal measures aimed at annexing East Jerusalem and at erasing its Arabic, Christian and Islamic characteristics, and respect religious freedom and the access to places of worship

- To end the occupation of all Palestinian and Arab territories occupied, including Jerusalem

- To respect the right of the Palestinians to self-determination and the establishment of their independent State with Jerusalem as its capital as stipulated in various international treaties

- To Acknowledge/recognize, accept and fully implement the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice on the wall

- To end collective punishment in the Occupied Palestinian Territories, in particular in the Gaza Strip

- To end all construction in the Occupied Palestinian Territories and the destruction of natural and agricultural resources of the Palestinian people

- To fully and immediately implement all Council resolutions

- To implement the recommendations of the Council and special procedures, particularly the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in the Palestinian territories occupied since 1967 and the Special Committee on Israeli Practices in the Occupied Palestinian Territories

- To endorse the recommendations of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders

- To ensure the release of all prisoners and administrative detainees

- To lift all military checkpoints and end all restrictions on the rights of Palestinians to movement and their rights to health and education

- To acknowledge the right of refugees to return to their homes, according to the Fourth Geneva Convention

- To submit a report on the situation of human rights in the Occupied Palestinian Territories since Israel is in charge as the occupying power

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To continue efforts to promote and protect human rights with all possible technical assistance by the international community and OHCHR

PALESTINE

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To suppress all decisions allowing the use of torture in accordance with the Convention against Torture, and refrain from using arbitrary and summary executions

- To stop all illegal measures aimed at annexing East Jerusalem and at erasing its Arabic, Christian and Islamic characteristics, and respect religious freedom and the access to places of worship

- To end the occupation of all Palestinian and Arab territories occupied, including Jerusalem

- To respect the right of the Palestinians to self-determination and the establishment of their independent State with Jerusalem as its capital as stipulated in various international treaties

- To Acknowledge/recognize, accept and fully implement the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice on the wall

- End collective punishment in the Occupied Palestinian Territories, in particular in the Gaza Strip

- To end all construction in the Occupied Palestinian Territories and the destruction of natural and agricultural resources of the Palestinian people

- To fully and immediately implement all Council resolutions

- To implement the recommendations of the Council and recommendations of the special procedures, particularly the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in the Palestinian territories occupied since 1967 and the Special Committee on Israeli Practices in the Occupied Palestinian Territories

- To ensure the release of all prisoners and administrative detainees

- To lift all military checkpoints and end all restrictions on the rights of Palestinians to movement and their rights to health and education

- To acknowledge the right of refugees to return to their homes, according to the Fourth Geneva Convention

- To submit a report on the situation of human rights in the Occupied Palestinian Territories since Israel is in charge as the occupying power

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To develop its legislation in order to meet the basic development needs of the country in its transitional period

PHILIPPINES

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To continue to build on and strengthen efforts to protect the rights of migrant workers, especially women migrant domestic workers

- To continue to pursue active cooperation and dialogue with the countries of origin of migrant workers
- To share its experiences and best practices with other countries in establishing national legislation and mechanisms and pursuing international cooperation to curb human trafficking
- To continue to provide assistance to developing countries as a means to improve the enjoyment of human rights in other parts of the world
 - To Israel: A/HRC/10/76
- To establish an independent national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles
 - To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77
- To consider establishing an independent national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles, as suggested by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination
 - To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82
- To enhance human rights education programmes for citizens and the armed forces to promote a culture of peace and respect for human rights
 - To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83
- To strengthen inter-ministerial coordination in law enforcement activities of agencies and implementation of measures to protect human rights and fundamental freedoms
- To continue to dedicate resources to promote the right to education and the rights of children
 - To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84
- To continue to play an active role in promoting international cooperation to combat climate change
- To continue to strengthen measures to promote the equal rights of women and to counter discrimination

POLAND

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74
- To continue and further strengthen its anti-corruption policy
 - To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78
- To ensure full compliance of domestic legislation and relevant procedures with juvenile justice standards of the Convention on the Rights of the Child
- To implement a comprehensive national strategy to prevent trafficking and sexual exploitation of children
- To strengthen its anti-corruption policy
 - To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79
- To take effective measures to allow independent non-governmental organizations to register and work freely

- To take measures to protect human rights defenders from prosecution and ensure a safe environment for their activities
- Recommended the abolition of the legislation and practices arising from the propiska system of registration of permanent residence
 - To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83
- To improve the conditions of detention
- To consider ratifying OP-CAT
- To ensure in practice better access of every detainee to lawyers, family members, medical treatment and other legal guarantees to ensure protection from torture
- To continue to allow unfettered regular access of the ICRC to all detention facilities
- To ensure the full implementation of ILO Conventions 182 and 138, and that it stop the practice of sending school-age children to participate in the harvesting of cotton

