

2RP: Responses to Recommendations & Voluntary Pledges

CROATIA

Second Review Session 22

Review in the Working Group: 4 May 2015
Adoption in the Plenary: 25 September 2015

Croatia's responses to recommendations (as of 13.10.2015):

In the Report of the Working Group:	In the Addendum:	During the plenary:	Summary:
No responses, all pending	Out of the 167 pending recommendations, 156 are accepted, 6 partially accepted (99.9, 99.10, 99.23, 99.33, 99.34, 99.44 -> noted) and 5 are not accepted (99.14-99.16, 99.41, 99.111 -> noted)	The delegation explained that the 6 recs partially accepted are now fully accepted.	Accepted: 162 Noted: 5 Total: 167

Paragraph headers are as in the Report of the Working Group, but the nature of responses to recommendations may have subsequently been changed.

List of recommendations contained in Section II of the Report of the Working Group A/HRC/30/14:

99. The following recommendations will be examined by Croatia, which will provide responses in due time, but no later than the thirtieth session of the Human Rights Council, in September-October 2015:

A - 99.1 Join more human rights treaties and optional protocols (Israel);

A - 99.2 Consider ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance and recognize the competence of its Committee (Uruguay);

Promoting and strengthening
the Universal Periodic Review
<http://www.upr-info.org>

A - 99.3 Ratify the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Argentina) (France) (Costa Rica) (Portugal);

A - 99.4 Ratify without delay the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Bosnia and Herzegovina);

A - 99.5 Accelerate efforts to ratify the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Rwanda);

A - 99.6 Accelerate the progress to ratify the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Iraq);

A - 99.7 Proceed to ratify the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Serbia);

A - 99.8 Intensify efforts to ratify the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Sierra Leone);

A - 99.9 Ratify the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (Portugal) (Greece);

A - 99.10 Sign and ratify the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (France);

A - 99.11 Consider ratifying the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (Namibia);

A - 99.12 Ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on a communications procedure (Morocco) (Portugal) (Benin);

A - 99.13 Speed up the process of the ratification of the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on a communications procedure (Slovakia);

N - 99.14 Ratify the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Kyrgyzstan); accede to the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Sierra Leone);

N - 99.15 Consider ratifying the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Rwanda) (Philippines) (Nicaragua);

N - 99.16 Consider ratifying the Domestic Workers Convention, 2011 (No. 189), of the International Labour Organization (Nicaragua) (Philippines);

A - 99.17 Sign and ratify relevant international instruments relating to refugees and asylum seekers (Benin);

A - 99.18 Ratify the Council of Europe Convention on Prevention and Combating Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (Netherlands) (Austria); accede to the Council of Europe Convention on Preventing and Combating Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (Turkey)

A - 99.19 Ensure rapid ratification of the Council of Europe Convention on Prevention and Combating Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (Italy);

Promoting and strengthening
the Universal Periodic Review
<http://www.upr-info.org>

A - 99.20 Strengthen its efforts to properly respond to allegations of domestic violence, including by training police officers, prosecutors and judges, and to ensure that women victims of violence obtain adequate redress and support (Austria);

A - 99.21 Approve the budgetary funds needed to assume the obligations under the Council of Europe Convention on Prevention and Combating Violence against Women and Domestic Violence, and therefore proceed to its ratification (Spain);

A - 99.22 Take concrete measures to fight all forms of violence against women, including by ratifying the Council of Europe Convention on Prevention and Combating Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (Germany);

A - 99.23 Recognize the competence of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination in pursuance to article 14 of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (Algeria);

A - 99.24 Continue to strengthen its human rights framework, including through giving full implementation to existing institutional and legal protections (Australia);

A - 99.25 Review compliance of the Criminal Code, which now defines domestic violence only as a bodily injury, with the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women and as elaborated on in general recommendation No. 19 of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women (Czech Republic);

A - 99.26 Strengthen the legislation suppressing advocating crimes against humanity and ensure the training of judges on its application, as well as the issues of civic education in public schools (France);

A - 99.27 Strengthen the legal framework in order to reduce the adverse effects affecting victims of domestic violence, in particular women (Angola);

A - 99.28 Address the legislative gap that relates to domestic violence offences and update the Criminal Code to recognize domestic violence as a criminal offence (Trinidad and Tobago);

