Universal Periodic Review

Report of the Working Group on the Universal Periodic Review*

United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

Addendum

Views on conclusions and/or recommendations, voluntary commitments and replies presented by the State under review

* The present document was not edited before being sent to the United Nations translation services.

1. The Universal Periodic Review (UPR) is a constructive process for States to learn from and to help each other in protecting human rights and fundamental freedoms. The United Kingdom (UK) remains fully committed to the UPR and to promoting human rights internationally.

2. This document and its annex was prepared by the UK Government closely liaising as appropriate with the Devolved Administrations, the British Overseas Territories and the Crown Dependencies. Officials also met with non-governmental stakeholders, including the three UK National Human Rights Institutions.

3. The UK has reviewed the 227 recommendations that it received during the dialogue with the UPR Working Group on 4 May 2017. In summary, the UK “supports” 96 recommendations (that is, it has either fully implemented them or intends to do so), and “notes” 131 recommendations (that is, it has taken some steps but it is not fully implementing them). In view of the word limit, the table below sets out the UK position on each recommendation, whilst a separate annex to this document summarises the rationale behind it.
