Our office has finally been registered under the Kenyan law. We warmly thank the people of the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) for their support. As an example, visit our website, www.upr.info.org.

Partners in Asia

Notably, we will continue our support for activists in Asia, including from Geneva. We will be working with our partners in Sri Lanka, India and Nepal to enhance their skills and knowledge of the UPR. Read more here.

Nairobi

Having met many objectives and for internal organisational reasons, it was decided to close the UPR Info Asia office in December 2016. We will actively continue our support for activists in Asia, including from Geneva. We will be working with our partners in Sri Lanka, India and Nepal to enhance their skills and knowledge of the UPR. Read more here.

Troika Members selected for UPR Working Group Sessions 27 and 28

This month also saw the selection of the Troika members for the year's UPR Working Group Sessions, and the publication by the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights of the note verbale (N/V) No. 70. It is expected that the Troika will use the N/V to draft the document on the summary of other stakeholders' noted recommendations from their previous reviews. They will be used by the Working Group, in preparation for their UPR engagement.

In preparation for Session 27 of the UPR, CSOs continue to focus on the third cycle of the UPR, a feature to be emphasised in the third cycle.

The Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) has released a country-specific matrix for each of the States that will be under review on the 28th Session this November. To see information on the countries to be reviewed.

Although the processes in Geneva have been calm in preparation for the UPR Third Cycle to start in May, the troika is expected to try to provide training for State parties, in the lead-up to the 28th Session, due to start next March, and the publication by the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights of the note verbale (N/V) No. 70.