A - 99.29 Translate the initiatives of the National Strategy for Protection against Domestic Violence 2011–2016 and the National Anti-Discrimination Plan 2008–2013 into concrete laws (Indonesia);

A - 99.30 Redouble efforts aimed at the implementation of legal provisions against domestic and gender violence, with particular attention to raising the awareness and proper training of the police (Mexico);

A - 99.31 Address remaining legislative and implementation gaps, including to fully protect and support victims (Australia);

A - 99.32 Amend the social welfare act and other laws which deny persons with disabilities their right to work or which allow their placement in institutions without their consent (Mexico);

A - 99.33 Decriminalize defamation (Estonia);

A - 99.34 Review the legislation on defamation and strengthen the training for judges on the implementation of freedom of expression (France);

Promoting and strengthening
the Universal Periodic Review
<http://www.upr-info.org>

A - 99.35 Consider reviewing its Aliens Act in favour of temporary residents on humanitarian grounds (Nigeria);

A - 99.36 Intensify efforts at improving and strengthening its human rights institutions (Nigeria);

A - 99.37 Increase the human and financial resources made available to the office of the ombudsperson to enable it to fulfil its expanded mandate (Sierra Leone);

A - 99.38 Allocate the necessary resources to ensure the effective operation of the office of the ombudsman (Timor-Leste);

A - 99.39 Even if only in a modest and gradual way, increase the personnel and financial allocations to the ombudsman in order to ensure that the stronger legal position of the office is also reflected in its human and financial capacities (Hungary);

A - 99.40 Explore ways of providing the necessary resources to ensure the independent and effective operation of the ombudsman's office (Ukraine);

N - 99.41 Consider establishing an interministerial committee responsible for the implementation of its international human rights obligations, inter alia, for coordinating the drafting of national reports to the treaty bodies (Portugal);

A - 99.42 Finalize the draft strategy and action plan to combat corruption and effectively prosecute the perpetrators of corruption acts (Turkey);

A - 99.43 Implement and apply human rights legislation in practice as well as implement the ombudsman's recommendations (Slovenia);

A - 99.44 Consider developing human rights indicators, as suggested by OHCHR, as an instrument that allows for a more precise and coherent evaluation of national human rights policies (Portugal);

A - 99.45 Continue implementing its various national programmes and policies, in particular the National Programme for the Protection and Promotion of Human Rights 2013–2016 and the action plan for removing barriers to achieving equal rights in the area of integration 2013–2015 (Indonesia);

A - 99.46 Ensure the effective implementation of the new National Strategy for the Rights of Children 2014–2020 (State of Palestine);

A - 99.47 Accelerate the effective implementation of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and its harmonization at the national level (Uruguay);

A - 99.48 Intensify awareness-raising campaigns and education programmes on human rights in order to prevent ill-treatment of boys and girls (Uruguay);

A - 99.49 Take all necessary measures to deter perpetrators and to develop programmes and policies in order to prevent sexual exploitation as well as programmes to socially reintegrate child victims (Timor-Leste);

A - 99.50 Develop a policy, strategy and action plan to address the reportedly widespread violence against women (Sierra Leone);

A - 99.51 Effectively implement the National Strategy of Protection against Family Violence 2011–2016 (Republic of Korea);

A - 99.52 Intensify its efforts to ensure effective law enforcement for domestic violence against children and women, to bridge the gap between legislation and practice, along with enhancing awareness of victims' rights and training for public officers and legal professions (Thailand);

A - 99.53 Step up efforts to effectively implement national strategies for gender equality (Morocco);

A - 99.54 Continue efforts to generate greater inter-institutional coordination and availability of resources for the agencies responsible for the welfare of minors, both girls and boys (Chile);

A - 99.55 Strengthen the national plan for combating discrimination through the incorporation of indicators and monitoring measures, through determination of the authorities responsible for its implementation and through a time frame for achievement of the goals (Mexico);

A - 99.56 Promote inter-ethnic tolerance through adequate measures, including awareness-raising campaigns in the media in close cooperation with civil society and minority associations (Serbia);

A - 99.57 Undertake awareness campaigns directed towards the judiciary with a view to promoting non-discrimination (Norway);

