

2RP: Responses to Recommendations & Voluntary Pledges

SWEDEN

Second Review Session 21

Review in the Working Group: 26 January 2015

Adoption in the Plenary: 26 June 2015

Sweden's responses to recommendations (as of 17.08.2015):

In the Report of the Working Group:	In the Addendum:	During the plenary:	Summary:
138 recs accepted, 26 noted and 44 left pending	Out of the 44 recs left pending, 16 were accepted and 28 not accepted (-> noted)	No additional information provided	Accepted: 154 Noted: 54 Total: 208

Paragraph headers are as in the Report of the Working Group, but the nature of responses to recommendations may have subsequently been changed.

List of recommendations contained in Section II of the Report of the Working Group A/HRC/29/13:

145. The recommendations formulated during the interactive dialogue and listed below have been examined by Sweden and enjoy the support of Sweden:

A - 145.1. Consider ratification of the third protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child, thereby establishing a procedure for the presentation of communications (Belgium);

A - 145.2. Consider ratification of the ILO convention on indigenous peoples (Uzbekistan); consider ratifying ILO Convention No. 169 (Guatemala); consider ratifying ILO Convention No. 169 (Nicaragua);

A - 145.3. Consider ratifying ILO Convention No. 169 (Brazil);

A - 145.4. Consider ratifying other international human rights conventions, including ILO Convention No. 189 (Philippines); consider ratification of ILO convention on decent work for domestic workers (Uzbekistan);

A - 145.5. Initiate the process to incorporate the Convention on the Rights of the Child into national legislation and continue the formulation of a third plan of action for human rights (Albania);

A - 145.6. Adopt measures to incorporate the Convention on the Rights of the Child into national legislation (Angola);

A - 145.7. Take measures to ensure the full incorporation of the provisions of the Convention on the Rights of the Child in Swedish legislation (France);

A - 145.8. Take measures to incorporate the provisions of the Convention on the Rights of the Child into Swedish law (Qatar);

A - 145.9. Work effectively on incorporating the the Convention on the Rights of the Child into Swedish laws (Iceland);

A - 145.10. Consider establishing an independent national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles (Namibia);

A - 145.11. Consider establishing a national human rights institution in full compliance with the Paris Principles (Ukraine);

A - 145.12. Consider creating a national human rights institution in compliance with the Paris Principles (France);

A - 145.13. Consider establishing a national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles, as previously recommended (Indonesia);

A - 145.14. Consider establishing a national human rights institution, in conformity with the Paris Principles, with a broad mandate, as soon as possible (Ireland);

A - 145.15. Consider heeding the call of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination for the establishment of a national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles (South Africa);

A - 145.16. Continue consultations initiated for the creation of a national human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles (Togo);

A - 145.17. Consider developing Human Rights Indicators as an instrument that allows for a more precise and coherent evaluation of national human rights policies (Portugal);

A - 145.18. Consider developing a third action plan on human rights and continue sharing its experience with regard to systematic human rights implementation (Republic of Moldova);

A - 145.19. Continue its efforts to raise public awareness and to include human rights education in the school curricula (Sudan);

A - 145.20. Give due attention to the issue of human rights education in the current work on the third action plan on human rights by, inter alia, compiling a report on the situation regarding human rights education in Sweden (Finland);

A - 145.21. Continue to consult, and expand its dialogue with, civil society organizations working in the area of human rights protection, particularly in combating racial discrimination (Timor-Leste);

A - 145.22. Consider establishing an interministerial committee responsible for the implementation of its international human rights obligations (Portugal);

A - 145.23. Continue to play an active role in international forums to fight racism and paedophilia (Lebanon);

A - 145.24. Consider the introduction of a complaint mechanism for children at the domestic level, as well as signature and ratification of the third Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on a communications procedure (Ireland);

A - 145.25. Look into the possibility of prioritizing the rights of the child directly, as a stand-alone issue, not just as a horizontal consideration in its human rights policies (Hungary);

A - 145.26. Take appropriate measures to implement the recommendations of the Committee on the Rights of the Child, including through education and awareness-raising campaigns (Italy);

