

JOINT STAKEHOLDERS' REPORT

ON ISSUES RELATING TO THE REVISION OF PENAL CODE
AND SITUATION OF TORTURE IN INDONESIA

TO THE UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL
ON THE UNIVERSAL PERIODIC REVIEW (UPR) OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA
27TH SESSION (APRIL-MAY 2017)

SUBMITTED BY:

Institute for Criminal Justice Reform (ICJR),
Institute for Policy Research and Advocacy (ELSAM), and National Alliance on Reformation of the Penal Code

Aliansi Nasional
Reformasi KUHP

Institute for Criminal Justice Reform (ICJR), having established in 2007, commits to take the initiative to support measures in realizing the reformation of law and criminal justice system towards a democratic direction. ICJR is formed with an exclusive mission to support collective actions in honoring the Rule of Law and realizing criminal justice system with strong human rights protection character. Website: <http://icjr.or.id/>

Institute for Policy Research and Advocacy (ELSAM), established in August 1993 in Jakarta, is a policy advocacy organisation with limited association as its legal entity. To actively participate in the efforts to develop, promote and protect civil and political rights and other human rights, as mandated by the 1945 Constitution and Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), has become ELSAM's driving objective. Website: <http://elsam.or.id/>

National Alliance on Reformation of the Penal Code (Aliansi Nasional Reformasi KUHP) focuses on advocacy of reforming the penal code, specially Draft Bill of Penal Code (RKUHP). In the work of advocacy, the Alliance has two main objectives, which are, (i) to promote the formulation of criminal provision that incorporate human rights perspectives, and (ii) to promote greater public participation in the process of deliberation and formulation of Draft Bill of Penal Code. Website: <http://refomasikuhp.org/>

Jakarta, Indonesia
September 2016