The Ateneo Human Rights Center (AHRC) was established in 1986 as the first human rights institution engaged in the promotion and protection of human rights. Today, it pursues various advocacies and is engaged in uplifting the plight of marginalized groups (i.e. women, children, indigenous peoples, and migrants) in the country through programs focused on training and education, research, law and policy reform, and public interest litigation. AHRC is instrumental in the development of the various human rights courses in the Ateneo Law School, which has the most extensive international human rights law curriculum in the Philippines. AHRC is also the secretariat of the Working Group for an ASEAN Human Rights Mechanism.
