

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO BHUTAN (THIRD BATCH)

SPAIN

- Spain congratulates the Government of Bhutan on the creation of the National Commission for Women and Children, which, coinciding with International Women's Day, presented its national report on gender violence. However, Spain would like to know what follow-up the Government intends to give to the content of this report?
- Spain notes with satisfaction the reduction of the percentage of child marriages from 8.7% in 2012 to 5.5% in 2017. However, taking into account that the legal minimum age for marriage is 18 years and this practice still persists, what practical measures does the Government carry out to eradicate child marriage?
