Human Rights Council
31st session of the UPR working group,
Review of OMAN.
Intervention by ACI Human Rights

Genève 17.03.2016

Mr. Vice President,

Africa Culture International gives a warm welcome to the Oman delegation, and would love to commend Oman for the positive substantial advancement in transformation of the country, and developing the country's infrastructure and economy according to the previous UPR

ACI thanks Oman for a number of positive reforms in various sectors especially its engagement in the United Nations mechanism and putting effort to consider the promotion of Human Rights by adopting some recommendations from the previous review where the government has remodelled the infrastructure of the judicial system, , and has enacted legal reforms aimed at promoting free trial.

However, with keen interest in Protection of Human rights for women, children and every person, ACI Human Rights has noticed the continuous existence of breaches in Oman's international human rights obligations and commitments, particularly with regard to freedom of expression, freedom of association, and freedom of assembly and continuous repression of Women rights.

Africa Culture International Human Rights congratulates the government for its effort to adopt recommendations but would love to encourage Oman to strongly prioritize the development and promotion of Human rights, Women participation in political activities and Child protection in the country. ACI Human Rights wishes Oman all the best in implementation of these recommendations.

Thank you Mr. President.
