

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO GERMANY-ADD 1

MONTENEGRO

- Montenegro applauds Germany's commitment to addressing the broad spectrum of human rights. We welcome the Government's steady implementation of The National Action Plan against racism that provides the bases of action for numerous measures against racism, which are regularly evaluated.
- Question: What are the mechanisms for evaluating the results of the implementation of The National Action Plan against racism? Additionally, what tools proved to be the most effective in raising the public awareness and ensuring that persons most vulnerable to racial discrimination and related intolerance are fully informed of the available legal remedies?

NORWAY

- We note that the national report has been prepared with input from NGOs and agencies set up to protect human rights. Are there particular lessons learnt from this approach that the government might want to expand on?
- What steps will Germany take to follow up and implement the recommendations of the Human Rights Council second review?
- Which are the actual or planned measures that will further improve gender equality in Germany?