A - 99.58 Dedicate additional resources to enhance the capacity of centres for victims of sexual and domestic violence (Norway);

A - 99.59 Continue with its efforts in further increasing the awareness of gender equality and equal opportunities and foster implementation of its national policies in this regard (the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia);

A - 99.60 Continue strengthening the programmes developed for the promotion of employment, right to food and social assistance for national minorities and other vulnerable sectors of the population (Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela);

A - 99.61 Establish a sustainable cooperation between the Ministry of Interior and civil society organizations dealing with domestic and gender-based violence (Poland);

A - 99.62 Continue the implementation of the plan on the deinstitutionalization and transformation of social welfare homes and on legal persons performing social welfare activities for 2011–2016, with a view to reducing the number of children in institutions (Slovakia);

A - 99.63 Consider allocating necessary resources to support programmes which promote and protect the rights of persons with disabilities (Thailand);

A - 99.64 Include civil society organizations in the process before finalizing and submitting the national report (Norway);

A - 99.65 Submit its overdue reports to the human rights monitoring bodies (Portugal);

A - 99.66 Submit its second periodic national report to the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, which has been due since 2006 (Republic of Korea);

A - 99.67 Strengthen efforts towards promotion of gender equality (Cyprus);

A - 99.68 Take further steps to ensure and enhance women's rights on all levels (Greece);

Promoting and strengthening
the Universal Periodic Review
<http://www.upr-info.org>

A - 99.69 Enhance efforts to fight all forms of discrimination against women and gender-based violence (Italy);

A - 99.70 Fully ensure gender equality in employment and in political posts (Russian Federation);

A - 99.71 Adopt specific legislation pertaining to gender discrimination in the labour market, including sexual harassment in the workplace and discrimination on the grounds of pregnancy and/or maternity (Trinidad and Tobago);

A - 99.72 Ensure the elimination of any form of discrimination against children, especially children in marginalized and disadvantaged situations (Turkey);

A - 99.73 Eliminate discrimination in employment, particularly for women and members of the Roma population, pursuant to recommendations of the International Labour Organization supervisory bodies; (United States of America);

A - 99.74 Strengthen non-discrimination against women, particularly in the workplace (Algeria);

A - 99.75 Intensify efforts to detect, prevent and combat trafficking in children for sexual and other types of exploitation (Uruguay);

A - 99.76 Step up the fight against racism, xenophobia and hate speech and adopt measures to promote poverty reduction, social inclusion and social assistance (Angola);

A - 99.77 Strengthen human rights protections for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender persons, in line with Croatia's international obligations and commitments as well as with domestic legislation (United States of America);

A - 99.78 Continue to further improve conditions for juveniles in pretrial detention facilities (Georgia);

A - 99.79 Continue its efforts to reduce overcrowding in prisons and improve detention conditions, including by promoting diversion and other alternatives to detention where possible (Austria);

A - 99.80 Step up efforts to combat the overcrowding of prisons, and in particular provide more correctional detention facilities for female prisoners (Republic of Korea);

A - 99.81 Implement programmes and policies for the prevention of all forms of violence against children, including sexual exploitation and abuse, and to strengthen social recovery and reintegration of child victims (Republic of Moldova);

A - 99.82 Continue ensuring effective implementation of its domestic laws on the protection of the family and prevention of violence against women and children (Israel);

A - 99.83 Reinforce its efforts to protect children, especially those in marginalized and disadvantaged situations (Maldives);

A - 99.84 Redouble efforts in combating domestic violence and violence against women, including through ensuring effective implementation of the National Strategy of Protection against Family Violence 2011–2016 (Malaysia);

A - 99.85 Further strengthen measures to prevent and punish trafficking in persons, especially women and children, with the prosecution of offenders and rehabilitation of victims (Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela);

Promoting and strengthening
the Universal Periodic Review
<http://www.upr-info.org>

A - 99.86 Implement the Human Rights Committee's March 2015 recommendations on gender-based violence (Bulgaria);

A - 99.87 Work towards the compliance of pretrial detention (remand) procedures, which includes children, with international law standards and national regulations (Libya);

A - 99.88 Investigate and prosecute all cases of arbitrary detention in psychiatric hospitals and social care institutions, in line with the recommendation made by the Special Rapporteur on violence against women (Germany);

