SUBMITTED BY:

National Council of Churches in the Philippines (NCCP)

The National Council of Churches in the Philippines is a council of ten mainline protestant and non-Roman Catholic churches and nine service-oriented organizations in the Philippines. The NCCP was founded in 1964 and has had a continuing engagement in the defense of human rights, both as a council and through the work of our member churches.

We have previously and currently conduct programs around human rights advocacy, training of human rights defenders and the provision of direct support services to victims of human rights violations and their families.