PORTUGAL

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71
 - To establish an independent national human rights commission in compliance with the Paris Principles with a strong mandate
 - To implement the recommendations of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women and take measures to eliminate discriminatory practices against women, also through education and awareness-raising programmes
 - To take urgent steps toward the full and prompt implementation of the recommendations of the Committee against Torture
- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72
 - To ensure that the implementation of the national action plan for gender equality continues to be fully ensured by all sectors of the Government
- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81
 - To complete the ratification process of the Rome Statute as soon as possible and ensure that the Statute and the Agreement on Privileges and Immunities of the International Criminal Court are effectively implemented in national legislation
 - To give priority to the implementation of awareness-raising measures aimed at achieving gender equality in marriage and family relations
 - To effectively implement international labour standards with regard to children
- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82
 - To adopt measures to ensure that the military justice system does not claim jurisdiction in human rights cases involving members of the security forces
 - To prosecute the perpetrators of forced displacement independently of other possible crimes and human rights violations, instead of considering it an accessory fact or a simple consequence of armed conflict

QATAR

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To reform the 1980 law on publications and all other related laws to take into account the evolution of freedom of expression and opinion

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To fully and immediately implement all Council resolutions and respect the human rights and fundamental freedoms of the Palestinian people, in particular their right to self-determination

- To release all Palestinian and Syrian detainees and put an end to all the practices that seek to modify the demographic composition and architecture of Jerusalem and the Syrian Golan

- To expeditiously open crossing points and checkpoints

REPUBLIC OF KOREA

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To establish an independent national human rights commission in compliance with the Paris Principles

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To strengthen cooperation with human rights mechanisms to overcome challenges presented frankly in the national report

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To strengthen cooperation with human rights mechanisms, which will be helpful to achieve further improvements in various areas

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To continue to improve the socio-economic situation of the Roma minority

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To continue its close cooperation with the mechanisms and special procedures of the Council, with a view to achieving incremental improvements, particularly with regard to the promotion and protection of the human rights situation of its people

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To strengthen cooperation with the special procedures of the Council

- To extend invitations to the thematic special procedures particularly to those that have requested to visit the country

ROMANIA

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To ratify the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To take all necessary measures to enhance the effectiveness of the Office of the Ombudsman and include, inter alia, effective monitoring and promotion of the rights of persons belonging to national minorities

- To take into account the opinions and recommendations of the European Commission for Democracy through Law when implementing the law on religious organizations

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To adopt measures to protect human rights defenders and cooperate with human rights organizations in adopting a national plan of action for human rights and in the implementation of the recommendations resulting from the universal periodic review

- To ensure the full protection of children's rights, in particular of children who are victims of the internal armed conflict, and adequately address all situations of violence against women

RUSSIAN FEDERATION

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To take further steps to improve the rights of women and children; implement the recommendation made by the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women in 2008 on drafting strategies and programmes to combat prostitution; continue its efforts to combat sexual exploitation of children and continue to take effective measures to protect children from violence, racism and pornography

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To consider establishing an independent national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles, as suggested by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination

- To enhance efforts to ensure equality of opportunity for women and men in the labour market

RWANDA

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To continue its efforts for the promotion and protection of human rights with the support of the international community, at the bilateral and multilateral levels

SAUDI ARABIA

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To continue its achievements in the area of human rights and to take them into account as an encouraging factor for the promotion and protection of human rights

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To respect the inalienable rights of Palestinians and end all occupation of occupied Arab territories

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To promote legislation in conformity with UNICEF and ILO standards regarding the rights of the child

SLOVAKIA

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To consider ratifying/acceding to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

- To decriminalize homosexual relations and practices/consensual same-sex activities between adults

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To guarantee the full independence of the judiciary in accordance with Basic Principles on the Independence of the Judiciary as laid down by the General Assembly in its resolution 40/146, and establish an independent monitoring mechanism of court proceeding in order to enhance the independence of the judiciary

- To take further comprehensive measures to address the issue of corruption, in particular in the police force

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To begin the implementation of specific and comprehensive anti-discrimination laws

- To educate its public through awareness-raising campaigns enabling them to use existing legislative and institutional mechanisms for the protection of human rights

- To strengthen the national mechanism for the implementation of the decisions of the Human Rights Committee, the Committee against Torture, the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women in individual complaints

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To accede to/ratify the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court

- To respond positively to visits already requested by special procedures

- To grant access to detainees to ICRC, according to the usual terms of the Committee, as well as to international monitors

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To consider ratifying the Rome Statute establishing the International Criminal Court

