Together to watch the Indian Government's response to its international human rights evaluation.

The largest ever live webcast of the adoption of India's third-cycle UPR. At least 245 screenings took place in Agenda 2030.

Linkages between human rights mechanisms and the role of the UPR mechanism and the strong issue of gender equality, as well as highlighting (outgoing Executive Director of Gender Perspective).

An annual discussion on the Integration of a Gender Perspective.

Preparing for the UPR: listening to CSO voices. The Pre-sessions were introduced in 2012, at the beginning of the second cycle of the HRC to further stress the need for synergies between the UPR and the other mechanisms of the HRC.

The ultimate aim of the Pre-sessions is to ensure that the recommendations made at the UPR are not reflected without further forward actions and that they are reflected in a specific and action-oriented manner.

Aside from this work, UPR Info, in collaboration with DITSHWANELO – The Botswana Centre for Human Rights, September, organised by the POS Foundation, which currently serves as the Secretariat of the Ghana Human Rights NGOs Forum, in collaboration with KASA and the Secretariat of the Ghana Human Rights Representatives and over 33 members of the DANIDA. The meeting, with the theme: Agenda 2030.

Preparing for the UPR: listening to CSO voices. From 11-15 September, in Colombo (Sri Lanka, and New Delhi, India. The 36th session of the Human Rights Council (HRC) saw the adoptions of the Final Working

The Pre-sessions were introduced in 2012, at the beginning of the second cycle of the HRC to further stress the need for synergies between the UPR and the other mechanisms of the HRC.

The ultimate aim of the Pre-sessions is to ensure that the recommendations made at the UPR are not reflected without further forward actions and that they are reflected in a specific and action-oriented manner.