UPR Info announces the next Pre-sessions whilst working on innovation implementation

UPR Info has the pleasure of announcing the next Pre-sessions for States in their preparation for the 28th Session of the UPR in February 2017. We are currently finalising the pre-sessions for States covered in this cycle, and will soon announce the next Pre-sessions.

Check the Pre-sessions

Upcoming Pre-sessions are:
- 28th Session of the UPR Working Group
- UPR Info’s Pre-sessions for States covered in the 28th Session of the UPR

Stay up to date with the latest news on the UPR.

UPR Info’s ACTIVITIES

General Features
- Latest documents
- Tools and Resources
- Key dates
- UPR Pre-sessions and implementation

Togo

Togolese CSOs. Full article

Moroccan civil society fully engaged for UPR follow-up

From 29 June to 2 July 2017, UPR Info co-organised a UPR strategy workshop in Khémisset, Morocco. This workshop was held in collaboration with several CSOs in Lomé. The Government of Togo shared its decision in March 2017 with Geneva by UPR Info, and then in December 2016 with a workshop for CSO co-organized by UPR Info and the Royal Government of Morocco. On 29-30 June 2017, the workshop received a lot of media coverage in both radio and national and international CSOs, OHCHR Cambodia and the Royal Government of Cambodia. In addition, the workshop received a lot of media coverage in both radio and national and international CSOs, OHCHR Cambodia and the Royal Government of Cambodia. The event brought together representatives from the National dialogue was the culmination of a cooperative project bringing together many State of Togo and their CSOs, the first ever in the country.

Cambodian CSOs take stock of UPR implementation

On 29-30 June 2017, UPR Info co-organised a UPR strategy workshop in Khémisset, Morocco. The workshop, held in the region of Khémisset, brought together some 50 NGOs to discuss the national UPR process, and how civil society could contribute to the protection and promotion of human rights. The workshop was part of a project to strengthen the role of civil society in the human rights system. The event was the culmination of a cooperative project bringing together many State of Togo and their CSOs, the first ever in the country.

Counsellor, Embassy of Switzerland in Morocco

The National dialogue was the culmination of a cooperative project bringing together many State of Togo and their CSOs, the first ever in the country.

Sibylle OBRIST

The UPR across the times in Togo

We are currently finalising the pre-sessions for States covered in this cycle, and will soon announce the next Pre-sessions.

Conclusion

The National dialogue was the culmination of a cooperative project bringing together many State of Togo and their CSOs, the first ever in the country.

The UPR across the times in Togo

We are currently finalising the pre-sessions for States covered in this cycle, and will soon announce the next Pre-sessions.