- To extend invitations to the thematic special procedures particularly to those that have requested to visit the country

- To continue to allow unfettered regular access of the ICRC to all detention facilities in accordance with the ICRC standard working procedures also beyond the trial period

SLOVENIA

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To include a gender perspective in the review follow-up process in a systematic manner

- To develop non-custodial alternatives in relation to the sole or primary carers of children
- To take measures to protect the best interests of babies and children affected by parental detention or imprisonment
- To develop non-custodial alternatives, such as community service and bail arrangements
- To consider changing legislation to expressly prohibit all forms of corporal punishment in all settings (at home, in schools and in other institutions) and conduct awareness-raising efforts to change the public's attitude to corporal punishment

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To complete its accession and to speedily ratify the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights
- To consider the possibility of acceding to the other major human rights instruments, in particular the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment
- To develop further and implement measures to deal with the large backlog of cases in courts
- To respond, without delay, to concerns raised by several special rapporteurs on the conditions of detention in the Carmichael Detention Centre

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To develop and implement policies and measures to address inequality between boys and girls in access to education and reported widespread child labour
- To reconsider the inclusion in the draft criminal code of the provision criminalizing same-sex sexual relations in conformity with Burundi's obligations to ensure non-discrimination and the right to privacy
- Recommended the development and implementation policies and measures to address the inequality between boys and girls regarding access to education and the reported widespread child labour

- To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72

- To include a gender perspective in the review follow-up process in a systematic and continuous manner
- To adopt provisions regarding alternatives to custody
- To look into measures to protect the best interests, needs and physical, social and psychological development of babies and children affected by parental detention or imprisonment

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To take measures to eliminate corporal punishment as a legitimate sanction in the law and to discourage its use in schools with a view to its eventual and total abolition; conduct public awareness initiatives to change peoples' attitudes to corporal punishment
- To decriminalize consensual sexual acts between adults of the same sex
- To take all necessary actions to protect homosexuals from harassment, discrimination and violence

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To include in the draft legislation on the prohibition of discrimination comprehensive anti-discrimination measures, including on sexual orientation and gender identity

- To involve meaningfully civil society in the process of the preparation of the planned law on protection against domestic violence
- To clarify the legal status of refugees from neighbouring States, with a focus on the prevention of statelessness
 - To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75
- To put in place effective institutional support for the victims of domestic violence
- That the perspective of the equality for women be fully included into the follow-up process to this review, including by conducting regular consultation with civil society and women's groups on the implementation of the various related recommendations
- To withdraw the reservations to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, particularly articles 2 (f), 9 and 15
- Recommended the legislative sanctioning of marital rape
 - To Israel: A/HRC/10/76
- To move towards the formal and final legal abolition of the death penalty
- To cease imprisoning conscientious objectors and consider granting them the right to serve instead with a civilian body independent of the military
- To develop mechanisms for overseeing the implementation of the Convention of the Rights of the Child in the West Bank and Gaza
- To establish a separate juvenile justice system to try accused Palestinian children
 - To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77
- To consider ratifying the fundamental conventions of the International Labour Organization
- To give priority to non-custodial measures when sentencing or deciding on pre-trial measures, in particular in relation to the role of the primary carer of a child, and identify and implement measures to protect the best interests, needs and physical, social and psychological development of children affected by parental detention or imprisonment
 - To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78
- To reinstate civilian control of decision-making in relation to applications for conscientious objection to military service, to extend the time during which applications can be made, to remove the exclusion of all those who have ever held a firearms license from being recognized as conscientious objectors, and to equalize the length of alternative and military service
- To protect national minorities rights already granted by the existing law and to have them reflected in the new legislation, and not diminish the current minority stipulation for the procedures of elections
- To not allow the nullification of the signatures already collected to form a minority association, and not raise the threshold of signatures needed on application forms
 - To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79
- To cooperate closely with UNICEF and OHCHR in the protection of the rights of children
- To respond positively to all pending requests of special procedures for visits without further delay

- To recognize conscientious objection to military service in law and practice and stop prosecuting, imprisoning and repeatedly punishing conscientious objectors

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To set up an anti-trafficking public campaign and take measures to protect victims and give them the necessary legal and psycho-social assistance and societal reintegration, and indicate the needs for technical assistance and capacity-building to the international community

- To develop and implement preventative and protection policies and measures for the victims of child labour

- To ease current restrictions to allow for full, unhindered freedom of expression and freedom of assembly

○ To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To establish and provide adequate resources for a sufficient number of safe houses to shelter victims of domestic violence

- To improve the efficiency of existing mechanisms for compensating victims of domestic violence

