104.37	Noted	The Government of Saint Lucia recognises that the establishment of a National Human Rights Institution (NHRI) is the ideal mechanism by which a more coordinated and systematic approach to monitoring and reporting on human rights can be achieved. The Government also recognises its limitations in establishing such a mechanism at this time. In the absence of an NHRI, the Government established a National Mechanism for Reporting and Follow Up (NMRF) in 2019 with the creation of the National Coordinating Committee for Human Rights.
