

ANNEX I

JOINT SUBMISSION OF INDONESIAN CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANIZATIONS TO THE UPR 27TH SESSION OF UPR WORKING GROUP

PROFILE OF ORGANIZATIONS

Human Rights Working Group (HRWG) Indonesia, established in February 2003 in Jakarta by the majority of NGOs working in different issues but share interest in human rights to serve the need for elaborate advocacy works already in place with the aim of maximizing the goals and putting more pressures on the Indonesian government to execute its international and constitutional obligations to protecting, fulfilling, respecting and promoting human rights in the country.

Yarnati Building, Jl. Proklamasi No. 44, Pegangsaan, Menteng, Jakarta Pusat – Indonesia

Ph. (+62)21 314 3015 Fax. (+62) 21 314 3058

Website: www.hrwg.org Email: hrwg.indonesia@gmail.com

Institute for Policy Research and Advocacy (ELSAM), established in August 1993 in Jakarta, is a policy advocacy organisation with limited association as its legal entity. To actively participate in the efforts to develop, promote and protect civil and political rights and other human rights, as mandated by the 1945 Constitution and Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), has become ELSAM's driving objective. From the outset, ELSAM has committed itself to developing a democratic political order in Indonesia by empowering civil society through advocacy and promoting human rights.

Jl. Siaga II No. 31, Pejaten Barat, Pasar Minggu, Jakarta Selatan, Indonesia (12510)

Ph. (+62) 21 7972662, Fax. (+62) 21 79192519

Website: www.elsam.or.id E-mail: office@elsam.or.id

Institute for Criminal Justice Reform (ICJR) is an independent research institute which focuses on reforming the criminal justice system and law in general in Indonesia. Provide support in the context of building respect for the rule of law and simultaneously build a culture of human rights in the criminal justice system.

Jl. Siaga II No. 6F, Pasar Minggu, Jakarta Selatan, Indonesia 12510

Ph. (+62) 21 7945455

Website: www.icjr.or.id Email: infoicjr@icjr.or.id

Indonesian Human Rights Monitor (Imparsial), established on 2002 by 18 prominent human rights activists of Indonesia; Todung Mulya Lubis, Karlina Leksono, M. Billah, Wardah Hafidz, Hendardi, Nursyahbani Katjasungkana, Ade Rostina Sitompul, Robertus Robet, Binny Buchory, Kamala Chandrakirana, HS Dillon, Munir, Rachlad Nashidil, Rusdi Marpaung, Otto Syamsuddin Ishak, Nezar Patria, Amiruddin, dan Poengky Indarti. The name of "Imparsial" taken from word "impartial": a sight to respect fairness for all individuals without differs by race, religion, of nations for justice, with the special attention to those who less fortunate.

Jl. Tebet Utara II C No. 25, Tebet, Jakarta Selatan – Indonesia (12820)

Ph. (+62) 21 837 86997 Fax. (+62) 21 837 86997

Website: www.imparsial.org Email: office@imparsial.org

Perlindungan Insani Indonesia (Protection International) is an international, non-profit organization that brings protection strategies and security management tools to human rights defenders at risk. Since 2004, Protection International has been working with local partners in over thirty countries throughout the world. In Indonesia, Perlindungan Insani Indonesia has committed to building the capacities of individual defenders, organizations, networks and communities to analyze risk and improve their security.

Gedung Jiwasraya Gondangdia

Jl. R.P. Soeroso No. 41, 3rd Floor, Jakarta Pusat, Indonesia (10350)

Website: <https://protectioninternational.org> Email:

LBH Masyarakat (Community Legal Aid Institute) is a not-for-profit legal aid organization that provides free legal services for the poor and victims of human rights abuses; undertakes legal empowerment for marginalized groups; and advocates for legal reform and human rights protection through strategic litigation, public campaigns, and research and analysis.

Jl. Tebet Timur Dalam VI E No. 3, Tebet Timur, Jakarta Selatan, Indonesia (12820)

Ph. (+62) 21 830 5450

Website: www.lbh masyarakat.org Email:

Association of Legal Aid and Human Rights of Indonesia (PBHI) is nonprofit association which individual member-based which dedicated to the promotion and defense of human rights (promoting and human rights defending) regardless of race or ethnicity, religion, language, color, gender and sexual orientation, status and social class, profession or career, political orientation and ideology. PBHI was established on November 5th, 1996 in Jakarta through Congress followed by 54 founding members from various backgrounds as an assembled place for everyone who cares about human rights for all. The members come from various backgrounds such as lawyers. The members come from various backgrounds such as advocates, lawyers, human rights defenders, women and labor activist, researcher and journalist.

Jl. Hayam Wuruk No. 4 SX-TX Kebon Kelapa, Gambir, Jakarta Pusat, Indonesia (10120)

Ph. (+62) 21 385 9968, (+62) 21 351 3526 Fax. (+62) 21 385 9970

Website: www.pbhi.or.id Email: seknas.pbhi@gmail.com, pbhi@cbn.net.id

Jakarta Legal Aid Institute (LBH Jakarta) officially established on October 28th 1970. The first idea of this institution was to delivered legal aid services to the people who not be able to defend their rights, especially poor and marginalized people. The principle to democracy enforcement, human rights and justice brought LBH to the middle of fighting field against structural injustice that build in new order frame. LBH choose to take side along with labour, farmer, student, urban poor and all components who has aim to defend democracy.