○ To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To address the issue of unaccounted for children not handed over after the demobilization process of the paramilitaries and guarantee free primary education as a preventive measure against forced recruitments

- To accelerate the poverty alleviation programmes with a view to addressing the uneven distribution of wealth, access to health and the high level of social exclusion of indigenous peoples and Afro-Colombian groups

- To recognize in law the right to conscientious objection to military service and practice and ensure that recruitment methods allow it

- Recommend the cessation of the use of children by State security forces in military intelligence activities and through programmes such as "Soldiers for a day", in compliance with a recommendation by the Committee on the Rights of the Child in 2006

○ To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To extend invitations to the thematic special procedures particularly to those that have requested to visit the country

- To ensure that conscientious objection to military service is available to individuals irrespective of their religion or belief and that the process for consideration applications is under civilian control and to provide a non-punitive civilian alternative service

○ To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To consider ratifying other key treaties, particularly the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

SOUTH AFRICA

○ To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To provide sufficient resources to the Office of the Ombudsman for its effective functioning

- To seek support from the Council in the areas highlighted in the national report
 - To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71
- To establish an independent national human rights commission
 - To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75
- To fast-track the development of infrastructure in remote rural areas, with a view to ensuring the practical enjoyment of economic and social rights to benefit the people living in remote rural areas
- To accelerate the elaboration of a national plan of action with a view to instilling a culture of human rights
- To guarantee adequate protection of workers through the effective implementation of legislative and administrative labour laws
 - To Israel: A/HRC/10/76
- To dismantle the separation wall
- To take urgent and immediate steps to end its occupation of all Palestinian and Arab territories occupied since 1967; implement all Human Rights Council, General Assembly and Security Council resolutions on the Occupied Palestinian Territories and other Arab territories; introduce measures to respect the right of the Palestinian people to self-determination and their right to return; accept its obligations under international human rights and humanitarian law; cease action that would alter the demographic situation of Palestine; and grant access to safe drinking water to Syrian citizens living in the occupied Syrian Golan
 - To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80
- To effectively promote and protect human rights and seek the support of the Council in the areas highlighted under section VII in its national report
 - To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82
- To accelerate the poverty alleviation programmes with a view to addressing the uneven distribution of wealth, access to health and the high level of social exclusion of indigenous peoples and Afro-Colombian groups
 - To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83
- To accelerate its poverty alleviation programmes
- To Establish a national human rights institution

SPAIN

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69
- To resolve the dispute between the San of the Reserve
- To explore the possibility of a moratorium on the application of the death penalty towards its complete abolition, in conformity with the latest General Assembly resolutions on the subject
- To decriminalize homosexual relations and practices/consensual same-sex activities between adults

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- In the context of the tragic events relating to the discovery of the bodies of 11 young people in the area of Ocaña, and cases known as “false positives”, expedite the designation of persons within all military units, to be responsible for promptly dealing with claims against any actions by units, or the individuals that compose them, which are contrary to fundamental rights
- To find a formula to solve the gaps in the Justice and Peace Law and allow for a legal response to the situation of legal limbo that many thousands of ex-members of AUC find themselves in while awaiting trial
- To ensure dialogue with important sectors of civil society, leaving aside stigmatizing speech and anything that would be unjustified on one side or the other; in this context, it is especially important to finalize the agreed national human rights plan of action
- To give priority to the fight against criminal gangs and emerging bands and, in this context, investigate threats and attacks against human rights defenders from these gangs, and grant them the necessary security guarantees
- To achieve a broad consensus to approve the law establishing a statute for victims of conflict and ensure that this law leads to effective reparations for all victims, especially victims of the State

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To extend invitations in particular to the Special Rapporteur on the question of torture and the Special Rapporteur on freedom of opinion and expression
- To liberalize the work of mass media, and draw a clear distinction between the legitimate fight against terrorism and strict respect for freedom of religion
- Recommended the liberation of all human rights defenders who remain in prison about the situation of Solijon Abdurakhmanov and Agzam Turgunov
- To eliminate restrictions on the activities of human rights NGOs

SUDAN

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To end the occupation of all Palestinian and Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem and occupied Syrian Golan, and recognize and respect the right of the Palestinian people to self-determination and their right to establish an independent sovereign Palestinian State with Jerusalem as its capital

SWEDEN

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To promote gender equality and pursue work on legislation on marital rape as a priority and consider additional measures, such as public awareness-raising initiatives or campaigns in order to promote the implementation of the rights in the legislation in question
- To continue efforts to eliminate corporal punishment especially in schools

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To continue its efforts to combat all forms of discrimination and consider specific measures in order to promote tolerance and non-discrimination on the grounds of sexual orientation