A - 99.89 Increase the number of investigations, intensify the investigative work and improve the efficiency of judicial procedures before national courts in the case of crimes committed during the war of the 1990s and strengthen efforts to determine the fate of all missing persons in Croatia (Switzerland);

A - 99.90 Investigate all unresolved cases of missing persons and bring perpetrators to justice (Estonia);

A - 99.91 Enhance training methods for collecting evidence against suspected human traffickers to increase successful prosecutions, and ensure convicted trafficking offenders are punished with sentences commensurate with the gravity of the crime (United States of America);

A - 99.92 Take urgent steps to ensure that women victims of wartime violence have access to justice and reparation, including adequate psychosocial and economic support, as well as access to health-care services (Ireland);

A - 99.93 Improve services and support for women victims of domestic violence by conducting effective investigations, vigorously prosecuting the perpetrators, ending the practice of prosecuting victims and ensuring victims have access to protection and shelters (Canada);

A - 99.94 Tackle the subject of torture in a comprehensive way, including by fighting impunity and providing for compensation of victims (Costa Rica);

A - 99.95 Prosecute all cases of human rights violations, war crimes and crimes against humanity in a non-discriminatory and impartial manner, consistent with the requirements under the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (Serbia);

A - 99.96 Continue working particularly with regard to protecting the rights of victims of sexual violence and domestic violence, in particular through training of health, police and judicial personnel (Uruguay);

A - 99.97 Further step up its efforts to investigate and prosecute effectively war crimes and strengthen the capacity of domestic courts and witness protection mechanisms in this regards (Czech Republic);

A - 99.98 Enhance the capacity of domestic courts and witness protection mechanisms so as to improve the efficiency in domestic war crimes prosecutions (Austria);

A - 99.99 Increase the administrative capacity of courts to a sufficient level, to provide adequate support and protection to witnesses, to accelerate the investigation and prosecution of war crimes and to take the necessary steps to excavate all known mass/common graves and to identify all the remains (Netherlands);

A - 99.100 Continue and deepen the measures necessary for the investigation and punishment in the courts of persons suspected of participation in war crimes and crimes against humanity (Argentina);

A - 99.101 Demonstrate a clear track record of war crime cases which shows standardized sentencing through a fair and non-discriminatory process (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland);

A - 99.102 Ensure accountability for all manifestations of ethnicity-based hate speech, racism and extremist rhetoric in the public sphere (Serbia);

A - 99.103 Ensure efficient, non-discriminatory investigations and timely prosecutions as part of the enforcement of hate crime legislation (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland);

A - 99.104 Give impetus to accelerate the regional process on the question of the thousands of persons who are still missing, which is vital for the rule of law as well as for regional reconciliation (France);

A - 99.105 Continue the actions undertaken in the criminal processing of war crimes (France);

A - 99.106 Continue ensuring the prosecution of cases of hate crimes (Israel);

A - 99.107 Take effective measures to investigate and prosecute war crimes, including rape and other sexual abuse, and ensure that war crimes trials are carried out expeditiously and fairly by an independent and impartial tribunal (Canada);

A - 99.108 Step up its efforts to curb domestic violence (Philippines);

A - 99.109 Promote policies and educational campaigns for the promotion and protection of the rights of women, and ensure that all allegations of violence against women are promptly, thoroughly and effectively investigated, that perpetrators are held accountable and that women victims of violence obtain adequate redress, including compensation and rehabilitation (Brazil);

A - 99.110 Continue to provide adequate funding to its anti-human trafficking programmes and free legal aid system (Philippines);

N - 99.111 Strengthen the accountability and prosecution of law enforcement officers who commit abuses against lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender persons and ethnic minorities (Chile);

A - 99.112 Continue to realize the right to work for its citizens, including through providing opportunities for vocational training and technical education for young people (Egypt);

A - 99.113 Continue working for a reduction in female unemployment and the elimination of discrimination against women in the labour market and for achieving equality of opportunities (Cuba);

A - 99.114 Strengthen efforts on the empowerment of women by implementing programmes aimed at changing society's perception of women and removing barriers affecting the employment of women (Malaysia);