A - 145.27. Enhance efforts — including within the “Strategy to Strengthen the Rights of the Child in Sweden” — to prevent and eliminate discrimination against children belonging to ethnic minorities, child members of immigrant families and child refugees and asylum seekers (Croatia);

A - 145.28. Explore ways and means of strengthening the ongoing efforts to combat all forms of discrimination to improve the scope of protection against discrimination at all levels in society (Sri Lanka);

A - 145.29. Fight against discrimination in society more effectively (Angola);

A - 145.30. Strengthen measures to combat all forms of discrimination (Gabon);

A - 145.31. Consolidate laws and regulations to fight all forms of discrimination, racism and xenophobia (Lebanon);

A - 145.32. Be proactive in its measures to prevent discrimination against immigrant, refugee and minority women who continue to suffer from multiple forms of discrimination, and to combat violence against them (Bosnia and Herzegovina);

A - 145.33. Consider the establishment of quotas to ensure a gender-balanced representation in business administrative councils (France);

A - 145.34. Take concrete action to reduce the gender gap in decision-making positions and ensure equal remuneration for men and women for work of equal value (Sri Lanka);

A - 145.35. Continue to take measures to narrow the gender wage gap and enhance the equal opportunities of work between men and women (State of Palestine);

A - 145.36. Continue taking efficient measures with a view to eliminating differences in salaries and other terms of employment between men and women who perform work that is regarded as equal or equivalent (Croatia);

A - 145.37. Take concrete actions to end the increasing gender gap in the area of employment and pay, thus ensuring equal remuneration for men and women (South Africa);

A - 145.38. Continue efforts to further reduce the pay gap between women and men (Albania);

- A - 145.39. Take the necessary measures to reduce the gender wage gap (Algeria);
- A - 145.40. Ensure equal treatment of all workers carrying out the same tasks (Senegal);
- A - 145.41. Continue consolidating the Equality Ombudsman's mandate in combating discrimination (Romania);
- A - 145.42. Adopt special measures to promote equal opportunities, address structural discrimination and enhance strategies against inequality and discrimination faced by migrants, foreign-born citizens, indigenous peoples as well as minority groups, including Afro-Swedes and Muslims (South Africa);
- A - 145.43. Take further measures to prevent discrimination on the basis of ethnicity (Bosnia and Herzegovina);
- A - 145.44. Pursue strategies and policies to prevent discrimination, in all spheres of public life, against its indigenous people and other minority groups such as Afro-Swedes and Muslims (Trinidad and Tobago);
- A - 145.45. Further enhance efforts to combat discrimination, including racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerances (Namibia);
- A - 145.46. Continue strengthening efforts to combat racism, intolerance and hate crimes (Iceland);
- A - 145.47. Continue strengthening efforts to combat racism, xenophobia and religious intolerance in law and practice (Indonesia);
- A - 145.48. Continue efforts to combat discrimination and promote greater social integration of immigrants, and indigenous and minority groups (Costa Rica);
- A - 145.49. Promote equal opportunities and enhance strategies against discrimination faced by immigrants and minority groups, both ethnic and religious (Poland);
- A - 145.50. Continue taking the necessary measures to strengthen the efforts aiming to combat discrimination and hatred of foreigners (State of Palestine);
- A - 145.51. Take immediate steps to adopt and implement policies and measures to combat racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia, Islamophobia and related intolerances (Pakistan);
- A - 145.52. Redouble its efforts to eliminate any remaining forms of discrimination and xenophobia (Sudan);
- A - 145.53. Continue ensuring the implementation of measures in order to fully eliminate discrimination, racism and xenophobia against minorities, refugees, asylum seekers and migrants (Macedonia);
- A - 145.54. Take more effective measures to combat contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance against minority groups in the country, in particular prejudice against Muslims (Malaysia);
- A - 145.55. Apply stronger measures to combat discrimination, xenophobia and incitement to hatred (Cuba);