- To continue its efforts to promote gender equality and consider appropriate legislative changes, including criminalizing marital rape
- To continue, as matter of priority, efforts to prohibit corporal punishment, of children as well as of adults, and to allocate necessary resources to allow the full implementation of the Convention on the Rights of the Child.
 - To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71
 - To Increase work on gender equality, sexual violence and empowerment of women, especially regarding women's rights to inheritance and access to land
 - To intensify efforts to uphold the respect for the rule of law by ensuring an independent and well functioning judicial system
 - To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72
 - To intensify efforts to secure detention conditions, including care of children and young people deprived of their liberty, which fully meet international human rights standards
 - To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73
 - To maintain the de facto moratorium, to continue consultations on changing the mandatory death sentence for murder and treason, and also take appropriate steps to reach a permanent abolition of the death penalty
 - To consider introducing specific legislation and additional policy measures to promote tolerance and non-discrimination of lesbians, gays, bisexuals and transsexuals
 - To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74
 - To intensify its efforts to combat corruption in order to ensure the independence, effectiveness and quality of the judicial system
 - To take measures as a matter of priority to ensure that the freedom of expression and freedom of press are guaranteed in accordance with international human rights standards
 - To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75
 - To step up efforts to ensure that economic, social and cultural rights of migrant workers are fully respected
 - To consider additional policy measures to promote tolerance and non-discrimination on the grounds of sexual orientation
 - To consider legislative changes to repeal corporal punishment and bring legislation into line with international human rights obligations
 - To Israel: A/HRC/10/76
 - To spare no effort to investigate allegations of violence and killings committed by the police and also ensure that the State, at all levels, fully respects international human rights standards
 - To intensify its efforts to ensure that human rights are fully respected in the fight against terrorism
 - To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77
 - To continue exploring new policy measures to promote gender equality in order to achieve gender balance in political bodies

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To intensify its efforts to combat corruption in order to ensure the independence, effectiveness and quality of the judicial system
- To adopt necessary measures to secure full respect for freedom of expression
- To promote the work of human rights defenders

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To intensify its efforts and take appropriate measures to guarantee the right of opinion, freedom of expression and freedom of assembly
- To eliminate the use of torture and other cruel, inhuman degrading treatment or punishment in places of detention
- To consider legislation and/or additional policy measures to promote tolerance and non-discrimination of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender persons

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To increase efforts to strengthen the respect of women's rights and to promote gender equality
- To intensify efforts to reinforce the human rights protection system and fight impunity and ensure the independence of the judicial system

- To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To continue efforts to ensure that the action of police forces and conditions in places of detention meet international human rights standards fully
- To consider appropriate policy measures in order to promote tolerance and non-discrimination for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender persons

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To intensify efforts to complete the work on the national plan of action in accordance with the recommendation of OHCHR, with particular attention to efforts to improve the situation regarding sexual violence against women
- To take all necessary measures to increase its efficiency to investigate and prevent extrajudicial killings
- To intensify efforts to bring down the high number of enforced disappearances and kidnappings in the country, with particular attention to indigenous human rights defenders

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To consider signing the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To take all necessary measures to prevent torture and other cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment or punishment, in particular in places of detention
- To take appropriate legislative and policy measures in order to guarantee full respect of human rights, including in the fight against terrorism

SWITZERLAND

○ To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To Step up efforts to implement the final observations of the Committee for the Elimination of Discrimination against Women
- To take the necessary steps to amend the Code on Persons and the Family, the law governing inheritance, matrimonial regimes and bequests and the Criminal Code in order to bring them into conformity with the principle of non-discrimination as set out in the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women
- To continue its efforts to integrate, without delay, the Palipehutu-FNL into the defence and security forces, as well as in the various executive, administrative and diplomatic areas
- To establish, with the support of the United Nations, a dual machinery, including a special tribunal and a truth and reconciliation commission, and grant both bodies great independence, not restricting the powers of the future tribunal to the decisions of the commission
- To adopt the necessary additional measures to effectively prevent and combat sexual violence against women, particularly minors
- To guarantee freedom of expression to journalists and allow political parties to carry out political activities

○ To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To ratify the main international instruments, in particular the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the Convention against Torture, and to progress in their implementation
- Recommended the declaration of a moratorium on the death penalty as a first step towards its abolition, in compliance with General Assembly resolution 62/149

○ To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To Incorporate the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the Convention against Torture into national legislation as soon as possible
- Do not renew the Citizenship and Entry into Israel Law after its expiration in July 2009 and re-examine its scope with a view to respecting the obligation of nonA/ discrimination
- To fully respect its human rights obligations, not only in its own territory, but also in places under its control, such as the Occupied Palestine Territories, as recalled by treaty bodies and the International Court of Justice
- To cease immediately the expansion of settlements and the operations of destruction, inter alia, in East Jerusalem of houses belonging to Palestinian families
- To lift blockades in the Gaza Strip and remove restrictions of movement currently placed in the Occupied Palestine Territories that gravely harm the human rights of Palestinians