A - 99.115 Continue the effective implementation of the action plan on employment for minority groups to achieve the set targets (China);

Promoting and strengthening
the Universal Periodic Review
<http://www.upr-info.org>

A - 99.116 Continue its efforts to reach the threshold of 5.5 per cent share of minorities in the total number of employees, in line with the Action Plan for the Employment of National Minorities in Public Administration Bodies 2011– 2014, in particular in those regions where minorities have significant presence (Hungary);

A - 99.117 Take measures to safeguard the right to an adequate standard of living, including by expediting the return of Croatian Serbs to their homes and by upholding commitments under the regional housing programme (Canada);

A - 99.118 Continue ensuring the full realization of the right to safe drinking water and sanitation for all (Egypt);

A - 99.119 Strengthen the welfare system, particularly related to the protection of children without appropriate care and their access to education (Slovenia);

A - 99.120 Realize the right to adequate housing by ensuring the right of post- war returnees to recover privately owned housing, regardless of their ethnic background, and by improving housing conditions in returnee communities (Germany);

A - 99.121 Take further measures with a view to ensure that all children enjoy equal access to health services (Ukraine);

A - 99.122 Take steps to ensure adequate support and access to health-care facilities for those in rural areas (Maldives);

A - 99.123 Work towards more balanced geographical coverage of health-care services with specific focus on rural areas (Egypt);

A - 99.124 Adopt clear, appropriate measures to improve the rights of children to education (Libya);

A - 99.125 Establish State-wide inclusive education, including through the allocation of necessary resources, and provide regular training for school personnel (State of Palestine);

A - 99.126 Ensure that children in vulnerable and disadvantaged situations have equal access to education (Armenia);

A - 99.127 Continue its efforts aimed at ensuring equal access to education, including to children in vulnerable and disadvantaged situations (Romania);

A - 99.128 Increase its efforts to ensure that children in vulnerable situations, including Roma children, have equal access to education and to end segregation of Roma children in schools (Austria);

A - 99.129 Intensify efforts towards providing all children with equal access to education, including the Roma children (Nigeria);

A - 99.130 Consider ensuring an effective, inclusive education for children with disabilities, and to improve universal design to ensure accessibility to everyone (Israel);

A - 99.131 Elaborate integrated measures to ensure unimpeded access for persons with disabilities (Russian Federation);

A - 99.132 Take all necessary measures to lift all existing barriers in the enjoyment of the rights of persons with disabilities, with particular attention to their right to live independently, to have access to adequate health care services and to be integrated in the community (Greece);

A - 99.133 Develop further actions to improve community services and support for persons with disabilities (Cuba);

A - 99.134 Ensure that services for persons with disabilities support to the greatest extent possible their independence and that more community-based living choices are created for them in compliance with the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (Czech Republic);

A - 99.135 Take all appropriate measures to ensure the rights of people with mental or intellectual disabilities (Cyprus);

A - 99.136 Provide facilities to ensure that persons with disabilities can live independently, have access to public and private buildings and have equal opportunities to education, employment and health services, with a support structure particularly for children so challenged (Trinidad and Tobago);

A - 99.137 Refrain from institutionalizing children with disabilities, and ensure sufficient alternative family- and community-based care options for children with disabilities (Ireland);

A - 99.138 Monitor the implementation and ensure compliance with the law on vocational rehabilitation to make sure that persons with disabilities are not subject to discrimination and have equal opportunities to find employment (Sweden);

A - 99.139 Provide comprehensive care to victims of landmines and cluster munitions through its development plans and the application of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (Costa Rica);

A - 99.140 Continue to develop measures that guarantee inclusive education for children and girls with disabilities without discrimination, with particular emphasis on rural areas (Spain);

A - 99.141 Adopt further measures in order to ensure the participation of persons belonging to national minorities in the decision-making process (Romania);

A - 99.142 Take all necessary measures to provide equal access to all public services for all members of minority groups in the country (Namibia);

A - 99.143 Take effective measures to end all forms of discrimination against ethnic minorities, in particular the Serb minority and the Sinti and Roma (Germany);

A - 99.144 Continue its efforts to combat discrimination and ensure equal treatment of all ethnicities and minorities (Ukraine);