- A - 145.56. Take legislative and other measures to address discrimination, racial hatred and incitement, and investigate reported cases (Botswana);
- A - 145.57. Further progress on measures to prevent and punish all forms of racial discrimination (Chile);
- A - 145.58. Strengthen efforts to prevent, investigate effectively, prosecute and punish all hate crimes, as well as acts of racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance (Brazil);
- A - 145.59. Intensify efforts to prosecute cases of hate crimes, either on the basis of race or religious belief (Sierra Leone);
- A - 145.60. Effectively investigate, prosecute and punish all hate crimes and take effective measures to combat hate speech in the media and on the internet, including by prosecuting the perpetrators regardless of their official status (Turkey);
- A - 145.61. Investigate, prosecute and punish all hate crimes against visible minorities, including Muslims, Afro-Swedes, Roma and Jews (Azerbaijan);
- A - 145.62. Take further measures to boost children's, adolescents' and young people's knowledge of the issue of xenophobia and similar forms of intolerance (Qatar);
- A - 145.63. Promote tolerance and further protect minorities and vulnerable groups (Senegal);
- A - 145.64. Take additional measures to promote tolerance and respect for diversity (Botswana);
- A - 145.65. Continue efforts to promote respect of cultural, religious and linguistic diversity (Morocco);
- A - 145.66. Take the necessary measures to promote tolerance, intercultural dialogue and respect for diversity (Montenegro);
- A - 145.67. Take all appropriate measures to promote tolerance, intercultural dialogue and respect for diversity (Azerbaijan);
- A - 145.68. Enhance measures to promote tolerance, intercultural dialogue and respect for diversity (Slovenia);
- A - 145.69. Strengthen the necessary measures to enhance tolerance and dialogue among civilizations (Kuwait);
- A - 145.70. Strengthen measures to promote tolerance and dialogue between civilizations and take categorical measures to fight hate speech and to penalize the perpetrators of such speech (Libya);
- A - 145.71. Do everything in its power to continue to live up to its well-deserved reputation, particularly by working actively to combat xenophobic, racist, anti-Semitic and Islamophobic acts which are tending to increase in the country (Comoros);
- A - 145.72. Continue its meritorious efforts to prosecute violent hate crimes, including racist and xenophobic crimes (Ghana);
- A - 145.73. Step up measures to combat discriminatory acts and hate speech against certain minority groups, emphasizing prevention and follow-up (Côte d'Ivoire);

A - 145.74. Take additional steps, beyond the adoption of legislation, to prevent racially motivated hate speech, hate crimes and discrimination (Austria);

A - 145.75. Enhance efforts to curb hate crimes against certain religious communities, ethnic groups and other minorities, including indigenous people (India);

A - 145.76. Combat hate speech, in particular in the media and on the internet, and punish perpetrators (Bahrain);

A - 145.77. Take effective measures to combat hate speech in the media and on the internet, including by prosecuting the perpetrators, where appropriate, regardless of their official status (Azerbaijan);

A - 145.78. Take additional crucial measures to fight hate speech and prosecute and punish perpetrators of hate crimes (Kuwait);

A - 145.79. Take measures to improve the follow-up to complaints of hate crimes (France);

A - 145.80. Take effective measures to combat hate speech on racial and religious grounds in the media and on the internet, and to bring to justice the perpetrators of hate speech (Uzbekistan);

A - 145.81. Take necessary legislative, political and awareness-raising measures to fight effectively against hate speech and crimes committed on the grounds of religious hatred, in particular Islamophobia (Algeria);

A - 145.82. Take all necessary measures to ensure greater effectiveness of legislation on hate crimes (Iran (Islamic Republic of));

A - 145.83. Take steps for eliminating religious and racial discrimination (Pakistan);

A - 145.84. Step up efforts to effectively deal with discrimination, violence and hate speech against migrants (China);

A - 145.85. Adopt vigorous measures to combat all forms of discrimination against persons with an immigrant background (Iran (Islamic Republic of));

A - 145.86. More actively confront the crimes against national minorities (Cuba);

A - 145.87. Take measures to improve enforcement of existing laws prohibiting discrimination, including against the Roma (Canada);

A - 145.88. Continue to fight against racism and acts of violence and discrimination against persons of African descent (Algeria);

A - 145.89. Take steps to prevent and respond to incidents of violence and intimidation against members of minority religious groups, including through education and awareness campaigns and effective interventions by law enforcement officials (Canada);

A - 145.90. Enhance measures to reduce societal discrimination and incidents of violence against members of ethnic and religious minorities (United States of America);