○ To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To pursue work to draft and enact a law establishing registered partnership for same sex couples
- To introduce ex-officio prosecution for all acts of domestic violence

- To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To continue to develop a legal system in line with international standards, in order to strengthen the rule of law
- To continue to make every effort to ensure full cooperation with the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia
- To track down and arrest the key remaining fugitives accused of war crimes by the Tribunal
- To promote the work of human rights defenders
- To take all necessary measures to ensure freedom of expression
- To intensify efforts to ensure better integration of the minorities

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To widely disseminate the main human rights texts, particularly by providing courses on human rights in school curricula to make all social categories aware of their rights
- To put in place and apply sanctions against the perpetrators of domestic violence
- To follow-up on the recommendations formulated by the Committee on the procedural laws to ensure women's access to justice, and to enhance women's awareness of their rights through legal literacy programmes and legal assistance so that they can claim all their rights
- To address a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Council

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To strengthen the national plan for the search for missing persons
- To apply directives for the evaluation of performance and operational results in the armed forces, giving priority to the number of people demobilized or captured as opposed to the number of those killed
- To strengthen the judiciary and guarantee its independence
- Recommended that Colombian justice complete its work designed to establish the truth, putting an end to impunity and protect the human rights
- Recommended that the National Commission for Reparation and Reconciliation and the Working Group on Historical Memory intensify their work to fully clarify past crimes and give voice to victims
- To investigate all cases of disappearances and homicides under civil courts and punish those responsible, and to this effect, strengthen the human rights unit of the Fiscalía General de la Nación
- Recommended that former paramilitary commanders continue to be heard within the framework of the application of the Justice and Peace Law
- To step up efforts to dismantle the new armed groups that have emerged since the demobilization of the paramilitaries
- Recommended that the judiciary continue its investigations into alleged links between State agents and paramilitaries
- That high-ranking State officials publicly express the recognition of the importance of the role played by human rights defenders, in order to support and protect the legitimate work of human rights defenders and trade union workers

- To improve the text of the draft law for victims in order to include victims of state agents, in keeping with United Nations recommendations

○ To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To strengthen its collaboration with national and international civil society actors, notably by giving general accreditation to the major international human rights organizations

- To consider extending an open standing invitation to special procedures mechanisms

- To extend invitations in particular to the Special Rapporteur on the question of torture

- To follow the recommendations made by the Committee Against Torture with a view to adopting all necessary measures to combat impunity

- To do its utmost to eliminate forced child labour and intensify its efforts to effectively implement the national legislation, in particular the labour code of 1996, and international conventions ratified by the Government on this subject

- Recommended making a humanitarian gesture by liberating prisoners for political and religious offenses who are in serious health condition

○ To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To ratify, in particular, the International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

- To ratify the Convention against Torture

- To step up efforts on raising the awareness of the population of the impact of climate change and involve the population more in the decision-making process in mitigating and adapting to the consequences of such changes

- To eliminate any legislation that has discriminatory effects against women, implement the relevant recommendations of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women, and introduce a gender-specific dimension to the anti-discrimination provision of the Constitution

SYRIA

○ To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To pay attention to the development of infrastructure in remote regions

○ To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To commit to implementing the recommendations made after the review of its report submitted to the Committee against Torture and end physical and mental torture of Arab prisoners

- To set a clear timetable to commit itself to the principles of human rights and humanitarian laws in all occupied Arab territories

- To respect religious and cultural rights of the Palestinian people in the Occupied Palestinian Territories, including Jerusalem, in accordance with Council resolution 6/19

- To commit itself to releasing all Arab prisoners and detainees in Israeli prisons imprisoned for years without trial; enable ICRC to provide for needs and health care in conformity with Council resolution 7/30, as the state of health is deteriorating on an ongoing basis

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To continue efforts to protect and promote human rights in conformity with its self pledged commitments and the development needs of society

TANZANIA

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To consider ratifying/acceding to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

- To take action to establish an independent national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles

- To take measures to reverse secondary school drop-out rates resulting from the introduction of cost-sharing

- To take more action to consolidate efforts regarding the rights of minority groups

- To take action to address the non-coverage of anti-retroviral treatment for refugees

TURKEY

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To set a timeline for the ratification of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights

- To adhere to the National Action Plan for Children and programme for the elimination of child labour

- To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73

- To consider the possibility of abolition of capital punishment

- To address the concerns raised by the Human Rights Committee and the Committee on the Rights of the Child on corporal punishment

