1. Indonesia welcomes the valuable contributions and 225 recommendations made by 101 delegations during the interactive dialogue in May. The active participation of Members in the Universal Periodic Review mechanism underscores their commitment to promoting, realizing and protecting human rights, and to working in cooperation to produce concrete effects.

2. The significant participation reflects the confidence and genuine interest of States in Indonesia’s efforts to promote, implement and protect human rights at the national and local levels. It also reflects the support for Indonesia’s efforts to make concrete contributions through bilateral and regional cooperation and at the global level to advance the human rights agenda.

3. Indonesia accepted the 150 recommendations made by the Working Group on Indonesia in its report of 5 May 2017, of which two have been implemented or are under implementation. Indonesia was one of several States among those that directly accepted the recommendations made by the Working Group during its 27th session.

4. In addition, Indonesia noted that further review was needed of the other 75 recommendations for the following reasons: (a) further consultations with a wider range of stakeholders were needed; (b) the recommendations were not accurate and difficult to translate into policies; (c) they were not part of national priorities; (d) they did not reflect the local situation.

5. Following the review, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Ministry of Law and Human Rights organized a series of inter-ministerial and inter-agency consultations to discuss the 150 recommendations accepted and the 75 recommendations that were yet to be considered. The National Human Rights Commission (the Indonesian Human Rights Commission) and other thematic human rights institutions and various civil society organizations participated in these consultations.

6. The consultations also determined a mechanism to monitor the implementation of the recommendations, the National Action Plan and its Coordinating Secretariat. The implementation of Indonesia’s Universal Periodic Review report was widely disseminated to raise public awareness of the dialogue process, in which many of the recommendations will be aligned with the national human rights agenda.

7. Indonesia also introduced the third round of the Universal Periodic Review experience at the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights meeting in Phuket, Thailand, on 18 June 2017, to other ASEAN Member States.

8. In addition to the 150 recommendations accepted, Indonesia further “supported” 17 recommendations. The remaining 58 recommendations were assessed and noted by Indonesia.

9. Indonesia noted that these 58 recommendations involved the following requirements:

- Acceptance of a legal framework that has not gained widespread or international support;
- Invitation to all special procedures and mandate holders of the Human Rights Council without specific mention;
- Action that is not a priority of the national human rights agenda;
- Acceptance of recommendations that are not correct or clear, making it difficult to convert them into policy.

10. Considering the word limit, the complete list of recommendations supported and noted by Indonesia is attached.