A - 145.91. Take concrete measures to end harassment, verbal threats, sabotage, arson attacks and vandalism faced by the Muslim population and provide access to justice to Roma people and Afro-Swedes and ensure their social inclusion (Pakistan);

A - 145.92. Guarantee effective protection, in law and practice, of the rights of national and religious minorities, firstly Muslims, Jews as well as the Sami (Russian Federation);

A - 145.93. Consider additional measures for improving the socioeconomic conditions of the Swedish Roma population (Serbia);

A - 145.94. Further develop policies and measures to promote the rights of the national minorities (Armenia);

A - 145.95. Take measures to improve the situation of persons belonging to the Roma and other minorities (Iran (Islamic Republic of));

A - 145.96. Take appropriate measures to support the cultures of persons belonging to national minorities (Iran (Islamic Republic of));

A - 145.97. Remain proactive in combating discrimination against Sami and Roma and in protecting their economic, social and cultural rights, in consultation with the communities concerned (Netherlands);

A - 145.98. Continue the implementation of policies pertaining to national minorities such as the Sami and the Roma with a view to improving their living conditions (Lebanon);

A - 145.99. Continue to give due attention to the situation of minorities, in particular to the situations regarding discrimination based on multiple grounds. Sweden should continue to take necessary measures to ensure full and effective implementation of its legislation on national minorities (Finland);

A - 145.100. Consider ways to ensure the meaningful involvement of the Roma community in the implementation of the strategy and to focus more on efforts to change negative attitudes in Swedish society towards the Roma (Hungary);

A - 145.101. Undertake a deeper dialogue with representatives of the Sami Parliament and increase efforts to give additional responsibilities to this Parliament to strengthen the self-determination of the Sami people (Albania);

A - 145.102. Continue developing measures in order to ensure that affected Sami communities can participate actively in consultations on issues related to land rights, water and resources (Austria);

A - 145.103. Continue its programmes to combat violence against women, including addressing the values and attitudes that contribute to the perpetration of violence (Philippines);

A - 145.104. Strengthen the measures to combat violence against women as well as support the victims and survivors of such violence (India);

A - 145.105. Develop programmes to raise awareness about domestic and gender violence (Mexico);

A - 145.106. Step up efforts aimed at combating trafficking in human beings (Romania);

A - 145.107. Strengthen efforts to prosecute human trafficking and increase understanding of human trafficking among the judiciary (United States of America);

- A - 145.108. Intensify action against child sex tourism (Romania);
- A - 145.109. Expedite the ongoing measures for combating child sex tourism (Sri Lanka);
- A - 145.110. Punish severely the perpetrators of paedophile tourism and sensitize the population to the negative effects of sex tourism (Senegal);
- A - 145.111. Take all necessary measures to implement the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child, particularly to combat the sale, exploitation, and prostitution of children (Bahrain);
- A - 145.112. Raise the level of public awareness in relation to child sex tourism, as recommended by the Committee on the Rights of the Child (Lithuania);
- A - 145.113. Continue its efforts to ensure that perpetrators of hate crimes are brought to justice and proper redress is given to victims, including by adopting measures to better track all reported hate crimes throughout the justice system (Canada);
- A - 145.114. Adopt the judicial and administrative measures necessary to make effective the investigations before tribunals and sanctions for declarations of incitement to racial hatred and other acts of discrimination against minorities (Argentina);
- A - 145.115. Strengthen the judicial follow-up of hate crimes and hate speech, leaving no room for impunity (Hungary);
- A - 145.116. Extend to all parts of the country the training given to the police, prosecutors and judges to effectively investigate, prosecute and punish hate crimes (Austria);
- A - 145.117. Ensure that all persons deprived of their liberty are afforded all the fundamental legal safeguards in accordance with international standards (Slovakia);
- A - 145.118. Carry out judicial procedures in accordance with the norms that protect individual rights, particularly the right to effective judicial protection and due process (Uruguay);
- A - 145.119. Provide without discrimination the proper guarantees of effective judicial protection for detainees, in accordance with the principles and international obligations (Nicaragua);
- A - 145.120. Ensure all children are guaranteed fundamental rights during the judicial process (Israel);
- A - 145.121. Take effective measures to ensure the right of a person to enjoy freedom of religion and religious belief (Trinidad and Tobago);
- A - 145.122. Continue implementing measures and funding programmes to combat anti-Semitism (Israel);
- A - 145.123. Ensure effective protection of Muslim minorities, including their places of worship (Iran (Islamic Republic of));
- A - 145.124. Take necessary measures to promote tolerance, intercultural dialogue and respect for diversity (Estonia);