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To maintain its efforts to continue reaching a higher level of human rights standards with regard to the issues of freedom of the media, functioning of the judiciary and the situation of refugees

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- A sustained improvement of the humanitarian situation in the Palestine territories can only be achieved by the permanent settlement of the conflict. Encouraged the international community to continue its efforts to that end; necessary measures must be taken to ameliorate the living conditions of the Palestine people. Call on all parties concerned to refrain from any action that could undermine the process leading to a durable solution

- To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77

- To continue monitoring tendencies that may give rise to racist and xenophobic acts, in accordance with the recommendations of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and other treaty bodies

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To continue its close cooperation with OHCHR
- To intensify its efforts to address the issue of impunity
- To continue to strengthen the victim and witness protection programme under the Justice and Peace Law and allocate sufficient resources

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To continue cooperation with OHCHR with a view to making necessary improvements in the fields of legislative reform on the punishment of sexual abuse of children, land and family laws, and the establishment of a national human rights commission and a human rights office

UKRAINE

- To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74

- To submit its reports to the relevant treaty bodies in due time

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To use appropriate international experience to ensure human rights in the ecological crisis zone
- To strengthen cooperation with the special procedures of the Council
- To extend invitations to the thematic special procedures
- To respond questionnaires to the mandate holders in due time

UNITED KINGDOM

- To Botswana: A/HRC/10/69

- To strengthen the application of the domestic violence bill and the abolition of the Marital Power Act
- To take concrete steps to move towards the abolition of the death penalty

- To the Bahamas: A/HRC/10/70

- To ensure that civil society is involved in the implementation of the outcome of the review
- To ratify the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, aiming at the abolition of the death penalty
- To consider the repeal of provisions allowing for the death penalty
- To amend existing legislation so as to outlaw marital rape

- To Burundi: A/HRC/10/71

- To establish an independent national human rights commission in compliance with the Paris Principles
- To prioritize national consultations to establish transitional justice mechanisms to ensure that reconciliation and justice address allegations of the most serious crimes, including war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide

- To take further steps to address discrimination and attacks against women
 - To Luxembourg: A/HRC/10/72
- To consider ratifying the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture
- To continue consultations with numerous stakeholders in its follow-up to universal periodic review reports
 - To Barbados: A/HRC/10/73
- Closely involve civil society in the follow-up to the present review
- To incorporate a legal definition of racial discrimination into domestic legislation
- To revise domestic legislation to provide for the granting of refugee status and incorporate the principle of non-refoulement
- To continue to seek technical assistance where capacity issues may impede progress
 - To Montenegro: A/HRC/10/74
- To continue its work in implementing the Judicial Reform Action Plan
- To maintain its level of efforts to tackle concerns raised regarding the situation of the Roma population in Montenegro, and give priority to implementing the 2007 strategy for the improvement of the position of the Roma population
 - To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75
- To take further steps to improve the situation of migrant labourers and domestic staff
- To continue dialogue with civil society in the follow-up to and implementation of the review, and establish a standing forum to facilitate such dialogue and enable greater mutual understanding
- Recommended further steps to eliminate racial discrimination and to promote freedom of religion and belief
 - To Israel: A/HRC/10/76
- To take immediate action to ensure all cases are reviewed by a court in accordance with fair procedures and that the rights of detainees, particularly the right to a fair trial and family visitations, are upheld
- To ensure that the rights of minorities are fully protected
- To take action to ensure that Palestinians are fully able to enjoy their economic, social and cultural rights
- To engage with civil society in the follow-up to and implementation of the universal periodic review process
 - To Liechtenstein: A/HRC/10/77
- To continue to consult stakeholders in its work to follow up the outcome of the universal periodic review
- To maintain efforts to ensure the full implementation of the national plan of action against racism

- To establish an ombudsman institution at the earliest opportunity

○ To Serbia: A/HRC/10/78

- To ensure that legislation related to the State's commitment to human rights is adopted and enforced as soon as possible

- To ensure that the Commissioner for Information of Public Importance be given greater access to information so that he may fully determine whether such information should be withheld from access to the public

- To fulfil its obligations to the Tribunal and other related bodies

○ To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To ensure the full and effective implementation of the Constitution to deliver the better enjoyment of human rights for the people of Turkmenistan

- To take steps to ensure greater independence of the judiciary, including through the establishment of a constitutional court and ombudsman system

- To do more to promote and protect freedom of religion or belief, including by safeguarding personal access to, and use and ownership of, religious literature and materials

- Recommended conducting a nationwide, transparent review of all potentially political cases of past years and releasing all those found to have been incarcerated on politically motivated charges

