Item 6:
Consideration of UPR reports

Qatar

Mr. President,

Amnesty International welcomes Qatar's engagement with the Universal Periodic Review and its support for a number of key recommendations, in particular its support of recommendations to consider ratifying the ICCPR and the ICESCR;¹ Amnesty International urges Qatar to ratify the Covenants without delay and without entering any reservations.

We further call on Qatar to support and implement key recommendations, currently under consideration, to lift restrictions on the rights to freedom of opinion and expression and to take steps to promote freedom of the press in all forms of media.² In this regard, we encourage Qatar to repeal provisions that criminalize legitimate forms of freedom of expression, such as those in the Law on Press and Publication that prescribe imprisonment for criticizing the Emir, for writing about the armed forces without permission and for offending divine religions,³ as well as those in the Penal Code that punish blasphemy and consensual "illicit sexual relations".⁴

¹ A/HRC/14/2, paragraph 83, recommendation 1 (Slovenia), 2 (Democratic People's Republic of Korea), 3 (Brazil), 4 (Kazakhstan), 5 (Belarus).

² Ibid, paragraph 85, recommendation 17 (Canada).

³ Law No. 8 of 1979.

⁴ In 2009, at least three people were sentenced to the maximum of seven years' imprisonment for blasphemy and dozens were sentenced to punishments including imprisonment, flogging with 40-100 lashes in the case of Muslims and, additionally, deportation in the case of migrant workers for offences related to consensual "illicit sexual relations".

Mr. President;

Amnesty International also welcomes Qatar's consideration of recommendations regarding discrimination and violence against women, in particular, to review and repeal laws that discriminate against women.⁵ We call on Qatar to support these recommendations and to repeal or amend laws on guardianship, which restrict women's freedom of movement or discriminate against them in relation to nationality.

We welcome Qatar's support of recommendations to improve the protection of female domestic workers against violence and sexual abuse.⁶ We urge the government to also support recommendations regarding the protection of migrants from exploitation, including by reforming legislation on sponsorship.⁷

Mr. President,

Amnesty International regrets that Qatar rejected recommendations made by five states to establish an official moratorium on the use of the death penalty with a view to abolishing it.⁸ We call on the government to urgently reconsider its position on these recommendations.

Finally Mr. President, we welcome Qatar's support of the recommendation to continue to ensure fair trials.⁹ In implementing this recommendation, we urge Qatar to ensure an end to the use of arbitrary detention without charge or trial, including in the context of counter-terrorism and public security.¹⁰

Thank you, Mr President.

⁷ Ibid, paragraph 85, recommendation 20 (Canada), 21 (UK), 22 (Mexico), 23 (Netherlands), and 24 (France).

⁸ Ibid, paragraph 86, recommendation 7 (Slovenia), 8 (UK), 9 (Norway), 10 (Brazil), 11 (Spain).

⁹ Ibid, paragraph 83, recommendation 37 (Spain).

¹⁰ See Committee against Torture Concluding Observations on Qatar, 18 May 2006, CAT/C/QAT/CO/1 and also the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, adopted in 2006, which states "that effective counter-terrorism measures and the protection of human rights are not conflicting goals, but complementary and mutually reinforcing".