A - 145.125. Raise the age of entry into marriage to 18 years in accordance with the definition of the child under the Convention on the Rights of the Child (Egypt);

A - 145.126. Continue the efforts directed towards the promotion of the right to education (Armenia);

A - 145.127. Implement the Government's disability policy 2011–2016 (Sudan);

A - 145.128. Implement speedily the Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities recommendations (India);

A - 145.129. Implement the 2014 recommendation of the Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities to ensure that all medical treatments are provided with free and informed consent and that no one is confined against his will in medical facilities on the basis of actual or perceived disability (Italy);

A - 145.130. Take further measures to improve the situation of persons with disabilities in terms of participation and accessibility (Morocco);

A - 145.131. Strengthen measures to promote access by persons with disabilities to employment in the public sector (Spain);

A - 145.132. Take action to improve opportunities for persons with disabilities to obtain gainful employment (Trinidad and Tobago);

A - 145.133. Continue efforts aimed at ensuring protection of the rights of persons with intellectual and psychological disabilities who require a high level of support, including through allocation of the necessary financial resources (Ukraine);

A - 145.134. Take appropriate steps in order to prevent, identify and address situations of risk of suicide in persons with disabilities (Azerbaijan);

A - 145.135. Ensure that, in practice, undocumented children can benefit from health care and education (Togo);

A - 145.136. Prioritize family member tracing when dealing with asylum-seeking unaccompanied children and ensure all relevant processes are in the child's best interests (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland);

A - 145.137. Continue to maintain its level, framework and channel of official development assistance (Bangladesh);

A - 145.138. Promote a holistic perspective on the rights of the child in its international development assistance policy, in line with articles 4 and 12 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child (Belgium).

146. The following recommendations will be examined by Sweden, which will provide responses in due time, but no later than the twenty-ninth session of the Human Rights Council in June 2015:

N - 146.1. Ratify as soon as possible the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (ICPPED) and incorporate it in the national legislation as well as recognizing the competence of the Committee on Enforced Disappearances (France); ratify ICPPED (Portugal); ratify ICPPED (Tunisia); proceed to ratify ICPPED, signed in 2007 (Spain); ratify ICPPED (Costa Rica); ratify ICPPED, signed in February 2007 (Uruguay); ratify ICPPED (Argentina);

N - 146.2. Ratify the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (OP-ICESCR) (Portugal); ratify OP-ICESCR (Tunisia); ratify OP-ICESCR (Spain); ratify OP-ICESCR (Pakistan);

N - 146.3. Ratify the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on a communications procedure (OP-CRC-IC) (Portugal); ratify OP-CRC-IC (Spain);

N - 146.4. Ratify the third Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on a communications procedure (Montenegro);

N - 146.5. Sign and ratify the third Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child (Germany);

N - 146.6. Ratify ILO Convention No. 169 on indigenous and tribal peoples (Denmark); Ratify ILO Convention No. 169 (Honduras);

A - 146.7. Continue to work towards ratification of ILO Convention No. 169 and thereby secure the Sami people's rights (Norway);

N - 146.8. Fully incorporate the Convention on the Rights of the Child and its optional protocols in Swedish legislation so as to end child prostitution, child pornography and trafficking of children for sexual purposes (Iran (Islamic Republic of));

N - 146.9. Incorporate the crime of torture as a specific criminal offence under the Penal Code (Spain);

N - 146.10. Define and criminalize torture in its domestic law, consistent with article 1 and article 4 of the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (Australia);

N - 146.11. Strengthen its legal framework and explicitly criminalize torture under the Penal Code in accordance with article 1 of CAT (Czech Republic);

N - 146.12. Adopt a definition of torture in line with article 1 of the Convention against Torture (Egypt);

