

The Impact of Ghana's Government Policies on Freedom of Expression and Freedom of the Press

Submission to the United Nations Universal Periodic Review of Ghana

Third Cycle

Twenty Eighth Session of the UPR

Human Rights Council

October - November 2017

March 30, 2017

Submitted by:

PEN International: PEN International is a global writers' organization with 144 centres in more than 100 countries in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia and the Americas.

PEN Ghana: Ghanaian PEN was established in 1994 and was the first African PEN Centre to introduce and establish a creative writing programme for students in 1998, by forming PEN Youth Clubs in senior secondary schools in Ghana. The PEN Youth Club initiative was later adopted by PEN International's Assembly of Delegates at the 2001 Congress and since then many centre have replicated programme. Currently, there are over 60 PEN Youth Clubs inaugurated and operating in senior high schools throughout Ghana.

Contacts: Sarah Clarke (PEN International), Policy and Advocacy Manager, +44 20 7405 0338, sarah.clarke@pen-international.org