

1. Operationalization and budgeting of National Plans in the field of HIV/AIDS and Reproductive Health, including enhanced access to testing and prevention for key populations and increased access to Education for Health in schools, under the coordination and monitoring of a national intersectoral and interministerial mechanism.

RIGHT TO HEALTH: Recommendations 114.133 (Australia), 114.134 (Israel), 114.135 (Germany)

3. Implementing decisions issued in 2018 by the European Court of Justice and the Constitutional Court recognising the family rights of same sex couples on the territory of Romania.

EQUALITY&NON-DISCRIMINATION:Recommendations 114.66 (Ireland), 114.67 (Sweden)

Increasing the capacity of the law enforcement authorities to effectively combat hate crimes by creating a centralized recording system and common methodology for the proper investigation and prosecution of hate crimes, systematic trainings for the Police and prosecutors focused on identifying and handling hate crimes, and enhanced cooperation between police and vulnerable groups, especially Roma and LGBTI communities

EQUALITY&NON-DISCRIMINATION: Recommendations 114.73 (Belgium), 114.63 (Spain), 114.64 (Canada), 114.68 (Austria), 114.52 (Argentina)

Adopt and implement the WHO standards of depathologization of gender identity (ICD 11), and ensure that essential trans-specific healthcare services and essential hormones that are part of the WHO essential medicine list are available free of charge for transgender persons as part of National Health Insurance schemes.

RIGHT TO HEALTH