N - 146.13. Adopt a definition of torture under Swedish law that conforms to the definition under the Convention against Torture (Ghana);

A - 146.14. Intensify efforts for the early establishment of a national independent human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles (Mexico);

A - 146.15. Accelerate the process of establishing a national human rights institution in line with the Paris Principles (Tunisia);

A - 146.16. Take all necessary measures to have an independent national human rights institution with "A" status, in accordance with the Paris Principles (Portugal);

A - 146.17. Establish a national institution in accordance with the Paris Principles (Nicaragua);

A - 146.18. Establish a national human rights institution in accordance with Paris Principles (Pakistan);

A - 146.19. Establish an independent national human rights institution in conformity with the Paris Principles (Sierra Leone);

A - 146.20. Establish an independent national human rights institution (Sudan);

A - 146.21. Establish an independent national human rights institution in conformity with the Paris Principles (Benin);

A - 146.22. Establish a fully independent human rights institution in compliance with the Paris Principles (Denmark);

A - 146.23. Establish a national independent human rights institution in accordance with the Paris Principles (Ghana);

A - 146.24. Create an independent national human rights institution in conformity with the Paris Principles (Gabon);

A - 146.25. Establish early a national human rights institution in conformity with the Paris Principles (India);

N - 146.26. Further strengthen the Parliamentary Ombudsman as a national preventive mechanism in accordance with OP-CAT (Czech Republic);

N - 146.27. Eliminate the gender pay gap (Slovenia);

A - 146.28. Broaden the mandate of the Ombudsman for Equality to ensure better follow-up on cases of discrimination (Bahrain);

A - 146.29. Adopt a national plan on combating crimes of hatred, racism, and xenophobia (Russian Federation);

A - 146.30. Amend legislation, in line with Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination recommendations, to provide for the possibility of adopting special measures to promote equal opportunities, and address structural discrimination and inequality faced by immigrants, and minority groups, including Afro-Swedes and Muslims (Bangladesh);¹

N - 146.31. Take steps for eliminating religious and racial profiling faced by minorities including Muslims, Roma people and Afro-Swedes and prosecute perpetrators of xenophobic crimes (Pakistan);

N - 146.32. Adopt measures against ethnic profiling and prevent any collection of personal data on the basis of ethnic origin without the prior consent of those concerned (Czech Republic);

N - 146.33. Remove all ethnic profiling in the working methods of the police and other officials responsible for law enforcement (Mexico);

N - 146.34. Take measures to rapidly end the unlawful use of force by the police (Russian Federation);

N - 146.35. Intensify efforts in fighting the root causes of violence against women by paying special attention to addressing alcohol and drug abuse (Greece);

N - 146.36. Strengthen its investigations of sex crimes committed overseas by Swedish nationals and ensure that those who have travelled abroad to purchase sexual services, especially from children, can be prosecuted in Sweden (Thailand);

N - 146.37. Abolish the use of solitary confinement for minors in the juvenile justice system (Slovakia);

N - 146.38. Take urgent action to introduce an explicit statutory ban on solitary confinement for children in remand prisons and police cells (Israel);

N - 146.39. Introduce a limit for the time a child can be held in detention, pretrial (Israel);

N - 146.40. Take concrete steps to ensure that access to evidence is guaranteed to anyone under any regime of detention (Cuba);

N - 146.41. Take measures to limit the time of pretrial detention or the equivalent situation of deprivation of liberty without charges and for investigation purposes, in accordance with general comment No. 8 of the Human Rights Committee (Ecuador);

N - 146.42. Introduce alternative measures to pretrial detention for minors wherever possible, develop clear rules for the treatment of minors in police custody, and monitor their effective implementation in practice (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland);

N - 146.43. Take all appropriate measures in order to prevent the transfer of unaccompanied minors to Sweden and provide those who are already in the country with the necessary humanitarian support (Senegal);

N - 146.44. Take concrete measures to ensure that the guarantees of non-refoulement can be given to any person under the control of the Swedish authorities while considered a refugee by a third country, including for this purpose and if necessary, the adoption of legislative measures (Argentina).

