G. Expectations of the State concerned in terms of capacity-building and requests, if any, for technical assistance and support received;

III. Duration of the review in the Working Group on the Universal Periodic Review

3. The duration of the review shall be extended to three hours and thirty minutes for each country in the working group, during which the State under review shall be given up to [60/70] minutes to be used for initial presentation, replies and concluding comments in line with PRST/8/1.

4. The allocation of time during the working group shall be in accordance with Annex 2.

IV. List of Speakers in the Working Group on the Universal Periodic Review

5. The established procedures, which allow 3 minutes speaking time for Member States and 2 minutes for Observer States, will continue to apply when all speakers can be accommodated within three hours and thirty minutes available to Member and Observer States.

6. Should it be impossible to accommodate all speakers within three hours and thirty minutes based on 3 minutes speaking time for Member States and 2 minutes for Observer States, the speaking time will be reduced to 2 minutes for all.

7. If all speakers still cannot be accommodated, the speaking time will be divided among all delegations inscribed so as to enable each and every speaker to take the floor.

8. Steps for drawing up the list of speakers

- a. The list of speakers will open at 10:00 on the Monday of the week preceding the beginning of the UPR working group session and remain open for a period of four days. It will close on the Thursday at 18:00. A registration desk will be set up at the Palais des Nations. The exact location will be communicated to all permanent missions by the Secretariat.
- b. In all cases, regardless of speaking times, the delegations inscribed on the list of speakers will be arranged by alphabetical order of the country names in English. On the Friday morning preceding the beginning of the session, the President, in the presence of the Bureau, will draw by lot the first speaker on the list. The list of speakers will continue from the State drawn onward. On Friday afternoon, all - delegations will be informed of the speaking order and of the speaking time available to delegations.

- c. Speaking time limits during the review will be strictly enforced. Speakers who exceed speaking time will have their microphones cut off. Speakers may therefore wish to deliver the essential part at the beginning of their statements.
 - d. All speakers will retain the possibility of swapping place on the speakers list under bilateral arrangement between speakers