○ To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To take further steps to present periodic reports to the treaty bodies and implement the recommendations in a timely fashion

- To strengthen awareness-raising efforts in rural areas where some cultural traditions inhibit women's rights

- To consider steps to abolish the death penalty in all circumstances

- To take all necessary measures to ensure that employment of children does not interfere with their right to education

○ To Cape Verde: A/HRC/10/81

- To take further steps to address discrimination against women and vulnerable groups, including children

- To draw up a timetable with OHCHR for addressing the backlog of reports and future work and to continue to collaborate with non-governmental organizations

- To strengthen its institutions and ratify key treaties, including the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture

○ To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To continue to take measures to tackle the influence of illegal groups, including FARC, ELN and new and reforming armed paramilitary groups such as the Aguilas Negras, and do so while conforming to international humanitarian law

- To increase efforts to address the serious problem of the situation of internally displaced persons, which causes much suffering to the individuals, families and communities affected

- To deepen its engagement with and support for civil society actors, human rights defenders and minority groups, and ensure their safety, with specific mechanisms in place if necessary, including through supportive public statements on the important role they play in democracy
- To increase efforts to tackle poverty and give its attention to the most vulnerable groups in society, including indigenous groups

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To establish independent mechanisms for complaints and for monitoring conditions in places of detention
- To consider ratifying OP-CAT and take the necessary measures at the national level in order to do so
- To establish a national human rights institution in compliance with the Paris Principles
- To take all necessary measures to prevent torture and ensure that the absolute prohibition of torture is observed as recommended
- To ensure in practice better access of every detainee to lawyers, family members
- To introduce a simpler registration process for religious organizations than currently exists

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To meet its reporting obligations under the Convention on the Rights of the Child
- To prioritize necessary reforms to modernize legislation and eliminate all forms of discrimination
- To work with civil society on follow-up to the review

URUGUAY

- To Turkmenistan: A/HRC/10/79

- To cooperate with the Special Rapporteur on torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, the Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health, the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders, the Special Rapporteur on the independence of judges and lawyers, the Special Rapporteur on the promotion and protection of the right to freedom of opinion and expression, the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention, the Special Rapporteur on summary, arbitrary or extrajudicial executions and the Special Rapporteur on violence against women, its causes and consequences and with OHCHR by responding to the questionnaires and questions sent to Turkmenistan by those mandate-holders
- To undertake urgently a campaign and initiate programmes aimed at eliminating all forms of de jure and de facto discrimination against women
- To eliminate all norms and practices that lead to the discrimination of members of national minorities, such as Russians, Uzbeks, Kazakhs, Turks and Kurds
- To cooperate with special procedures and OHCHR by authorizing and facilitating procedures for the Special Rapporteur on the question of torture, the Special Rapporteur on the right to health, the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders, the Special Rapporteur on the independence of judges and lawyers, the Special Rapporteur on freedom of opinion and expression, the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention, the Special Rapporteur on extrajudicial executions and the Special Rapporteur on violence against women requesting to visit the country

- To Colombia: A/HRC/10/82

- To make every effort to achieve an agreement with the guerrilla groups in order to achieve peace, as had been attempted in the past
- To demobilize, within the guerrilla and the paramilitaries, children combatants who have been forcibly recruited
- To give strict orders to security forces not to make mistakes by qualifying as “terrorists” those who in reality are human rights defenders and members of nongovernmental organisations
- To expedite the process initiated under the Justice and Peace Law passed in 2005 with regard to accelerating the demobilization of paramilitary chiefs and combatants

VIET NAM

- To Burkina Faso: A/HRC/10/80

- To increase efforts to see through its commitments set out in the national report, especially with regard to campaigning against poverty and ignorance, and reinforce the legitimate rights of specific social groups in the country

- To Uzbekistan: A/HRC/10/83

- To continue efforts in the areas of human rights education and dissemination

YEMEN

- To the United Arab Emirates: A/HRC/10/75

- To enact national legislation to protect the rights of children

- To Israel: A/HRC/10/76

- To put an end to all forms of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, give families the right to visit detainees in places of detention wherever they are
- To end the occupation of all Palestinian and Arab territories occupied, including Jerusalem
- To free all Palestinians, Syrian and Arab detainees, including women, children and journalists, and allow international organizations, including ICRC, to visit these detainees and examine their situation in all Israeli prisons to ensure that detention conditions conform to minimum standards
- To open crossing points

ZAMBIA

- To Tuvalu: A/HRC/10/84

- To call on the international community to offer very much needed technical assistance to Tuvalu as stipulated and outlined in paragraph 77 of the national report and to address the call by Tuvalu for technical assistance in the establishment of a human rights institution