147. The recommendations below did not enjoy the support of Sweden and would thus be noted:

N - 147.1. Consider ratifying other international human rights conventions, including the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (ICRMW) (Philippines); consider ratifying ICRMW (Guatemala); consider ratifying ICRMW (Rwanda); sign and ratify ICRMW (Uruguay); accelerate the process of ratification of ICRMW (Benin); ratify ICRMW (Sierra Leone); ratify ICRMW (Honduras);

N - 147.2. Consider ratifying ICRMW (Indonesia);

N - 147.3. Ratify ICRMW (Timor-Leste);

N - 147.4. Ratify ICRMW (Turkey);

N - 147.5. Ratify the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families, considering the equal and universal character should prevail for all international human rights instruments (Ecuador);

N - 147.6. Remove reservations to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, ICESCR, and the Optional Protocol to CRC on the sale of children and child pornography in order to ensure full implementation of these key international instruments (Uzbekistan);

- N - 147.7. Withdraw its declaration on article 2 (c) in order to give full effect to the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography in addressing all forms of child pornography (Lithuania);
- N - 147.8. Restore the term “race” as a ground of discrimination in accordance with the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (ICERD) (Ghana);
- N - 147.9. Take immediate steps to restore race as a ground of discrimination in compliance with ICERD, and the European Union Racial Equality Directive (Pakistan);
- N - 147.10. Further effectively investigate, prosecute and punish all hate crimes and establish an authority where complaints in this regard can be addressed (Germany);
- N - 147.11. Redouble its efforts in fostering national unity and harmony, including by intensifying dialogues promoting deeper understanding among societies of different ethnic and faith, addressing the negative portrayal in the media of members of the Muslim community and criminalizing hate speech and all forms of incitement to hatred and violence (Malaysia);
- N - 147.12. Take measures to prohibit in practice anti-immigration speech and racist propaganda (Togo);
- N - 147.13. Take the necessary steps to curb racist propaganda, including on the internet (Thailand);
- N - 147.14. Immediately ban anti-immigrant and anti-Muslim political discourse propagated by some political parties including Sweden Democrats (Pakistan);
- N - 147.15. Ensure accountability for hate speech including in political discourse, prohibiting organizations promoting and inciting racial hatred, in line with article 4 (b) of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination and ratify ICRMW (Egypt);
- N - 147.16. Amend legislation to prohibit the activities of organizations which promote and incite racial and religious hatred (Uzbekistan);
- N - 147.17. Declare illegal and prohibit organizations promoting and inciting racial hatred, in line with the international norms (Azerbaijan);
- N - 147.18. Amend its legislation to declare illegal and prohibit organizations promoting and inciting racial hatred, in line with article 4 (b) of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (Greece);
- N - 147.19. Implement a ban on racist organizations and activities (Iran (Islamic Republic of));
- N - 147.20. Strengthen legislation on the protection of the public from unauthorized actions by the police (Russian Federation);
- N - 147.21. Speed up the international legal cooperation mechanisms in the judicial bodies and the Prosecutor Office, to ensure due process, specifically in cases where the person concerned is protected by an asylum decision or refugee status (Ecuador);
- N - 147.22. Decriminalize defamation (Estonia);

Promoting and strengthening the Universal Periodic Review
<http://www.upr-info.org>

N - 147.23. Review surveillance legislation with a view to effectively protecting the right to privacy (Slovenia);

N - 147.24. Keep monitoring the application of the 2008 Surveillance Act to prevent interference with the right to privacy and to implement reforms to comply with its obligations under EU law as set out in the International Principles on the Application of Human Rights to Communications Surveillance (Netherlands);

N - 147.25. Provide protection for the family unit as the natural and fundamental unit of society (Egypt);

N - 147.26. Conduct impartial, public and thorough investigation of cases of possible involvement of Sweden in the unlawful detention, transportation, interrogation and torture by officers of the CIA of the USA of suspects of terrorism (Russian Federation).

Endnotes

1 The recommendation read in the meeting was “Amend legislation, in line with CERD recommendations, to provide for the possibility of adopting special measures to promote equal opportunities, and address structural discrimination and inequality”.

Disclaimer: This classification was made by UPR Info based on United Nations documents and webcast. For more information about this document, consult the “Methodology” on our website: www.upr-info.org. For questions, comments and/or corrections, please write to info@upr-info.org