A - 99.145 Fully recognize the situation of the minority groups and take ample action in order to meet these challenges, including combating discrimination against minority groups, not least the Serb and Roma minorities (Sweden);

A - 99.146 Fully ensure linguistic, religious and other rights of minorities, in compliance with international obligations (Russian Federation);

Promoting and strengthening
the Universal Periodic Review
<http://www.upr-info.org>

A - 99.147 In light of the recommendation of the Committee on the Rights of the Child, act on combating discrimination by targeting situations of discrimination and vulnerability affecting children belonging to all minorities (Nicaragua);

A - 99.148 Continue work for improving the rights of the Roma community, in compliance with the national strategy for the inclusion of Roma and the Action Plan for the Decade of Roma Inclusion (Albania);

A - 99.149 Step up existing efforts towards the protection of the rights of minorities, especially by fighting discrimination against children of Roma descent in the field of education, and by guaranteeing the right to adequate housing of the Serbian minority (Brazil);

A - 99.150 Intensify its efforts to promote inter-ethnic harmony through education, and implement concrete measures for the integration of minorities into Croatian society (Norway);

A - 99.151 Continue efforts to facilitate the professional, social and economic inclusion of all national and ethnic and other minority groups, including the Serbian minority, represented in Croatia (Poland);

A - 99.152 Take measures aimed at increasing the representation of minority groups in the public and private spheres (Armenia);

A - 99.153 Ensure that the Serbian minority is not discriminated against in the provision of posts in the public sector and in real estate acquisitions or rental applications (Switzerland);

A - 99.154 Take further concrete and effective steps towards protection and social inclusion for all minority groups (Australia);

A - 99.155 Enhance efforts to fight discriminatory attitudes and behaviours against all persons belonging to minority groups, including by allowing the use of one's own language at school and in interaction with the public administration (Italy);

A - 99.156 Fully implement the Constitutional Act on the Rights of National Minorities and take action to implement Constitutional Court decisions regarding the Act on Usage of Languages and Scripts of National Minorities (Canada);

A - 99.157 Provide full respect of minority rights guaranteed by positive legislation, including the right to use minority languages and scripts, specifically the Cyrillic script (Serbia);

A - 99.158 Continue to implement the State policy on immigration, and constantly adjust and improve the policies and measures according to the new situations of the protection of the rights of migrants (China);

A - 99.159 Review its asylum procedures to increase the efficiency of the asylum granting processes and ensure the protection of unaccompanied migrant children (Sweden);

A - 99.160 Further sensitize the Croatian public to the asylum question, in order to facilitate the integration of asylum seekers (Sweden);

A - 99.161 Continue its efforts to meet the benchmarks of the action plan regarding the building of the housing units for the returnees (Albania);

Promoting and strengthening
the Universal Periodic Review
<http://www.upr-info.org>

A - 99.162 Adopt measures that guarantee access to rights for all people returning to the country irrespective of the cessation of the condition of refugees (Argentina);

A - 99.163 Continue to implement the obligations deriving from the Sarajevo Declaration vis-à-vis the successful integration of refugees and to further accelerate the implementation of the existing national housing care programme (Bosnia and Herzegovina);

A - 99.164 Give more priority to returnee communities for economic development initiatives, so that returnees are given easier access to social welfare systems and to take effective measures to recognize their years of work and their right to a pension (Bosnia and Herzegovina);

A - 99.165 Ensure for asylum-seeking children effective and non-discriminatory access to education (Kyrgyzstan);

A - 99.166 Protect the rights of minorities, in particular by providing access to basic services for the Roma minority, including the ability for stateless Roma to obtain Croatian nationality, in accordance with its human rights obligations (Switzerland);

A - 99.167 Continue ongoing efforts, both nationally and in its bilateral dialogue with Serbia, to ensure the return of refugees and displaced Croatians of Serbian origin to their homes and the recovery of all their rights, especially with regard to their property, pensions and social rights, thereby ensuring a comprehensive solution to a problem that affects both Croatians of Serbian origin and Serbs of Croatian origin (Spain).

Disclaimer: This classification was made by UPR Info based on United Nations documents and webcast. For more information about this document, consult the "Methodology" on our website: www.upr-info.org. For questions, comments and/or corrections, please write to info@upr-info.org