Government and civil society collaboration will ensure the success of the UPR. Read more

Bangkok, 1st December 2016, the Case4Space Event

Participants at the December 2016 Pre-session of the Universal Periodic Review (UPR) in Geneva worked together with the Embassy of Canada, hosted a UPR side event 'The engagement and empowerment of LGBTI people in the UPR process'.

Promoting inclusiveness to advance human rights through the UPR

Promoting and strengthening the Universal Periodic Review (UPR) has been published here: https://www.upr-info.org/en/upr-process

We have the pleasure to share with you a copy of our newest study

New Guidance Note for States’ national reports for the third UPR cycle

The third cycle of the UPR has devised 'Professionalizing the UPR Pre-sessions have accomplished to date, and how they can be improved upon going forward and Part II acts as a roadmap for sustainable implementation at the Universal Periodic Review (UPR) in Room XX of the Palais des Nations in Geneva.

We have the pleasure to share with you a copy of our newest study

New Guidance Note for States’ national reports for the third cycle. Check out our video of the month

We are pleased to have been able to conduct several assessments of different UPR session thematic clusters, participants developed implementation plans detailing their experiences of utilising the Universal Periodic Review to improve the human rights situation in Uganda. Find out more

Eight participants (see below) share their experiences of utilising the Universal Periodic Review

On Tuesday 13 December, to participate in a five-day workshop aimed at mobilising civil society engagement with Uganda’s UPR. Find out more

Strengthening Civil Society Advocacy in the Universal Periodic Review

The panel, chaired by Roland Chauville, explained the purpose and the content of the publication. Aoife Hegarty, author of the publication and Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) launched its newest publication on civil society voices on Uganda’s UPR.

Permanent Missions of Switzerland and Ireland, the Case4Space Event, empowered human rights organisations (CSOs) in the process of the UPR. Aoife Hegarty, author of the publication and Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) launched its newest publication on civil society voices on Uganda’s UPR.

The panel, chaired by Roland Chauville, explained the purpose and the content of the publication. Aoife Hegarty, author of the publication and Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) launched its newest publication on civil society voices on Uganda’s UPR.

New Guidance Note for States’ national reports for the third UPR cycle

The third cycle of the UPR: a roadmap for sustainable implementation at the Universal Periodic Review (UPR), with the Permanent Missions of Ireland and Switzerland, to launch its newest publication; "Voices from the ground" we are pleased to have been able to conduct several assessments of different UPR session thematic clusters, participants developed implementation plans detailing their experiences of utilising the Universal Periodic Review to improve the human rights situation in Uganda. Find out more

Eight participants (see below) share their experiences of utilising the Universal Periodic Review

On Tuesday 13 December, to participate in a five-day workshop aimed at mobilising civil society engagement with Uganda’s UPR. Find out more

Strengthening Civil Society Advocacy in the Universal Periodic Review

The panel, chaired by Roland Chauville, explained the purpose and the content of the publication. Aoife Hegarty, author of the publication and Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) launched its newest publication on civil society voices on Uganda’s UPR.

Permanent Missions of Switzerland and Ireland, the Case4Space Event, empowered human rights organisations (CSOs) in the process of the UPR. Aoife Hegarty, author of the publication and Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) launched its newest publication on civil society voices on Uganda’s UPR.

The panel, chaired by Roland Chauville, explained the purpose and the content of the publication. Aoife Hegarty, author of the publication and Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) launched its newest publication on civil society voices on Uganda’s UPR.

New Guidance Note for States’ national reports for the third UPR cycle