

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO NEPAL – ADD.2

SPAIN

- In the aftermath of the recent earthquake, many women were denied humanitarian assistance because they lacked documentation and did not have a male relative to confirm their identity, how does the Nepali government intend to solve this discrimination against women?
- How is the Nepali government protecting women against traffickers pretending to be involved in relief efforts and sexual aggressors who reportedly target women and girls in areas devastated by the earthquake?
- What specific measures is the Nepali government adopting to prevent child marriages and to raise awareness about the harm of this practice?
- How does Nepal plan to ensure that gross human rights violations committed during the conflict are investigated and that those responsible are prosecuted and sanctioned?