Jl. Pangeran Diponegoro No. 74, RT 9/RW 2, Pegangsaan, Menteng, Jakarta Pusat – Indonesia (10320)

Ph. (+62) 21 314 5518

Website: www.bantuanhukum.or.id Email: lbhjakarta@bantuanhukum.or.id

Indonesian Association of Women with Disabilities (HWDI-HWPCI) is the civil society organizations of persons with disabilities which board and its membership consists of women and various types of disabilities (blind, deaf, disabled and mentally retarded). HWPCI founded on September 9, 1997 in Jakarta. HWPCI born in response to global demands on empowerment of women with disabilities (disabled).

Menteng Square Office and Apartment, 2nd Floor, Tower A Unit AR-01
Jl. Matraman Raya No. 30 E, Menteng, Jakarta Pusat – Indonesia
Ph. (+62) 21 296 14294, Fax. (+62) 21 296 14294
Website. www.hwdi.or.id Email. hwdi@hotmail.co.id

VIVAT Indonesia is a national branch of VIVAT International, NGO in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations. VIVAT members works at the local, national and global level. Focusing on human rights, VIVAT Indonesia has commitments to promote and advocate for the issues of human trafficking, women and children, migrant & domestic workers, the SDGs, indigenous peoples rights and West Papua as well as caring for the mother earth.

Indonesian Federation of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Transsexual and Intersexual Communities (Arus Pelangi) was formed on January 15, 2006 in Jakarta. Establishment of Arus Pelangi driven by an urgent need among the LGBTI community, both individuals and groups, to form mass organizations that promote and defend the fundamental rights of the LGBTI community in Indonesia .
Tebet, Jakarta Selatan, DKI Jakarta – Indonesia
Ph. (+62) 21 8379 7630
Website. www.aruspelangi.org

Indonesian Forum for the Environment (WALHI) was founded in 1980 and joined FoEI in 1989. WALHI is the largest and oldest environmental advocacy NGO in Indonesia. WALHI unites more than 479 NGOs and 156 individuals throughout Indonesia's vast archipelago, with independent offices and grassroots constituencies located in 27 of the nation's 31 provinces. Its newsletter is published in both English and the native language. WALHI works on a wide range of issues, including agrarian conflict over access to natural resources, indigenous rights and peasant, coastal and marine, and deforestation. WALHI also has several cross cutting issues such as climate change, women and disaster risk management.
Jl. Tegall Parang Utara No. 14, Jakarta Selatan – Indonesia (12790)
Ph. (+62) 21 79193363, Fax. (+62) 21 794 1673
Website. www.walhi.or.id

Legal Aid Institute (LBH) for Press is a non-governmental institution established in 2003 with the vision to realize a democratic civil society through the efforts of legal aid and advocacy for press freedom and freedom of expression in Indonesia.
E-mail: lbhpers@yahoo.com, Website. <http://www.lbhpers.org/>

Franciscans International (FI) is an international non-governmental organization advocating at the United Nations for the promotion, protection, and respect of human rights, social rights, and environmental justice. Since its establishment in 1989, FI uses advocacy as a tool to combat and curb human rights abuses. Advocacy, from the latin ad-vocare (to appeal, to invoke), is a process that aims to influence political decisions. It is the act of pleading or arguing in favour of a group of peoples' right, causes, ideas, or policies. FI understands advocacy as a means to amplify the voices of the marginalized.

Rue de Vermont 37, 1202 Geneve, Swiss
Ph. (+41) 22 779 4010

Migrant Workers Network (JBM) is a network of organizations and working groups that fight for an effective protection for Indonesian migrant workers, wherever they are. This network is now led by a presidium which each has a different tasks but intertwined with each other, namely the legislative protection of migrant workers, the handling of migrant workers cases and the struggle to advance the interests of Indonesian migrant workers in various regional forums of which are ASEAN. The organization started in 2010 which focusing on the national legislation program entered in it by parliament to revise the Law No. 39/2004 on the Placement and Protection of Indonesian Workers Abroad (PPTIKLN).

Website. <http://jaringanburuhmigran.blogspot.co.id/>

Trade Union Rights Centre (TURC) is a social institution which focused on the study about labor in Indonesia. The purpose of this institution is to become an information centre for the workers and the trade unions for legal, economic and social as well as the labor situation. The activities they used to do with the trade unions/labor unions as TURC partners, facilitating the empowerment of workers and unions by providing education to the workers also linked trade unions labor rights as well as his family.

Indonesian Legal Aid Foundation (YLBHI) was established in Jakarta, October 26, 1970. Has 15 branches (Aceh, Medan, Palembang, Padang, Pekanbaru, Bandar Lampung, Jakarta, Bandung, Yogyakarta, Semarang, Surabaya, Bali, Makassar, Manado, and Papua). YLBHI closely associated with structural legal aid for the poor, blind victims of violations of law and human rights.

Mining Advocacy Network (JATAM) is a network of non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and community based organizations with a concern for human rights issues, gender, environment, indigenous peoples and issues of social justice in the mining and oil and gas industries.

Jl. Mampang Prapatan No. 30 B, Jakarta Selatan, DKI Jakarta – Indonesia 12790

Ph. (+62) 21 7997849, Fax. (+62) 21 7997174

Email. jatam@jatam.org