27th UPR Session- Side Event

Palais de Nations, Room XI, from 1 to 2.30 pm on 5 May

As the Universal Periodic Review enters its third cycle, The ICPD Geneva Network is proud to initiate a series of side events showcasing State efforts to advance Sustainable Development Goals and the ICPD agenda through the implementation and follow-up of UPR recommendations in collaboration with national and international stakeholders, including UN agencies and Civil Society Organizations. These events will aim to clarify and illustrate the linkages between Human Rights and Population and Development through the concrete changes the UPR process has helped to promote in national policies and practices.
